The Idaho Department of Transportation will not issue an DL or ID if your immigration document indicates that your remaining status is less than 30 days. The Idaho Department of Transportation uses SAVE (a system check of foreign rights) to verify immigration status. If your personal information is changed or if the information on your immigration document is not correct, you will need to correct your immigration records. To begin this process, make an appointment with the www.infopass.uscis.gov Citizenship and Immigration Office or call the national customer service center at 800-375-5283. If you update or correct your immigration records, you must wait a few days before applying for an DL or ID card. If any of the above documents have been used to support a previous licence or the issuing of an IDENTITY document and the department still has access to copies of these documents, the applicant does not need to re-submit the document when applying for a Star Card. This reality is exacerbated by the fact that I had to renew my driver's license, so I decided I would get a REAL ID. Why? From October 1, 2020, to fly nationally or access a federal building, you will need a STAR Card. I have not checked, but I am sure that each state has a similar program REAL ID. As of July 31, only 150 thousand drivers out of 1,200,000 drivers in Idaho have obtained a STAR driver's license. So if you don't need to renew your license, chances are you'll leave this trip to the DMV if possible. Just remember that before this trip to Hawaii for Christmas, a year after that you will need a star card or a valid passport (the STAR card is not good for transit to another country, so you will still need a passport for this ski trip to Nelson.) Let's take a look at my trip to see how you can avoid a few trips and long lines in the DMV. More information can be found at the Idaho Transportation Department. Having the right documents: It's harder than I thought I'd lived in the same house for 31 years, I have a small business, a passport and a TSA background check. So, I just secured the document requirements. Make sure you have all the necessary documents, you will need documents for evidence from the following 3 categories. Identity and date of birth: valid untonged American passport. Certified birth certificate. Consular report on birth abroad, form FS-240, DS-1350 or FS-545. Valid, non-withdrawal card for permanent residence (Form I-551). Non-expired work permit document (SAD), Form I-766 or Form I-688C. (Must be accompanied by an unexhausted foreign passport). An unexplored foreign passport with a valid, non-expiring U.S. visa affixed alongside the approved I-94 form, which documents the most recent admission of the applicant to the United States. (Must be accompanied by an unteted SAD card or other acceptable documents). Naturalization certificate, form N-550 or form N-570. Certificate of nationality, form N-560 or form N-561. REAL personal driver's license or identification card issued in another country. (additional list document required). Make sure that which option you have chosen that it is unexplored, has a picture and is not laminated. If you use something for this requirement that does not have a photo, such as a birth certificate, be ready to show acceptable photo identification. I used my passport. Social Security number: These are the documents from which you can choose to prove your social security number. Your unlaminated ProvisionW-2Social Security Administration, Form 1099 Non-Assurance Administration social security number. Again, I thanked God that I was married to my wonderful wife, she had my unedited Social Security card (signed in 1974). If I couldn't find this card, I'd have to dig up my taxes and some form 1099, since I no longer receive a salary. Proof of Idaho Residency: This is where I got confused, I do not realize that you need 2 of these documents. I had released a copy of my utility bill, but I only had one document. Fortunately, the wonderful man from the DMV allowed me to use my insurance from Jan Jesberger as an original or a certified copy of the last issued document as proof of my Idaho Residency. These are the documents you can choose from to prove your proof of Idaho Residency. ORIGINAL OR CERTIFIED COPY, DATE WITHIN ONE YEAR ORIGINAL OR CERTIFIED COPY OF THE LAST CONCLUDED RENTAL/LEASE CONTRACT, Mortgage or documents of the court with an actuarial and household service for service address, i.e. electricity bill, water bill, garbage and sewerage (no mobile phone bills accepted) Record of estimated or paid property taxes (date of receipt within one year Bank or extract from credit card car insurance card, A binder or account issued by IDAHO-BASEDCARRIER Paycheck, paystubs or employees records the Idaho school enrollment with current address or VOC for the current school year and current address (College ID not accepted). Motel, hotel, camping or RV park receipt shows 30 days of resident residence document Military Leave and Income Collection (LES) for proof That Idaho Residency applicant deployed outside Idaho while serving as an agency for active duty relief or for certification of shelter the owner of the affidavit residence certificate Is displayed early. Hours in Coeur d Alene, as well as mail are from 7:30 to 5:30, unless you need to take a written test. I was there at 7.20am on Wednesday morning and my wait was less than 15 minutes. There is an application for this: DMV has hired a queue management system application allows you to line up in order. You can queue and receive updates on hold. I used this app recently after buying a new car, and it works well. My only warning is that waiting times once you're in line don't have to be the real waiting time. When I used the app, I was given a 30-minute wait, but after 15 minutes my number popped up. Luckily, I was already in the waiting room and was able to take my place. Bottom line: With only 42% of Americans holding passports and only 150,000 of the 1.25 million Idahoans holding STAR cards (and knowing human nature as I do), I suspect so October 2020 inches closer, we'll see upward pressure on the good people in the DMV.
