Molly Melia » Sr. Associate, Marketing & Communications 502.855.6980 [javascript protected email address] The Foundation for Maine Community Universities was established in 2009 to ensure that the state's seven community universities have the resources they need to provide a high quality, affordable, and accessible college education for maine people. The Foundation's initial capital campaign raised $11.3 million. In total, the Foundation has raised nearly $39 million to expand educational access and academic programs, strengthen student support services, and upgrade instructional equipment and technology. As colleges enter their second decade as comprehensive community colleges, the Foundation focuses on: supporting student success, increase access to higher education, and improving operational efficiency to serve more students.
