I worked with friendly people and management is pretty good. I enjoy the things I do and I hate. that's good. Employee of MichiganAwesome company and big big Awesome company and great values. More companies need to be like this. Keep your faith and treat employees and customers with dignity. Recommended to work here. Customer service manager Chandler, AZWas a good place to work It really depends on which store you work in, but full-time management and full-time associates have been very much more worked with having a few departments to work with and don't have enough support. A seasonal worker in Prattville, ALS management treats his employees with terrible managers being friends with employees outside of work they only implement rules on some employees' wages not worth the job, which I was a seasonal worker and the Christmas bonus was $30 and it was taxed. For it to be a Christian company, they didn't really run that way, People asked 649 questions about working in hobby lobby. Review your answers, explore popular themes, and discover unique insights from Hobby Lobby staff. I'd be in charge. I'd teach my staff carefully. I'd explain what's expected. I would like to listen to the feedback from my staff. And make changes for the better. See 48 responsesEmployees are around my age, so I made many friendsSee 26 answersSee my store in Tennessee, we couldn't be held past 11:59 a.m. due to an incident where staff were kept after 1am and had to be back as early as 6-7 in the morning, which was not well settled with top management. (which seems ridiculous to be there almost 6 hours after closing without interruptions or lunch, especially for those who only got a 15-minute break to start) If you are under the age of 18, it is contrary to the law to be on the road after 10 am, or at least TN. So is it. Our managers will get big time problems if a minor comes out even at 10:01! I hope it helps! See 23 answersThe station, working part-time, never had the opportunity to get overtime. You don't get overtime when you work more than 8 hours per shift. Management keeps part-time employees well for 27 hours or less. Im not sure if full-time employees can get overtime. See 8 responses for $10.25 per hour, twice a week. Direct contribution. 6 responses If the flower stems are not sold, you will be paid that Friday. That's how I remembered it. See 6 answersNot too flexible, managers are upset when you ask to switch days or let them know you won't be able to log on. They take you into the days you don't even have and they don't tell you anything. You'll find out by looking at a schedule they've already made to dissentent changes.
