Village school marblehead lunch menu

MARBLEHEAD, Mass. - Marblehead Public Schools said Tuesday it will expand its school lunch program to provide free grab-and-go meals to all students during the closure of a three-week state order for all Massachusetts schools. Meals are available to students regardless of lunch benefit status. The extended service will begin on Wednesday. Meals, including lunch and breakfast the next morning, can be .m at Village School at 93 Village kelleher.richard@marbleheadschoools.org Street from October to noon on weekdays. On Sunday, Massachusetts Gov. Charlie Baker ordered that all schools be closed for at least three weeks. The Massachusetts Department of Primary and Secondary Education is working with school districts to develop distance learning programs to make sure critical services provided by schools remain available during the three-week closure period. Details of these plans are expected in the coming days, but already the state had received an exemption from federal rules that allow low-income school districts to continue providing food service.
