Titanfall 2 is such a popular EA game and this book is so great representing all the titans and places in the game. Whether it does great justice and is perfect for any Scorch fan or game. To see my full review with photos from the book go here: ..... more honestly, I just really love this game, and the concept art of Way Cool. (Besides, BT is the best Titan.) It's a beautiful artbook, but the quality of the backstory included could have been better. Art books are usually a source of interesting pieces and knowledge; In the case of TF2 there really aren't many things to feast on other than visual effects. Don't get me wrong, it's worth reading how gorgeous it is, but I was hoping for some more information from it.
