Because hopelessness is never expected of you or anyone else. Yes! all that is ever expected of you is hopefulness/fidelity/loving kindness. That's it. Amit Ray: There are two types of empathy: positive empathy and negative empathy. When we are completely swept away by the unconscious activities of the mirror neurons, we are under the trap of negative empathy. Negative empathy generates attachments. From this attachment follows the suffering. Negative empathy is a kind of response to a situation, while positive empathy is internal response of peace and peace.... In positive empathy, your deep peace, joy and peace activates the mirror neurons of the others, while in negative empathy your mirror neurons are activated by the disruption of others. Meditation especially loving kindness meditation increases positive empathy. Eliezer Rostran: We want everyone to know that my sister doesn't hate the actions of the subject. She doesn't hate the family either. She prays for mercy and loving kindness for all the families involved. Abdul Baha, Paris Talks, p. 15:Don't be content with showing friendship in words alone, let your heart burn with loving kindness to anyone who can cross your path.
