

☐

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Continue

Hhsaa wrestling 2020 final

Venue: Blaisdell Arena Sale Date: Fri February 15, 2019 @ 9:00 am HST Ticket Value: (Set Appropriate S/C) General Admission $9.00 Adult (Use A $5.00 Student (Age 5 years) $5.00 Seniors 65+ (Use J-TYPE) Children 4 & Under Pay Free Acceptance: Blaisdell Box Office – CASH ONLY Ticketmaster Dash / Phone & Internet - Cash / Visa / Master Card / Ten Recovering / AMEX Service Fee: Sales Office Box – $.50 per ticket establishment fee applicable applied to all Ticketmaster Phone / Internet / mobile. Automatic Phone Ticketmaster fee/web sales $2.80 per order. Ticketmaster: Ticketmaster Charge by Phone: 1-800-745-3000 Online www.ticketmaster.com Ticketmaster TDD (Telecommunication Device for the Deaf): 1-800-474-4833 Blaisell Box Office: Blais Line in Box Office: (808) 768-5252 Blaisdell Box Office TDD (Telecommunications Device for the Deaf): (808) 768-9270 Girls 97 No. 1 seed Erin Hiji of Milini (north, 10 lb-for-pounds) def, MILES champion Liana Ferreira of Baldwin, 8-2 I entered and just kept myself fighting litre and it is good to know that everything I have done this season pays off. I had always dreamed of winning but never expected this. - Hikiji girl 102 No. 1 son Brianna Funakoshi of Aiea holding No. 2 grandson Madison Kogachi of Punahou, 4-1 is like a rose weight off my shoulder. By pressure, I have great expectations for myself to feel good. It's easy when you have good people on your side and I have the best coaches. - Funakoshi Girls 107 Aiea Aiea's Alejandra Corral pulled off the upset to beat No. 1 grandson Alizeih Villalpando at Campbell (No. 7 pounds-for book), 2-1 It is a good feeling to have, but its an even better feeling to know that I've struggled harder and left it all over the subject. That's not the end, that's the only state championship. I'm trying to have a national champ. - Corral girl 112 No. 1 seed Haley Nakahara of Kamehameha earned an 18-3 crane fall on No. 2 Nano Terukina's grandson Campbell Rough. I saw it earlier and it looked like it knew what it was doing so I had doubts in myself so I needed to tell myself not to poison myself. I don't know what to think. It feels it's not real. - Nakahara girl 117 No. 1 seed Victoria Lee in Mililani fought back to an early deficit 4-0 pin No. 2 seed Alicia Frank in Lahainaluna at 1:13 It feels great, I worked for this whole season and I was so happy to have paid off. At the beginning of the match I wanted to get ahead on the points but I couldn't do that. - Lee Kalani's 122 girl Emily Paulino def. No. 1 seed Makana Cooper of Pearl City, 3-2 Unrealistic Man, I knew it would be difficult and it was and I just want to thank my parents and my coaches and teams for putting their time in me and helping me work out kinks. - Paulino Girls 127 North. 1 grandson Lana Perez of Moanalua (No. 5 pounds-for-pound) won 6-2 over No. 3 seed Krystal Puahala of Kamehameha This is one of which matters because it might sound crazy because it's Hawaii but the level of liter and competitive here I feel like it's a lot harder than national. The girls here are all great. - Perez Part 1 Part 2 Girls 132 No. 1 grandson and No. 1 lb-for-pound Nanea Estrella of Lahainaluna won the fourth state of pinning No. 2 seed Skye Realin in Kamehaha at 1:39 I just did it. I'm so happy. There's so much that I put in for all four years and so much that I went through with so much sleep deprivation and emotion, and for all that stuff just happened, it's overwhelming. - Estrella Girls 138 No. 1 grandson of Respicio of Kamehameha (No. 3 book-for-pound) beat No. 2 seed Waipuani Estrella-Beachuamp of Baldwin (No. 2 lb-for-pound) 4-2 in a match of candidates at night I feel like that was the smart match I did, technically. I know it is heavy but, good up to top, so I was technically working it out and I thought that was my best match. A good way to finish. I'm just relieved. - Respicio Girl 145 WaareNae's Tiare Carlson won her first state title with a 5-0 lock at no. 2 seeds at Campbell Amazing, this is what I worked for, putting in all the hard work. My loss gave me the motivation to work even harder. When it happened it was like fire to my gas and I was like 'I want this, I'll get it. - Carlson girls 155 No. 1 grandson Sadie Antoque of Castle (No. 6 pounds-for book) pins Baldwin Pua Kaceylee and a second stay in the second period He feels a little better this year , less stress at the plate. The first one was good too, because I came back from a loss and went back to the top again. I just told myself I was back and working harder. - Antoque girl 168 No. 1 seed Shayna Kamaka of Baldwin (No. 8 pounds-for-pound) pinned No. 3 seed Shannlye Mahoe to Nanakuli in 30 seconds It felt amazing. This season seemed like a roller coastal roller of liters, coming into this state tournament and I was injured I thought it would bring me down but it only motivates me. - Kamaka Girls 184 No. 1 seed Shannon Jaramillo in lahainaluna pins No. 2 grandson Dylan Huddy of Maryknoll in 28 seconds There really is nothing in it, banging out with all these girls, it's just a privilege to liter girls as good as they are. When I won the state last year I didn't know what I was capable of but this year I believe. - Jaramillo Girls 225 No. 2 grandson Leona Toledo of Hilo pulled off an angry, 7-2, over two-time defending champion Tangina Niutupuivaha of Kahuku (No. 4 pounds-for-pounds) I did it for my team, I did it for my coach and I did it for my family and if it wasn't for me wouldn't be my team, I did it for my family and if it wasn't for me wouldn't for them I wouldn't have. Here. But first and most, my Lord and My Savior, could not. I'm speachless. - Toledo ## Boys 106 No. 1 grandson Nicholas Cordeiro of Waunnae (No. 10 lb-for book) queaks out a 2-1 win over No. 3 grandson Hale Robinson of Punahou I could hear the crowd, Waianae everywhere. It feels good, I tried my hardest since seventh grade and this was one of my big goals and I finally knocked it out. It's very difficult. - Cordeiro Boys 113 Baldwin sophomore Tobey Ravida, No. 1 grandson, earns a 6-0 win over Cael Lahainaluna's Yasutake in an all-MILE final It feels good to be on the wall with my brother as a chamber state. I feel better this year, trying to live positive and behave like a champion not only on the subject but in the subjecta as well. - Ravida Boys 120 No. 1 Son Ravida of Baldwin (No. 3 pounds-for-pound) earns a hard-earned 2-0 win over No. 2 seed Elijah Asuncion of Moanalua (No. 8 pounds per pound) It is an overall November. It's (third state title) is really great. I'm so proud of myself and how hard I worked and how grateful I am to my team, coach, family and friends. - Ravida Boys 126 No. 1 grandson of Brant Porter in Kamehameha (No. 5 lb-for books) and the 12-0 decision is bigger on No. 2 grandson Kanoa Lanza in Lahainaluna It was just another tournament, except that he was my last one as an adult so I went out. They (state championship) were just the same, I worked similarly hard for both. - Porter Boy 132 No 1 seed and No. 1 lb-for-pound Kysen Terukina of Kamehameha won his fourth state title in fourth weight different grade with a 3-1 win over ILH rival Eli Kaawa in St. Louis I just relieve him (fourth title) is relief. It's been on my mind for a while. Now it's the past and I just feel so happy. It's literally the moment I've been waiting for since my brother's year. - Terukina Boys 138 No. 1 seed Brady Hoshino of 'Iolani and the 1-0 victory over Saint Louis' Ansen Iursua in an all-ILH finale It's crazy now because I've dreamed of this for so long, finally out on top is awisome. I'm just so thankful to my coaches, friends and family, and God. Just super grateful. - Hoshino Boys 145 No. 4 grandson Blayze Sumiye of Moanalua's second overtime score beat No. 2 grandson Terrell of Punahou, 3-2, in one of the most interesting matches of the night just talked about all the moments that led up to that match all before that. All those months I've (had) the best training I can find and work with the best people. - Sumiye Boy 152 No. 1 grandson Kanai Tapia of Kamehameha (No. 4 pound-for-pound) and the recording beat No. 2 seed Branden Pagurayan of Kapolei (No. 4 pound-for-pound) 3-2 I saw his arm both coming and saw he was and i thought reaction time it would be time it would be slower. I deactivated him up and blown double and kept on his drive until he went down (to go up 3-1). - Tapia Boys 160 No. 2 grandson Kamalu Anahu of Kamehameha-Hawaii earned a 6-1 win over Hana Hilo to Kahao'o Kaulana in an All-BIIF finale honestly he was not me, he was God. I just believed that God would bring something good and came through and my prayers were answered. Working hard came with it, but it was God. - Anahu Boys 170 No. 1 seed Manaia Wolffgram of Kamehameha Pinned St. Louis' Boston Opetia at 5:30 It feels amazing because I have worked since seventh grade, all hard work and 6.m. practice paid. I would like to thank all my coaches and family for pushing me to get here. - Wolffgram Boy 182 No. 1 Grandson of Pascua in 'Iolani Def. No. 3 grandson Andrew Adiniwin of Moanalua 5-2 It feels great because coming up short last year, returning and winning it this year I thought in my mind that nothing is going to stop me. Everyone like my father and stuff kept pumping me up. - Pascua Boys 195 No. 1 grandson Zander Manuel of Punahou (No. 9 lb.) won 6-1 on St. Louis Freshman Viliamu Tongotea I visualized this second championship since I won the first year. I'm really happy but I'm not shocked because I put in the work. I lost it ahead and it really motivated me. – Manuel Boys 220 No. 1 seed Harry Lloyd of Kaimuki becomes the first state champion for the Bulldogs in 25 years and a 10-6 win over No. 2 grandson John Egami of Punahou Just knows I'm the first state champion for more than probably a decade for my small school and first state seat since my brother in 2015 , it means a lot to represent my small school. - Lloyd Part 1 Part 2 Boy 285 No. 1 son of the legendary Matautia punahou (No. 7 book-for-pound) defeat No. 2 Leapaga's grandson Kapolei 3-2 (It was) not as I wanted, but it is what it is. I came into the match expecting a more dominant victory but a victory is a victory in Houston. That was an amazing feeling for my last match. - Matautia Matautia