It has about 1,650[2] students and 150 faculty. History of the Original Biloxi High School was built in 1912 on Howard Avenue. The new Biloxi High School was built in 1961 - priced at $1.6 million - by the father of Ryan Avenue. Biloxi architects Henry Francis Fountain and Carl E. Matthes are credited with being involved in their design. The current Bilox High School, hailed as a state-of-the-art facility, opened in 2002. The school serves 9th, 10th, 11th, $35 million facility, named as one of the best schools in the country by the U.S. Department of Education in 2006, features a campus nestled about 90 acres (360,000 m2) between Back Bay biloxi and Interstate 10. This facility includes fully equipped research laboratories; computer laboratories; 200-seat performance hall; training and competition gymnasiums; tennis courts; football stadium; baseball and beating stadiums with indoor kicks; music areas with individual internships and ascenders; and stoves for art in the classroom. Recently, Biloxi High completed the construction of its brand new addition to the west side of the school. In addition, the money with the estimated $14 million price tag was financed, which was divided between existing gambling revenues and property taxes. The new wing features an internet café, three more classrooms and a new modern-style courtyard. The goal in addition was to accommodate the move to ninth-grade Biloxi Junior High School, a move that is set to bring about 400 new students onto the campus of Biloxi High. [3] [4] From the age of 09-10, Biloxi Secondary School will serve from 9-12 September. Security biloxi public school district installed cameras in every classroom and hallway in 2003, . Biloxi Public School District has developed a police department in the school district. Currently, three officers are made up and more are expected to be hired. Officers have been assigned to precincts in the district, one patrolling two schools north of Popp's Ferry bridge, one patrolling an alternative school, and the other in charge of schools on the east side of the district. Two officers are equipped with a 2008 Dodge Chargers and other hard drives for the late model Crown Victoria Police Interceptor model. [6] Curriculum accelerated classes are available in the English department and advanced placement or AP classes are available in mathematics, English, art, history, Research. Biloxi High School also offers a variety of classes in its vocational training department, from childcare to car body. AP classes for AP students are often allowed in opportunities including The We People Experience, History Day and Stock Market Game. Biloxi High won the 1st Prize. A team of seniors won a trip to New York City, where they visited Good Morning America and the New York Stock Exchange, under the supervision of their AP government teacher. Sport BHS offers a wide range of sports programs. BHS also has a director of sports medicine. Blue Ribbon In 2007, Biloxi High School was one of only four schools in the state of Mississippi, and one of only 287 in the nation to win Blue Ribbon Status. It is defined as the No Child Left Behind Act, as is the school, which has more than forty per cent of the school population or below the poverty level, but still meets and goes beyond AYP (Sufficient annual progress). Schools with these students, regardless of background, are in the top 10 percent of the state's standardized curriculum tests. The principals of the selected schools travel to Washington, D.C. to receive official recognition from the 12th to 13th [7] [7] Student Organizations and Media Student Union, a body made up of students selected by their peers to be a bridge between the school administration and students at Biloxi High School. Biloxi High School Student Council is a member of the Mississippi Association of Student Councils of MSASC, the Southern Association of Student Councils, and the National Student Council Association. Biloxi High School Student Council produces and sponsors WBHS, a school house, closed circuit, tv station. Key Club Biloxi High Key Club is one of the busiest clubs in the school and is also student-led. Members participate in their school and community service activities. They have worked together: City of Biloxi, The American Heart Association, the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, Lynn Meadows, the Humane Society, and more. They're part of division 14-A Key Club International in LaMissTenn District. The Key Club International motto that is adopted by BHS Key Club is Caring, Our Way of Life. Hi-Tide Hi-Tide is a quarterly newspaper published at Biloxi High School. Hi-Tide's main goal is to keep students, faculty, employees and community members informed about the current events at Biloxi High School. The National Honor Society's National Honor Society is a union of honors made up of students who excel at scholarship, character, leadership and service. Students will choose the faculty council in the fall for their junior or senior year. Technology Student Association Technology Student Association is a student organisation that is open to students who have registered or who have passed technology training courses. Environmental Club Biloxi High School Environmental Club is a service club that helps students become partners in stewardship. Students who enroll in a club often find themselves becoming increasingly aware of environmental and community issues. There are several service projects that the Environmental Club is involved in including Paws Cause Chapter benefits from the Harrison County Humane Society in the fall, and the American Cancer Society Relay for Life held in high school each spring. Students often schedule a workday outside of normal school hours to help keep Biloxi High's Nature Trail environmentally friendly and available to other classes and visitors. Posts and signs referring to the natural plant are placed on the nature trail and are maintained by the Environmental Club. Bhs Environmental Club is also raising money to sponsor the Canon Envirothon competition team at Biloxi High School. Each year, a team of five substitutes participates in a local competition and competes in areas such as water and water quality, soil science, forestry and land management and wildlife. The International Cultural Club of the International Cultural Club is made up of students who wish to understand, appreciate and learn about international culture. Health and Sports Club Health and Sports Club consists of a group of students who wish to remain fit and healthy throughout their high school career. SADD Club SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions) Club manages the AFJROTC program. It aims to discourage drug use and other common teen vices, while encouraging community engagement. The Tri-M Honor Society was formerly known as the M.A.Y.O. (Music Appreciation Youth Organization) for students at Biloxi High. Tri-M is a national honoring society that deals with the musical education needed by growing musicians from all over the country.
