Originally named Pico Terrace Elementary School when it was first built in 1937, the school later served as Pulaski High School and became a secondary school in 1974, after the consolidation of county High School nurse and a full support staff to serve the current enrolment of 429 students in grades six to eight. In addition to standard academic subjects in mathematics, language arts, science and social studies, students have numerous opportunities to expand their experiences by participating in classes such as physical health/education, family and consumer sciences, agriculture, information technology, art, choir and band. Students in need of additional academic support can receive assistance through our special education program. Our areas of interest for this year are understanding reading and writing. We are implementing positive intervention supportive behavior and continue to teach anti-bullying strategies. We encourage students to practice multiplication at home and at school. Valuing our traditions, raising our future, and uniting our community Welcome to our school We are so excited in Pulaski County to start a new school year in a new school building by combining our two previous middle schools. We will have a new school culture, a new identity and new lifelong relationships. In this new era of technology we are blessed to have optional ways to provide education in multiple settings. We know that we are starting a school year under unusual circumstances. But our goal and focus will continue training and learning. And, of course, we will focus on safety by following the CDC Recommendations and recommendations from our local health department. Public schools are the backbone of our community, as they have laid the foundations for the future of the community - our future teachers, law enforcement authorities, doctors, scientists, artists, engineers and more. Public schools are also a great equalizer in which we offer free education for everyone who enters our doors. So, again, welcome! Bien Venidos!
