Photo credit: HarmonQuest, acquired from VRV On last week's episode of fantasy role-playing comedy series HarmonQuest, our team of heroes faced a new chapter in their journey as they navigated hell and defeated the Puppet King. Fondue, who came back to life in the form of a sword, was reunited with his father Chadge, and Beor's brother, Limerick, made a surprise return appearance (and showed off his mad chain skills) in a bid to bring Beor home to the barbarians. Will Beor leave the hunt and join the barbarians? Will Limerick team up with our heroes? Will the game champion return to the voice of another delightfully bizarre character? Here's our spoiler-free preview of, what you can expect to see along the adventure in HarmonQuest Season 3, Episode 2.With Spencer Crittenden as the game master, Dan Harmon as Limerick, Erin McGathy as Beor, and Jeff Davis as BoneWeevil, the heroes are joined by special first-time guest Kate Micucci in HarmonQuest Season 3, Episode 2, playing a Hermie, a Druid with a unique set of skills and a lovable personality. Limerick leads the group at the start of their trip to Ivory Key (home of the Skull Tree Barbarians), but they first find themselves in the ruins of crushed Myriad, where believe it or not, both magic and pudding pops seem to have value. HarmonQuest Season 3, Episode 2 synopsis from VRV: With Limerick in tow our heroes venture toward their Barbarian home but pass through a magical disaster on break, where they meet a strange Druid and discover the secrets of this country, as well as a possible solution to undo the havoc they have inadvertently wrought, the demonic convergence. Druid Hermie is an asset to the team on this week's episode, and watching Kate Micucci figure out how to make the most of her assigned game skills is as charming as she portrays her character to be. VRV sent Hidden Remote an exclusive clip to share from HarmonQuest Season 3, Episode 2, in which Crittenden introduces a new volcano-like structure called Transhelm that is surrounded by a magical force field and guarded by ... Bugs. Lots of mistakes. Watch an exclusive clip from HarmonQuest Season 3 Episode 2 below: As you can see in the clip, BoneWeevil is brave enough to try to investigate the dangerous magic bug situation, and Limerick is determined to make his chain throwing skills useful. Let us know in the comments below if you think his single chain throw will be able to rip open the wall and make sure you watch the full episode this Sunday on VRV to see what happens when our heroes (and the two adorable foxes) take on the magic shield and its creepy crawlers. HarmonQuest Season 3, Episode 2 is a fun kick-off for how our heroes will move forward in history after the defeat of the Puppet King, and though the episode is filled with jokes, hilarious Crittenden cameos, magic and pudding, not being on the lookout for great plot clues heralds what could happen in the rest of the season. The intrepid comedians, Dan Harmon, Jeff Davis, and Erin McGathy, along with a rotating special guest member, gather around a kitchen table and try to play the game and fail in hilarious fashion, to the chagrin of their adjudicator-judge-Game Master Spencer Crittenden.
