Trivia Beldum and its evolution are the only non-legendary Pokémon to have a catch rate of 3. Origin Beldum is likely based on a space depth or satellite (particularly the Hubble Telescope of Space), planktonic crab larvae, a human inch, and possibly a mute. Beldum somewhat resembles the N64 incarnation of Beamos, artificial haters from the Zelda series that shoot laser into their salt eyes. Etymology Beldum and Danbaru are the dumb word but with the words switching around and then simplified.
