Saradomin guide rs3

In: Strategy, The Dungeon War Gods share this as a guide to defeating Commander Zilyana, General Sarado Mina in the dungeon god war. Please note that while Commander Zilyana has the same resistance to all attacks. Magic is often not possible here due to lack of armor and unnecessary costs. The strategy commander needs Zilyana, while not being the strongest of generals (having hit a maximum of 31), should not be underestimated. Zilyana's attack is very accurate, she attacks at speed 8 (every 1.2 seconds), which can result in rapid death. So it is not recommended to tank her attack (you will need to have very high shear protection in order to do this); The master room is very large, so you can quickly respond this way. Zilyana's melee attack was directed at the player she was targeting, while her magic attack would hit everyone in the room. She can use these attacks when she is in close proximity to the player she is targeting, a pair of players fighting with Commander Zilyana and her bodyguard. In team settings, if Zilyana can't attack her current target, she will turn her aggression into a nearby attacker. Zilyana will pause in motion for a few seconds whenever she uses her magic attack, buying rangers some time to escape or fit in on some special attacks. This combination of Verac is generally the best option for melee users, as it avoids Zilyana's very high protection, otherwise melee users should try to increase their attack bonus to account for the accuracy issue. In any case, it is still recommended for a team that will consist of at least one Ranger, since melee users cannot fight back when they are targets. Melee users can use zamorak godsword special attacks to make easy retreats or special attacks of Bandos godsword to reduce Zilyana's very high defensive level. However, the superior precision of the godsword's extraordinary attack makes them the most reliable in this situation. - Consider using a special key. If you choose to kill, attack spiritual warriors and mages, since they often attack nearby Zamorakians, other Saradominist minions (knights, priests and spiritual rangers) should be attacked if they are attacked, since they are not aggressive towards zamorakians, you will need saradomin items and Zamorak items that will be fully protected from the NPC in encampment. Their armor can resist the attack of magic minions. However, this makes contact with Zilyana even more dangerous. Guthan's device can be used to treat minions, but there are downsides of more weight. Each bone with peaches can be used to extend the journey, each killing rotates to 32 Hitpoints worth of bones. Before entering the room, make sure that Zilyana and Starlight (melee bodyguards) are very far from the door, so they do not attack you immediately when they come in. She shares the same combat level, but has different life scores and top hits as war generals, other gods. She also has the highest attack speed from all Lord's war bosses (attacked every 1.2 seconds) and with a maximum of 2200 attacks with her magic and melee attacks, which combined with her fast attack speed may prove deadly for an inexperienced player, Zilyana is known for placing sara domin fetish, which has a chaotic drop substance, creating a more powerful fetish. However, her best drops are Saradomin hilt and armadyl crosses, hands which are very expensive. Attacking a group of players fighting with Commander Zilyana in the war dungeon, Lord Zilyana has only two different forms of combat. Both attacks had the highest in 1900. Swing her sword at her target, which involves high damage. Magic: Zilyana's sword glows and hits the player in her room with lightning. One of the most popular ways to kill Zilyana is a spell with a high level of magic equipment, as it provides good magic and melee protection, which will better eliminate her attacks. When using magic to kill Zilyana, the player should be on the west side of the room, one area away from the middle of the wall. This is because when she spawned Growler is in the range of Dragon Breath and the player can kill him while they are killing Zilyana as well. Players are advised to save adrenaline for sunshine, otherwise the killing will take too long and end with a shorter journey. When Zilyana and her guards are Go back to the point again to repeat for the next kill. Sometimes Growler may spawn one square too far or close to the point of the player. If he lays eggs far too far, just use the Chain to damage him. If it is too close, move back one square so that he can be attacked with dragon breath. CAUTION: Blood spells from ancient witchcraft will enrage Zilyana, adding damage to her own attacks. Community content is available under CC-BY-SA unless otherwise stated by RuneScape Wiki Wiki for all things RuneScape < Commander Zilyana.
