Graciously hear me and obtain from God a favorable answer to the request I now humbly lay before you. . . . [List your petition here.] I firmly believe that by your merits, through the contempt, suffering, and death you have endured, united in the merits of the passion and death of Jesus, your husband, I will receive what I ask of you, and in the joy of my heart I will bless God, who is admirable in His saints. Amen. NOVENA PRAYER 2 ----- SHORT O Saint Philomena, Virgin and Martyr, who glorifies God by so many miracles, that the Vicar of Jesus Christ has the Protectress of The Living Rosary and the Children of Mary, manifest, increasingly clearly from the heights of Heaven, that a voice holy as luster cannot be denied and that we have the right to rely on shine help. Get us the grace to be faithful to Jesus Christ, even to the death. Amen. NOVENA TO ST. PHILOMENA 3 ----- TRADITIONAL O great St. Philomena, glorious Virgin and Martyr, miracle worker of our age, I return the most fervent thanks to God for the miraculous gifts bestowed upon you, and beg you to give me a share in the graces and blessings of which you havet channel to so many souls. Through the heroic fortitude with which you didst confronts the anger of tyrants and defies the frowns of the powerful instead of deviating from your allegiance to the king of heaven, obtain for me purity of body and soul, purity of heart and desire, purity of thought and affection. Through your patience under multiplied suffering, obtain for me a submissive acceptance of all the misery that may please God to send me and if you miraculously escape unscathed from the waters of the Tiber, in which you wert cast at the behest of your persecutor, so may I pass through the waters of tribulation without compromising my soul. In addition to these favors, obtain for me, O faithful husband of Jesus, the special purpose that I seriously recommend to you at this time. O pure Virgin and Holy Martyr, deign to cast a look of pity from Heaven on your devoted servant. comfort me in misery, help me in danger, especially come to my aid in the hour of death. Watch over the interests of the Church of God, pray for its exaltation and prosperity, expansion the faith, for the Sovereign Pope, for the clergy, for the perseverance of the righteous, the conversion of sinners, and the relief of the Souls in Purgatory, especially those dear to me. who forget the most. O great Saint, whose triumph we celebrate on earth, mediate for me, that one day may I behold the crown of glory conferred upon you in heaven, and blessed him eternally, who so well for all eternity rewards the suffering that has endured for His love during this short life. Amen. (From the Novena to St. Philomena by the Association of St. Paul) Daily Prayer O Virgin and Martyr, St. Philomena, you made a vow of virginity and you stood by to death offering your life to Jesus. Your purity was your perfection. I pray to you to help me in my struggle to be chaste and pure. This is a difficult thing to do now, with the influence of the media telling us that sex, even outside of marriage, is good and recommended. May your example inspire me and the youth above all to regard their bodies as temples of the Holy Spirit. May I learn to and easy to dress so I can lead people to live this virtue. Amen. Amen. (From the Novena to St. Philomena by the Association of St. Paul) Daily Prayer O Virgin and Martyr, St. Philomena, you were patient in your endurance to all the suffering and sacrifices. You did that because you realized that all the glory of this world is pure vanity. You weren't attached to anything or anyone. You've always focused your eyes on eternity. Help us live this virtue of detachment so that we are ready to do everything Jesus asks of us. Help us distance ourselves from the happiness and successes of this life so that we can also learn to look out for the happiness of heaven. We ask you, dear saint, to help us develop a heart that is attached only to God. Amen. Amen. (From the Novena to St. Philomena by the Association of St. Paul) Daily prayer O St. Philomena, you received help from Jesus and special grace of perseverance when you and put to death. That special grace was the gift of courage. Your courageous declaration to die for your faith is proof of proof God will not abandon his children. Sometimes I doubt God's place in my own life; in times of difficulty, I easily complain about his absence. Let me understand that God takes care of me, anticipates my needs and protects me from danger. Help me to trust God and put myself in his hands completely. Amen. Amen. (From the Novena to St. Philomena by the Association of St. Paul) Daily prayer O dear St. Philomena, you lived during the most terrible time of the church, when Christians were hunted like animals. But like the first Christians, you found comfort with your brothers and sisters with whom you broke bread, sharing in the Eucharist in the catacombs. You received the Body and Blood of Jesus with devotion, knowing that he would only be able to help you endure the persecutions. I implore you, my dear saint, to help me love the Eucharist, to receive Jesus daily through Holy Communion. Also bless my brothers and sisters, especially the sick, who are unable to receive Jesus daily. May Jesus' presence allow them to accept the suffering they are going through. Amen. You know the multiness and diversity of my needs. Behold me at your feet, full of misery, but full of hope. I enter your charity, O great saint! Graciously hear me and obtain from God a favorable answer to the request I now for you (name your petitions here). I firmly believe that because of your merits, by the contempt, suffering and the death you have endured, united in the merits of the passion and death of Jesus, your husband, I will receive what I ask of you, and in the joy of my heart I will bless God, who is admirable in His saints. Amen. (From the Novena to St. Philomena by the Association of St. Paul) Daily Prayer O dear St. Philomena, you met Christians who, due to terrible torture, were unable to remain strong and renouncing their faith temporarily, or who faced physical pain, surrendered holy books to roman soldiers. You welcomed these Christians and understand their weaknesses. You have not condemned them, nor have you stayed away from them. You kept praying for them and with them. I pray, my dear saint, that you will also help me develop the spirit of understanding that will prevent me from condemning people. Always inspire me to work for unity and peace in our communities especially in our parishes. Amen. Closing Prayer Saint Philomena, Pray for us! 🙏🙏🙏 Great job praying day 9! 🙏🙏🙏 Click here for a special offer for reminders about upcoming novenas and a free copy of my Novena E-Book. ☐ My new book More about St Philomena Tradition states that St. Philomena was a Greek princess who became a virgin martyr at 13 years old. In 1802 in the catacombs of Priscilla tiles read : Peace side by side to you, Philomena. An Italian nun, Sister Maria Luisa di Gesu, received a private epiphany about St. Philomena, telling her that she was the daughter of a Greek king who converted to Christianity. The Emperor Diocletian fell in love with Philomena, but she refused to marry him, and so she was tortured and eventually beheaded. The devotion to Philomena grew when her bones were excavated and miracles began to happen. Many Saints have a devotion to St. Philomena, including St. John Vianney. She is the patron saint of babies and young people. Updated: January 17, 2019 2019
