New Jersey has implemented a new auto insurance program that provides $1 a day car insurance to eligible residents. It's called the SAIP initiative. This stands for Special Auto Insurance Policy. It has for New Jersey motorists who, because of their limited income, usually go without buying auto coverage. The goal of the program is to get unsymrsured drivers, who are usually low-income residents, legally insured with minimal NJ auto insurance. The can be purchased for eligible residents for about $1 dollars a day. Many people refer to the program as New Jersey dollars a day coverage Many people mistakenly believe that most NJ residents may qualify. This NJSaip program is for drivers with special needs who qualify for Medicaid. You can apply at a local NJ office. Not all Medicaid recipients will be eligible for the program. An insurance provider will be able to tell if you qualify, just by looking at your Medicaid I.D. card number on the card. You need to bring your driver's license, vehicle registration information, and Your Medicaid I.D. card. If more than one person will be driving and both meet the requirements, then both applicants can apply with the same automotive information. The SAIP program is guaranteed by the National Continental Insurance Company. To apply for nj$1 dollars a day in insurance, applicants need to provide proof of Medicaid enrollment documents. Each time the renewal policy is agreed, motorists will need to verify their enrollment in Medicaid again. If during the duration of the contract, a person becomes insured for Medicaid, cheap insurance will remain and expire the policy. However, certain restrictions will be imposed and benefits will be limited. 1. NJ Limit $1 Dollar a Day Auto Insurance There are some restrictions in place for this type of insurance under NJ Auto Insurance Laws. Drivers who have been suspended or revoked driver's licenses are not eligible for the program. This includes those who have committed DUI offences in the past. If your license is currently suspended and you think you may be eligible, see the judge and take appropriate steps to restore your license. 2. Paying for New Jersey Dollar a Day Insurance Policy for eligible New Jersey drivers costs $365 annually. If the full payment is made up front, there is a small discount of $5. The cost then is $360 and the cost actually goes under $1 per day. An ins installment payment option is available, with two equal payments of $182.50. 3. SAIP Auto Insurance SAIP insurance is not only cheap but also has an excellent high limit range. It provided emergency care after an accident, including brain and spinal injuries, of up to $250,000. There is also a death benefit given for $10,000. It does not include damage to your vehicle, nor does it damage you cause to others or their property. You will need additional collision or comprehensive coverage for this. 4. Eligibility There are only a few general requirements for those willing to apply. Applicants must be currently un insured and they must currently enroll in a Medicaid program that also provides hospitalization. Keep in mind that not all Medicaid enrollees Eligible. If you want to determine your eligibility, you must bring your Medicaid ID card to an insurance professional contact Medicaid on your behalf.
