Cookie Lee vintage jewelry Cookie Lee vintage jewelry Having started her own business 33 years ago, Cookie Lee became head and chief designer of Cookie Lee Inc. In 1985. According to the founder herself, the main idea was to make money while at home with her children, Steven and Katie. Meanwhile, as her business grew, she decided to give an opportunity to other mothers like her, to build her own business with her. Based in California, Cookie Lee has become a direct sales company offered to the public since 1992. Now, nearly 25 years later, thousands of Cookie Lee Consultants successfully do their business by selling stylish and affordable jewelry through home fundraisers and office shows. However, exploring the sources of information available on the Internet, I discovered – the company's latest activity concerns 2014. The pages of the site and social networks are no longer available. Cookie Lee is no longer in business, and the first pieces of jewelry she created became vintage collectibles. Goldtone metal and Rhinestone Daisies set brooch and clips. There is a wide range of Cookie Lee jewelry available. The jewels are made of natural and synthetic materials. What kind of jewelry are offered? Jewelry types made by Cookie Lee include the following:Necklaces: These necklaces include bib necklaces, which cover the top of the chest; rope length necklaces, which are necklaces that are 35 inches or more; necklace sets and earrings; Y-shaped necklaces; chokers with various threads that are sometimes embellished with jewels; two-wire necklaces defined with beads; and lariat necklaces. Lariat collars are adjustable because one end is tied or threaded at the other end. For some couturiers, a lariat necklace is also a necklace that is even longer than a rope necklace. Necklaces can also come with charms. Pendants: Pendants and medallions are available with necklaces. Pendants include nature figures such as flowers, sea shells, seahorses and hearts, and there are filigreed pendants made of turtle shell. Rings: Lee cookie rings can have elastic bands to fit different sizes of fingers. They can be adorned with pieces and beads of semiprecious stones such as turquoise and crystal; they can have central stones made of cubic zirconia, colored or colorless rhinestones or crystal, and real or glass pearls. Bracelets: Like rings, Cookie Lee bracelets are sometimes stretched to accommodate your wrist. They can often be hung with charms. Earrings: Earrings include chandelier earrings, drop earrings, stud earrings and hoop earrings. Pins and brooches: Pins and brooches come in the form of animals, words written on rhinestone, flowers, hearts, leaves, angels, ribbons, stellar explosions and seasonal figures like snowmen and gingerbread men. What kind of materials are Cookie Lee's jewelry made of? Materials include colorful art beads, rhinestones and fake round pearls and baroque pearls. Baroque pearls are not round, but come in irregular shapes. Other materials include metal in gold tones, which is the metal that has been dyed or treated to resemble gold. There's no gold in gold metal. Silverstone is treated the same way to resemble silver. Mother Pearl, which is taken from the lining of a shell, is also a material used for Cookie Lee jewelry, as well as Lucite and plastic. Wood is also used. Other pieces of jewelry are made of macramé, which is a type of fabric. Some necklaces have velvet ropes or satin ribbons intertwined through chains How do you care about Cookie Lee's jewelry? Each piece of jewelry must be kept of other pieces to prevent them from itching or getting tangled up with each other. Avoid cleaning them with hard cleaners and allow them to dry. Metals can be rubbed with a jeweler's cloth to restore their luster, while wood and crystal can be gently rubbed with a clean lint-free cotton cloth to remove dust and oils.†Content provided for informational purposes only. eBay is not affiliated with or endorsed by Cookie Lee. The Tustin-based company listed assets of less than $50,000 and liabilities of $1 million to $10 million in its bankruptcy filing on July 8. Chapter 7 usually indicates that a company will liquidate rather than reorganize in Chapter 11. Cookie Lee, founded in 1992, was sold to Debbie Millar in 2014 for undisclosed terms. Millar and her husband, Ron, are founding partners of the luxury residential real estate group HÖM, based in Newport Beach. Millar and his attorney, Kyra E. Andrassy of Smiley Wang-Ekwall, could not be reached for comment. Several comments left on Vivi's Facebook page by sales consultants indicated that the company closed the same day it filed for bankruptcy. Sue Neff, Vivi's sales consultant, wrote: Debbie has worked very hard over the past two years to rebuild a company that had been in decline for years. Unfortunately, rebuilding sometimes just doesn't work. The fate of the outstanding accounts owed to the consultants was unclear. It will be interesting to see if consultants with things in order get their money back, wrote Mary Sue Bizzarri. Debra Lin, founder of Cookie Lee and her namesake, told the Register two years ago that she was selling the company to spend more time with her family and volunteer. Lin left a corporate job in 1985 to start the company, famous for its home shows and jewelry. The company's direct sales strategy, as well as Tupperware and Mary Kay, primarily attracted women looking for full or part-time income. High-performance consultants would schedule free family cruises to places like Alaska, Hawaii and Cancun. More than 60, Lin said, won 45,000 Mercedes-Benz cars. The business recorded $125 million in revenue in 2006 and more than 40,000 sales consultants nationwide, with about 6,400 of them in Orange County. By buying the company, Millar renamed it a rebranding that will revolutionize the direct selling business once again, and help 20% by the end of 2015, the company said in a statement at the time. Vivi advocated vision, inspiration, value and independence. The jewelry and accessories industry of direct direct sales $3 billion a year, according to IBISWorld. The industry is expected to grow from 2015 to 2020, though much slower than the growth seen in the previous five years.
