I rather be happy lyrics by kirk franklin

silver and gold Silver and gold I would rather jesus than silver and gold No glory or happiness Nor the riches of indescribable I would have Jesus than silver and gold Do not give me a mansion on the hill Do not give me the world with shallow excitement But just give me the savior my life He may have I, and jesus than the silver and gold I woke up this morning feeling the kind down I called the best friend She could not be found but I called Jesus My Life He may have me, not Jesus, nor silver and gold Us child born Son is given I, and Jesus What a profit man to gain the whole world and lose his soul I would have Jesus For there is no other name given to heaven by which we must be saved I, and Jesus He is the only one who can save you I , and jesus than silver and gold It's Wednesday and mid-week. So bright and sunny I just had to enjoy the spring weather! It was so warm this afternoon that I could wear sneakers for the first time this year! Hallelujah! Last night I rehearsed with my choir of Soulful Voices like I did every Tuesday. First of all, such a great group of people! My Tuesday nights are the best. I like when the songs start to come together, and you can start working on production, dynamics and the whole shebang. We had Manfred Hulebo there to accompany us on the piano so I could lead the choir, and as you can see in the video, dance and do some really silly choreography to help the choir remember the songs. Seriously so sweaty and exhausted after the choir, but I had such a good time. By the way, our choir has a photographer... Anneli. First she kind of resisted her task, now she's filming and taking pictures without even asking me. Look how she walks, gets different angels, haha. I have some time and just talk about how much I like that second song that we sing in that video. Kirk Franklin rewrote the lyrics and performed a version of his Al Green song: Tired Of Being Alone. Is it called want to be happy? I like that question mark. This is a question in many cases. Do you want to be happy? You have to make a decision. Read lyrics:I just want to be happyBut if I keep doing what constantly bring me painThere no one else can blame If I'm not happyWasted time but now I seeGrea the great enemy it was meSo I'm not happyCry myself sleepShout and raise my handIt will settle to change thing childUntil you understand If you are tired of being the same If you are tired of things that do not changelt is time for you to get out of the wayDon't get stuck how do you thinkSay Jesus take the wheelHe knows the way that you need to take If you want to be happyDon do not want to be happy? I just want to be happy... But if I keep giving my hearta tear apartTreating never startSo I can be happy will I ever Happy? Cry yourself and raise your handsHe turned to change the thing childUntil you understand If you are tired of being the same If you are tired of things, what does not changelt's time you get out of the wayDon't get stuck. how do you thinkSay Jesus take the wheelHe knows the way that you need to takelt's so easy to complainAddicted in painYou give you heart, they push it awayJesus know how you thinkJust let him take the wheelThing you need , he already gaveDo want to be happy? I just want to be happy! love as he turned Al Green's lyrics around and pointed out how we really have to make those decisions to make ourselves happy. I know it's not easy for everyone to just choose to be happy. I have friends who are struggling with depression and all sorts of hard things, but for me this song has become really real! He talked to me. Thanks to Kirk Franklin once again wrote the song with such a great meaning. Funny how sad I look, haha! But I'm really happy!!! Promise! Today, I have given some young people a heavy love. I was annoyed by laziness and how few of them turned out to be ready. I finally said, If I keep helping you pass every time while you're making as little effort as possible to pass and don't seem to care. You will eventually grow up and think that everything will be accomplished in life, even if I do not make any effort. Well, what won't happen. You have to work for it. If you don't put that job in when you're grown up and have a job, you'll lose that job. I better fail you in music, so you learn a lesson now rather than growing up not taught how to work hard to achieve goals. Sometimes I'm so strict. It may sound like a cliché, but at the end of the day I really say things like this when I care. Hopefully I don't have to fail anyone (!!!). I hope my little language woke them up and helped them. I feel like he's going hand in hand with the words of that song... You have to make a decision about what you want your life to be like! Now I'm going to stop preaching because I'm not a preacher. Sorry for being carried away, but I hope I've encouraged someone! By the way, makes me happy! The fact that today it was so bright that for a moment even wearing sunglasses indoors makes me happy! Gotta go y!!! Now take care! Love, Johanna Do you like this song?
