Klove phone number song request

I am currently going through a difficult phase of life, and I started listening to k-love and it changed my life for the better!! The thing is, I couldn't get the station out of the car, and then one day on the radio I heard, take your K-Love with you with the official K-Love app!! I was so excited that I downloaded it as soon as I got Wi-Fi!! This app is life-changing (in a good way)and is highly recommended to anyone who needs something more than just going to church, reading the Bible every day, and even if you like all these things looking for a good station! I especially like this app because it's still the radio! He doesn't just have the music, they still have Scott and Kelly talking, which is one of my favorite parts!! No problems, no bad things, any God, and God is the best thing you can get in your life!!!!!!!

The network is one of three formats produced by the Educational Media Foundation, and the other two are K-Love Classics and Air1. As of June 2019, the network's programming is simultaneously on over 520 FM stations and translators in 48 U.S. states, American Samoa, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia. As of 2018, K-Love and its sister network Air1 reportedly had a weekly cumulative audience of about 20 million listeners.[2] History of the 1980s, the first assembly of the Christian Life Center of Santa Rosa, California, received a building permit to operate a new non-commercial radio station in the city, KCLB at 91.9 MHz. Later in 1980, under new management, the church hoped to raise the funds to put the nearly fully equipped station on the air as a radio station for contemporary Christian music. In 1982, after several attempts to purchase a station in San Francisco, the Educational Media Foundation acquired KCLB for $65,760. Bob Anthony Vogel, a former DJ at KFRC, founded EMF, which in its early years was also known as the Christian Media Media. [7] Charles Coulson assisted Efforts for KCLB in the San Francisco area. [8] KCLB signed on October 15, 1982; The first song he played on the station was Praise The Lord by The Imperials, which was a hit on the Christian music charts in 1979. KCLB expanded in 1987 with new translators in San Rafael and Salinas. On August 1, 1988, KCLB changed its call letters to KLVR and adopted its current nickname K-Love. A month and a half later, on September 12, his wooden transmitter building at Geyser Summit was burned to the ground by a fire apparently ignited by a lighter. After the fire, the transmitter was transported to Mount St. Helena at 1,200 feet. [5] The new location improved the signal strength, and listeners reported that they can now hear the station at a distance of 201 km. In 1989, KLVR expanded further to include translators covering Santa Cruz, San Jose and Los Gatos. In the 1990s K-LOVE expanded its operations in the 1990s by acquiring small stations and translators, and repeated its signal. In 1992, K-LOVE began using satellite technology to expand to locations farther away than just Northern California. The Educational Media Foundation continued to acquire small translators in California but also bought stations in Portland, Oregon (KLPV). [13] Phoenix, Arizona (KLVA),[14] Oklahoma City (KYLW)[15] and San Antonio (KZLV). During the 1990s, K-Love began expanding its live personality. David Pierce joined in 1991. Mike Novak also began working air shifts in the late 1990s. In addition to expanding live talent, K-LOVE expanded its facilities and moved its headquarters from Santa Rosa to Sacramento in 1993. In 1998, K-LOVE increased its internet reach by streaming live on klove.com. [11] During the decade of 2000, K-LOVE underwent a period of expansion through the acquisition of stations and translators throughout the United States. On October 5, 2000, the Colorado Chrstian University sold KWBI Morrison/Denver, KJOL Grand Junction and KDRH Glenwood Springs, Colorado, as well as 18 K-LOVE translators. Colorado's radio network sold for $16.6 million. A statement from the University of Colorado said the board considered many proposals from Christian, as well as other suitors, but the priority was finding a buyer committed to quality Christian programming. KWBI is now KLDV, and is one of K-LOVE's most listening signals. [22] K-LOVE picked up KWBI calls to their radio station in Than Bend, Kansas. In 2003, the EMF took advantage of a window of time in which the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) allowed new applications for FM translators, also known as the 2003 auction 83 filing window and labeled as the 2003 great translator's incuration. During this time, the FCC received more than 13,000 requests for Building permits for translators. EMF has fulfilled more than 800 applications, of which 250 have been approved, and most now carry the K-LOVE network. In January 2007, the EMF purchased 94.3 WJKL Elgin, Illinois, which is broadcast to the Chicago area for $17 million. Shortly after the purchase, a flood hit the WJKL transmitter site that knocked the station off the air for more than a week. WJKL has since moved from Oakbrook Terrace, Illinois to a chicago market. On November 30, 2007, K-LOVE acquired KCXM 97.3, which was an ESPN radio partner for Kansas City for $16 million. [28] The call letters were changed to KLRX shortly thereafter and are now broadcast from Lee's Summit to the Kansas City area. As a result, these acquisitions and other restaurants, in addition to the new translators approved during the 2003 filing window, the K-LOVE radio network became the largest broadcaster of contemporary Christian music in the world. In 2010, K-Love had an estimated 6 million listeners, both from national stations and streams through the line. In 2002, the EMF moved its headquarters from Sacramento, California, to Rocklin. At the new headquarters, we now solicited K-LOVE magazine, Air1 and Christian Music Planet. On July 15, 2009, K-Love acquired 101.9 WKLU, which airs to Indianapolis for $4.75 million, and another $1.55 million for the studio. The studio then became the broadcasting venue for the morning show K-LOVE. In January 2004, K-LOVE partnered with Premier Christian Cruises and edited its first annual K-LOVE Friends & Family Music Cruise. The cruise sold out 13 weeks after sales began in April 2003. In 2001, Christian radio personality John Rivers, along with his wife Sherry, became hosts of the morning show K-LOVE, and aired from their ranch in Texas. The morning show K-LOVE became popular and continued with John and Sherry for seven years until March 28, 2009, when it was announced that John and Sherry Rivers would no longer be on the morning show due to family issues. Host Lisa Williams took on the role of hostess, and was later joined by Eric Allen. Other DJs also joined the K-LOVE team during this period, such as Scott Smith and Kelly Caldwell, who eventually became the afternoon show. On October 1, 2007, Mike Novak was appointed CEO and president of EMF, K-LOVE and Air1, replacing Dick Jenkins, and as a result stopped going on a regular shift live. After purchasing a radio station in Indianapolis, as of November 2009, the morning show airs from Indianapolis, Indiana. 2010-present K-Love logo used until 2014. Into the new decade, K-LOVE began acquiring more full power plants in medium and larger markets. Since 2010, K-LOVE has started broadcasting, or upgrading signals to Dayton, Ohio (formerly WKCD WCDR),[39] Jacksonville, Florida (WCRJ),[40] Tennessee (102), California, San Diego, California, Camden, New Jersey, and Detroit, Michigan at WDKL 102.7 FM. In May 2011, K-LOVE premiered at WKLV Chester Harbor, covering New York City. The letter WKLV (formerly WCT2) originated from a new transmitter site above the Trump Plaza building in New Rochelle. This made it the largest market where K-LOVE could be heard by the end of 2017 when K-LOVE acquired KSWD covering all of Los Angeles and the surrounding area. In July 2012, EMF replaced WLVM (formerly WABB Mobile, Alabama) with Cumulus Media, for the classic hits WRQQ Nashville (a major center for the Christian music community and where most labels originate from). EMF changed the WRQQ exclamation mark to WLWU, which now broadcasts K-LOVE programming. [46] In July 2010, K-Love began sponsoring the #81 car of McDonald Motorsport and Michael McDowell in nascar's national series. [48] Subsequently, in March 2012, K-LOVE announced it would be the main sponsor of Tony Pedregon's funny car for 12 of the last 20 NHRA full-throttle drag series races this season. In February 2013, K-Love announced the K-LOVE Fan Awards, the Listeners awards for contemporary Christian musicians held in Nashville. The opening ceremony was held in June 2013, hosted by Phil, Kay, Jesse and Missy Robertson of the Duck Dynasty. In July 2011, K-LOVE made changes to its roster on air: Amanda Carroll joined the cast in the mid-morning slot,[51] and the network announced that Lisa Williams and Eric Allen would no longer host the K-LOVE morning show. J.D. Chandler took his place until the K-LOVE morning show with Craig, Amy and Knelperitz acquired in November 2011. In December 2013, K-LOVE introduced a Christmas music special for cable network Up, K-LOVE Music City Christmas. The special was hosted by Candace Cameron Bor, and performances of music in Christmas-style music by various contemporary Christian musicians. [54] Even during this period, K-LOVE slightly reteoled its CCM format to become a contemporary-oriented adult while its Air1 counterpart gradually redesigned from CCM Christian Rock themselves. K-LOVE also operated an online radio stream, K-LOVE France, which broadcast a mix of English and French Christian music until May 2017 [55] when EMF transferred all operations of K-LOVE France to a French entity, Gospel Radio. In August 2018, after its launch as an online station, K-LOVE Classics launched a new classical hit network with a focus on contemporary Christian music in the 1980s, 1990s and early 2000s. On July 16, 2019, Bill Reeves was appointed CEO Media Fund (EMF) – the parent company of contemporary Christian radio networks K-LOVE and Air1, replacing Mike Novak. Emf's signal, 107.3 FM WLWV in Washington DC has been upgraded to air in HD. On October 30, 2019, K-LOVE classics became available in 107.3-HD2 (WWLV-HD2) and Nueva Vida Radio in 107.3-HD3 (WWLV-HD3). List of main value stations: K-LOVE Office K-LOVE Stations list has full-time office staff that processes over 100 phone calls a day from listeners seeking guidance. According to the ministry, priests and staff at K-LOVE pray more than 1,000 prayer requests every day, and on average intervene in one suicide case a day. [58] [59] Requests are sent online or by phone. K-LOVE also partners with other offices and contributes airtime and space to websites to 7 offices.
