The Linn County Tax Assessor's office can help you with many land tax issues, including: Property tax assessments The Linn County Tax Assessor will evaluate the taxable value of each property in his country annually based on the characteristics of the property and the fair value of comparable properties in the same neighborhood. The appraiser's office can provide you with a copy of the latest valuation of your property upon request. Real estate renovations and revaluations If you renovate your property (e.B. by adding living space, bedrooms or bathrooms), the Linn County Assessor will re-evaluate your home to the value of your new Reflect. Renovations can be made to the Assessors Office by the zoning contractor or the homeowner himself. Unreported renovations are usually discovered by the assessor at the next on-site assessment of the property. The assessor can also re-evaluate a property in case of significant damage if you pay your property tax. The Linn County Tax Assessor can provide you with a copy of your property tax assessment, show you your property tax bill, help you pay your property taxes, or arrange a payment plan. Payments can be made to the county tax collector or treasurer instead of the assessor. Homestead Exemptions The Linn County Tax Assessor can provide you with an application form for the Linn County Homestead exemption, which can provide a modest property tax reduction for properties used as the main residence of their owners. Additional exceptions may be available for farmland, green space, veterans, or others. Call the Assessor's office and ask for details. Property tax complaints If you believe your home is unjustifiably overvalued, the Linn County Tax Assessor can provide you with a tax complaint form and inform you about the tax complaint process. If your complaint is accepted, your property valuation (and property taxes) will be adjusted accordingly. If you need access to factual documents, deeds, or other services that the Linn County Assessor's Office cannot provide, you can try contacting the Linn County City Council. The seat in Linn County is located in the County Courthouse in Linneus. You can contact Linn County with general enquiries using the contact information below.
