Read Also: Philips Norelco QT4014/42 BeardTrimmer 3500 Plus it does not include all small accessories, but does the desired work freely and effectively. Basically, it's a simple one-piece unit so you don't have to mess with different length guards to get a perfect beard. Cutting lengths can be easily changed from 1mm to 10mm with a simple thumb movement, making use of the dial preset on the front of the device. This is one of the unique selling points of this sider because most of the other sidemers out there don't offer that luxury. In addition, the built-in 10-length settings have a special locking feature that allows users to experiment with different beard styles to get the perfect bearded look and get a uniform cut on every occasion. Basically, the secure lock ensures an accurate finish all the time. Equipped with self-sharpened blades made of Chromium steel, this sidemer is also hypoallergenic. Thus, product manufacturers have ensured that the sider can be used by people with sensitive skin as well. Also, the sharp blades will not disappoint you for several years. Consumer reviews attest to the facts that blades last for several years, especially when used by a single user. Since the blades are made of Chromium steel, they are highly durable and maintain their sharpness for a long time. In addition, the self-sharpening feature ensures minimal maintenance. You don't have to get to get used to them regularly. Just turn on the look up and everything will be ready for use. The Good Points For its price, the product is a steal. For less than $20, it's hard to find a lookout that's going to last for years. The parade is an easy maintenance product. There is no need to lubricate. A simple tap wash is all it needs to be cleaned, as the parade comes with a fully washable head. This rounded beard ed if it's perfect for those guys suffer from skin irritation. Battery time is also favorable. Once recharged, it lasts 45 minutes. That said, requires total charge of ten hours The best bet would be to load the parade overnight so it can be used in the morning. The product is supported with two years warranty. Disadvantages of the product There is no case or support included in the package. Although the sidephernashes has 10-length settings, it's not ideal for anyone looking to get a very close beard that they're used to from other expensive siders out there on the market. The Final Verdict This product is ideal for those looking for an easy-to-use beard sider without a beard sider from a reputable manufacturer like Philips.
