When it comes to launching a business in France, expanding its current international operations to France, or simply investing in French real estate, SAREG has all the tools on hand to provide you with a complete service from initial advice to company creation, annual accounts and tax returns. With more than 30 years of experience in international business and investment, five offices and a team of English-speaking staff, and to support all accounting requirements, our savoir-fail means you can find the best solution for your situation, second to none. We have expanded significantly over the years to become the most innovative accounting firm in the region, working closely with the authorities to find the most tax-efficient solutions for English-speaking clients. We have experience in the business of four operators in the UK in particular and currently take care of the affairs of more than 100 such businesses on behalf of the French authorities and them, including annual audits and VAT declarations. Our clients range from modest sales to multi-million euro turnover to help businesses of all sizes grow and expand. SAREG joined the SR CONSEIL group SAREG and recently worked with the SR Conseil Group, a large group of certified public accountants, auditors and lawyers located throughout the French Alps. Alongside auto savvy's current SAREG team, the SR team can support clients' needs and, together, provide overall accounting and legal services. SAREG chose SR Conseil because it shares the same value of close relationship with its clients and their staff, as well as the services they provide. In addition, they offer a complete set of professional services that complement ourselves, including chartered accounting, law, audit, salary, occupational risk assessment, accompanying professionals in the outdoor activities sector, and tax management of furnished rental income. Their own customers come from various categories of professional activities and only include traders, small businesses, associations and individuals. www.srconseil.fr Contact our experts to make sure you choose the best way to buy for your individual situation before buying a property in France. With customers with sales of between €10,000 and €10 million per year, and our Expert Advisors, our English-speaking team is perfectly positioned to help your business thrive. One of the main concerns for people thinking of living or investing in France is french taxation. Our team can help you with various taxes in France related to property, business, income and wealth. Before buying a property France always recommends seeking advice on your individual situation, as there are many factors to consider. These are related to who is buying, what you want to use the property for, whether you are going to run a business from the property and what you want to happen if you die. Our specific services and consulting areas include: • How to buy • Inheritance issues • Real estate rental regulations • VAT It is difficult enough to run a business in your own country more than your contact information, but setting up a business in a foreign country can be a daunting task, especially if you do not speak the language. French law does not allow anyone to work in France unless they are self-employed or salaried, so it is essential to take advice before doing any activity in France. There are several options for business structure, taxation and registration, depending on the type and size of the business, professional activities and whether staff are required. We can assist you in all areas: • Advice related to business structure • Creation of business registrations and French subsidiaries • Declaration of annual accounts and companies • Staff and salaries • Staff and salaries Contact us to find one of the more main concerns for people living or thinking of investing in France is the French levy. France has several different taxes related to property ownership, business, income and wealth, which can be a minefield trying to figure out what your debts are in individual circumstances. Our main customers are professional and if we take care of the annual accounts of professional clients, we generally prepare tax returns for their personal income and wealth. However, we also have a list of private clients who need assistance with complex income and wealth tax returns and have a dedicated English speaking tax team to handle this. In addition to the tax filing period, we also accept tax consultations regarding changes in status of residence and occupation status. Our experts can guide you through this complex system by providing advice and assistance: Professional Taxation & VAT & Capital Gains Tax Income Tax & Real Estate Wealth Tax Personal Tax Review & Real Estate Wealth Tax Review & Change of Residence Please contact us first, The silver plate rosary bracelet features 6mmaz Fire polished beads.
