Meet Tim Laneliner has been Menlo Bello's fearless leader and owner since 1995. Rainer has amassed a collection of bikes after being fully established in the cycling industry. The proud father of a UCSB graduate who now attends law school in Sacramento; Groad or gravel gilded. This is Joey, she is a dog. More specifically, she is Liner's dog. She hangs out in the store relatively often, and she is very friendly. Sometimes Zoe can feel a little lonely in the store, feel free to stop by and give her some hurt. Dogs are also welcome! Christian has been a personal bike wizard/magician/professional/service professional since 2008.He likes roads and cyclocross and joins the midday ride whenever he doesn't wrench. Favourite bike: Ultegra D2, 11-42t cassette, professional rubais with 321 rear carbon disc wheels. Michael Michael is a proud burn survivor and certified bike hoarder. Self-proclaimed retired Pixie Kidd. His first job was at a bike shop where he graduated straight from high school, and he has worked in a bike shop ever since. Favorite style of bike: everything with single speed and flat handlebars. Bells, baskets, racks plus! RichA Liefer in the cycling industry has seen it all. The rich man likes to take an old old bike that no one else wants at home and fix it. Find a good rider for them. He recently started racing cyclocross again after 10 years, and he's dug up a new team kit. Favorite style of bike: literally nothing with two wheels and brakes. If you want to visit us in town or try a new style of horseback riding, we have a great selection of high quality rental bikes ready to ride.
