It is located in northern Indio, California, United States. Other high schools in the area are Indio High School, La Quinta High School and Palm Desert High School. The main feeding schools are Indio Middle School and Desert Ridge Academy, which replaced the former Woodrow Wilson Middle School in 2009. History Shadow Hills High School opened on August 31, 2009, with approximately 600 first- and second-year students. The high school is the fourth in the Desert Sands Unified School District. Shadow Hills has 84 classrooms, a 400-seat performing arts theatre, an 80-seat conference room and a three-court gymnasium. In July 2012, Marcus Wood, the former principal of John Glenn Middle School in Desert Sands Unified, succeeded Doug Bluth, recently retired, as the school's second principal. [4] One year after obtaining his Ed.D., Dr. Wood was promoted to Senior Director of the Curriculum, Education and Evaluation at the District Office. Former SHHS Deputy Director Gabriel P. Fajardo was hired before the 2017/2018 school year to fill the vacancy. Shadow Hills High School Athletics participate in the Desert Empire League. Shadow Hills class of 2012 baseball player Taylor Ward is drafted by the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim. Performing Arts The Kingdom Regiment, the Shadow Hills High School walking group, first received worldwide recognition after participating in the Coachella Valley Music and Arts Festival on April 13 and 20 alongside Big Gigantic. With 34 students from the local marching group, the Kingdom Regiment performed a remix of Can't Hold Us and I Need A Dollar with Big Gigantic and gained local fame for their performance at one of the largest music festivals in the world. In 2015, the Kingdom Regiment was featured in the one-direction clip for Steal My Girl. On September 30, 40 members of the group were taken to a local national park in Southern California, where the clip was filmed in the morning until the early evening. Recently, the Regiment was recruited to perform live on the set of composer Lisa Bielawa's new series Vireo: The Spiritual Biography of a Accuser, an episodic opera presented on KCET. Royal Voices in Harmony, the school's choir program, is led by Kaylon Mcgee. The program consists of 3 choirs: mixed choir, which is to all students without audition, Bella Voce, a set of women available for students 10 to 12 years old with a required audition, and Chamber Singers, a choir for students 10 to 12 years old with a required audition. The Chambers and Bellas have competed in many competitions in places like Disneyland and Carnegie Hall. The choirs were both recently placed at the Form Music Festival in Anaheim, California. The Chamber Singers placed third and the Bella Voce placed second, meaning they are both invited to return for the judges by invitation next year. A university education starts here... Our team of educators and support staff is there to ensure that every student has an exceptional educational experience. This year, we will focus on writing skills through the use of Thinking Maps. Thinking Maps offers our students a way to organize their thoughts in a consistent and consistent way that dramatically improves their writing. In the area of social development, we are continuing our Character Counts programme, which focuses on the development of to succeed. Starting in September, we will focus on one specific character trait per month. Students will be honored to have demonstrated the stroke of the month. Participation is crucial to our success. As a result, we rely on our Families in Shadow Hills to help us get our students to school on time every day. There will be a design for two brand new bikes at the end of the first semester. Semester. with perfect assistance, no late marks, or early release marks will be entered into the drawing. Remember that we have Saturday school from September. Thanks to our Saturday school retention program, absent students can receive credit for an absence until Saturday school. We encourage parents and families to volunteer in Shadow Hills. There are many ways to volunteer and make a difference in children's lives. Please stop or contact me to discuss ways to volunteer or any other topic. Let's make this year a very extraordinary year for our students. Respectfully, Joel Avia, Principal Learn more about how to get involved Homes for Rent and For Sale near this school This school is rated on average school quality compared to other schools in California. Students here have about average measurements of college preparation, ... Plus this school has about average results in the way it serves disadvantaged students, and students perform about average on state tests. The test scores at this school are about the same as the state average, although they are still lower than the state's best performing schools. Because test scores in some states are so low, many students in this school may not be performing at the academic level. Advice to Parents Notice something that is missing or confusing? Equity Disadvantaged students in this school perform about as well as other students in the state, but this school may still have performance gaps.
