Once i was 7 years old lyrics clean

When I was seven years old my mother told me Go make you some friends or you'll be lonely when I was seven years old It was a big big big world but we thought we were bigger Pushing each other to the limit, we learned faster At eleven hanging out and thinking we were slicker Never rich so we were looking to make that figure smooth when I was eleven years old my dad told me Go Get You even a wife or you will be lonely When I was eleven years old I always had that dream as my dad before me So I started writing songs, I started writing stories Something about that glory just always seemed to bore me because only those I really love will ever really know me when I was twenty years old , my story was told Before the morning sun , when life was lonely When I was twenty years old, I only see my goals, I do not believe in failure because I know the smallest voices, they can make it big I got my boys with me at least those in favor And if we do not meet before I leave, I hope I see you later when I was twenty years old , my story was told that I wrote about everything, I saw before me When I was twenty years old Soon we will be thirty years old, our songs have been sold We have traveled around the world and we are still roaming Soon we will be thirty years old I still learn about life I hope I have children for me? So I can sing them all my songs and I can tell them stories Most of my boys are with me some are still looking for glory And someone I had to leave my brother I'm still sorry Soon I'll be sixty years old, my dad got the sequel Remember life and then your life becomes a better one I made a man so happy when I wrote a letter when I hope my children come and visit , once or twice a month Soon I will be sixty years old, I will think the world is cold Or will I have many children who can warm me Soon I will be sixty years old Soon I will be sixty years old, I will believe the world is cold Or will I have many children who can warm me soon I will be sixty years old when I was seven years old , my momma told me Go make you some friends or you'll be lonely when I was seven years old when I was seven years old [Chorus 1] When I was seven years old my mom told me Go make you some friends or you'll be lonely when I was seven years old [Verse 1] It was a big big world , but we thought we were bigger Pushing each other to the limit, we learned faster By eleven smoking herb and drinking burning liquor Never rich so we were looking to make the steady figure [Chorus 2] When I was eleven years old my dad told me Go get you a wife or you'll be lonely When I was eleven years old [Verse 2] I've always had that dream as my dad before me So I started writing songs , I started writing stories Something about that glory just always seemed to me Because only the ones I really love will ever really know me [Chorus 3] When I was 20 years old, old, the story was told Before the Morning Sun, when life was lonely When I was 20 years old (Lukas Graham!!!) [Verse 3] I just see my goals, I don't believe in failure Because I know the smallest voices, they can make it big I got my boys with me at least those in favor And if we don't meet before I leave, I hope I see you later [Chorus 4] When I was 20 years old, my story was told that I wrote about everything , I looked before me When I was 20 years old Soon we will be 30 years old, our songs have been sold We have traveled around the world and we are still roaming Soon we will be 30 years old [Verse 4] I am still learning about the life My woman brought children for me so I can sing them all my songs and I can tell them stories Most of my boys are with me Some are still looking for honor And someone I had to leave my brother I'm still sorry [Bridge] Soon I'll be 60 years old, my father got 61 Remember your life and then your life becomes a better one I made a man so happy when I wrote a letter when I hope my children come and visit, once or twice a month [Chorus 5] Soon I'll be 60 years old , I will think the world is cold Or will I have many children who can warm me Soon I will be 60 years old Soon I will be 60 years old, I will believe that the world is cold Or will I have many children who can keep me soon I will be 60 years old [Chorus 1 recap] When I was seven years old , my mother told me Go make you some friends or you will be lonely When I was seven years old When I was seven years old Songwriters: Christopher Brown, David Labrel, Lukas Forchhammer, Morten Pilegaard, Morten Ristorp Jensen, Stefan Forrest When I was seven years old, my mother told me, Go make you some friends or you'll be lonely. When I was seven years old It was a big big world, but we thought we were bigger Pushing each other to the limit, we learned faster By eleven smoking herb and drinking burning liquor Never rich so we were looking to make the smooth figure Once I was eleven years old, my dad told me, Go get you a wife or you'll be lonely. When I was eleven years old I always had that dream, like my father before me So I started writing songs, I started writing stories Something about that glory just always seemed to bore me because only those people I really love will ever really know me when I was twenty years old, my story was told before the morning sun , when life was lonely When I was twenty years old (Lukas Graham!) I just see my goals, I don't believe in failure because I know the smallest voices, they can make it big I got my boys with me, at least those who are in favor, and if we don't meet before I leave, I hope I see you later, but I was twenty years old, my story was told that I wrote about everything I saw before me when I was twenty years old , we will be thirty years , our songs have been sold We have traveled around the world and we are still roaming Soon we will be thirty thirty old I still learn about life My woman brought children for me so I can sing them all my songs and I can tell them stories Most of my boys are with me Some are still looking for glory And someone I had to leave my brother, I'm still sorry Soon I'm going to be sixty-years-old, my dad got sixty-one Remember life , and then your life becomes a better one I made a man so happy when I wrote a letter when I hope my children come and visit once or twice a month Soon I will be sixty years old, I would think the world is cold Or will I have many children who can warm me? Soon I'll be sixty years old, I'm sixty years old, I'll think the world is cold, or do I want a lot of kids who can warm me up? Soon I'll be 60 years old, and when I was seven years old, my mom said to me, Be friends, or you'll be lonely. When I was seven years old, and I was seven years old, When I was seven years old, my mom said to me, Be friends, or you'll be lonely. When I was seven years old It was a big big world, but we thought we were bigger Pushing each other to the limit, we learned faster By eleven smoking herb and drinking burning liquor Never rich so we were looking to make the smooth figure Once I was eleven years old, my dad told me, Go get you a wife or you'll be lonely.
