The AFJROTC mission is to develop citizens of character who are designed to serve their nation and community and to acquaint high school students with air age. This guide is an add-on to the K AFJROTC Instruction 36-2001, 24 November 2014. 2. AFJROTC cadets should develop/understand: A. Values of citizenship and patriotism. B. A. sense of dedication to serve the nation and their community. C. The importance of integrity and personal responsibility in everyday life. D. Self-discipline and teamwork skills, including basic exercises and marching skills. F. Improved communication skills. G. Knowledge and pricing of history, tradition, customs and courtesy of the United Air Force. H. Basic elements of national security. I. Knowledge of the opportunities of an aviation career. AFJROTC HONOR CODE ALL CA-942 Cadet Group cadets must remember and respect the code of cadet honor. I'm not going to lie, I'm going to cheat, I'm going to steal, I'm going to steal, I'm going to tolerate those who do it. AFJROTC VALUES (APPLY EACH TO YOUR LIFE AND LEADERSHIP) 1. Integrity First – A relentless devotion to honesty, truth, to do your duty and to do what is right. 2. Service before self – Leaders take care of their people. Team members work together to support each other. Serving others (individual, community and nation) is considered a privilege. Ask yourself – What can I do to serve others before I think of myself? 3. Excellence In everything we do – Always do everything you can in any company, whether at school or outside school. HARASSMENT AND HAZING Sexual harassment and hazing are strictly prohibited. No type of physical, verbal or mental abuse in AFJROTC is permitted. Evil or vulgar language (especially in the AFJROTC classroom) is also prohibited. Adverse reactions should be reported immediately to SASI/ASI. Any cadet who violates these rules will be subject to a disciplinary action by the unit. Cadets will draw attention to these policies every semester. In addition, cadets will be registered under the law. ADDITIONAL GUIDELINES 1. The unit will use wings as directed by AFJROTC. 2. Specific and operational contracts will apply to all undertakings per unit. 3. The objectives and objectives for the year will be developed by the Management Team before 10 October each year. MILITARY COURTESY AND CONDUCT 1. Cadets are supposed to be watching the proper military action at all times. This behavior will reflect the merits of themselves, their parents/guardians, the cadet group, Cathedral City High School, Cathedral City and the United States Aviation. 2. LESSONS PROCEDURES: At the beginning of the class, the senior cadet NCO and/or sergeant of the year will call for attention. The class will then recite the flag of loyalty. After the commitment, the senior cadet nco and/or sergeant of the year will say report!. Each element will welcome the senior CADET OF THE NCO and/or the Flight Guide with the first element that is all present and/or accounted for Sir/Madam or Cadet (surname) absent. When the senior CADet NCO and/or sergeant returns the first element, the senior cadet (surname) absent. When the senior CADet NCO and/or sergeant will declare the status of presence on the flight to the senior cadet officer and/or flight commander by executing a roughly face, saluting and saying: Mr/Madam is all present and/or flight commander will return the greeting and perform the reverse movement on the salut SASI/ASI and report: Sir/madam, all present and/or accounted for, or Cadet (surname)absent. SASI/ASI will return and say hello and order the cadets to sit down. A. Cadets who enter the classroom when the bell rings will stop at the door until they recognize and tell them to come forward. The cadets will then report individually to SASI/ASI and say: Sir, the cadet (surname) requires permission to saddle. Any excuse will be presented to the instructor. B. All cadets are expected to follow the head before coming to the house and do not place it back upside down until you leave the classroom. (2.) Get rid of the chewing gum before entering the classroom. (3.) During class time, it is not permitted to eat or drink (except water). (4.) During class time, electronic equipment will not be operated. (unless otherwise stated) (5.) When instructors are absent cadets, they will follow the instructions given by the senior cadet. (6.)
