Then you have to open the public event chests and strike, winning Glimmering Amethyst each time, until you have enough to continue. Now, you have to the Bergusia Forge with 'Maximum Temper', which again consists of shooting down specific drones during the playthrough. These are added to your random inventory when completing regular black armor rewards, so keep playing until you get one. Doing so gives him an obsidian crystal. Redeem it in your inventory to get the unidentified frame. Now you have to complete three activities in order. The first is the Shattered Throne, the Dungeon of Dreaming City that is only active every third week. Then there are two special versions of the Pyramid Strike and the Bergusia Forge to complete - you'll find these as missions in Io and EDZ respectively. More about Destiny 2 Destiny 2 Review News (229) Guides (131) About author Will need to find the drones forge in the Gofannon forge if you want to get maximum temperament during their careers. Destroying both will establish the forge to the maximum temperament, allowing it to in search of the mysterious box for Izanagi's cargo exotic sniper rifle. Gofannon's forge is located in Nessus. Spawn on the edge of the artifacts, then get off the platform on the ground. Move straight forward in it You spawn in front, then turn right. You will find a crashed boat and a hole in the wall. Follow the tunnel that leads from the hole to gofannon forge. This is a hard forge, full of Arch enemies, so the Riskrunner is an excellent weapon to use here. He has a great ability to clean up enemies and will be continually using his passive because of all the bow damage from enemies. Gofannon Forge Drone One The main piece of the Gofannon Forge landscape is a vast rugged ship that has been split open. Both drones approach them. The first drone will be generated high, near the broken beams and sashes of the ship. Gofannon Forge Drone Two The second drone approaches the side of the arena, among some rock outcrop, just to the left of the rugged ship. It's a good idea to use a sniper rifle to take out the drones, since any sniper rifle in the game has to easily fire a shot. Now you know where the two drones spawn, remember that you don't even need to kill your head. All you need to do is finish a career at Maximum Temperament, and you can progress the search. Bungie Over the past week, players have been looking for keys to unlock an item called the mysterious box in Destiny 2: Black Armor. The box is a search that leads to the cargo of Izanagi, a sniper rifle. But getting through research is the only real burden. There are quite a few steps standing in the way of you and your fancy new sniper. That's where we come in. Heads-up: If you randomly get a rare bounty of Ada-1 - which fall off your normal, daily rewards and powerful team reward - complete the goal and then hold on to it. You will need to turn one into a search step, so it will be very useful to have a bank at this point. Find the mysterious box The easiest part of this search is to find the mysterious box, the search item that you are going to push all your keys into. Once you start Black Armor and access the Volundr forge, walk to the arena, jump over the bridge and immediately make a 180. We follow the path down the rocks to a small cave next to the ravine. Come in and you'll find a small black armor box. Open it to receive the mysterious box. Bungie via Polygon Find the first three keys Great job! You found the box. This is where things get a little harder if you're trying to do all this for your loner. The mysterious box requires four keys to be inserted. The first three keys are in the first three forges. The fourth and last key is a little more complex, so we'll save it for your own section. Volundr's key locations Since you're here, jump into the Volundr forge. Complete the wave as usual, and get ready to get into action with a long-range weapon – a sniper or explorer will do just fine. Between the waves, two shield drones will be generated on both sides of the arena. The first drone is on the left side floating around the tree on the far left on the far island. Bungie via Polygon The second is in the cave area to the right of the forge, floating around the roof near some stalactites. Bungie via Polygon Once you've killed both drones, you should see a maximum temperament buff on the left side of the screen. Complete the rest of the forge as normal. When you kill your head, you'll notice that a black armor box has fallen near the forge. Open it to receive your first key. Interact with the key in your inventory to slot it into blocking your mysterious box. Gofannon Key This key is probably the easiest to get on your own. Set up with the same weapons as you do on Volundr. Between the first and second wave, they are around the crashed ship at the back of the arena. A shield drone will float around the ship's skeleton. Bungie via Polygon The second is to your left if you're looking at the ship, floating around a pillar coming off the ground. Bungie via Polygon After getting maximum temperament amateur, collect your key from the box just like last time. Izanami KEY To get this key on your own, you'll definitely need a sniper rifle. After the first wave, as he looks back at the entrance to the forge, position himself on the island on the right. Drone one is on the island where you're standing. Look towards the forge and you'll see a small fading pillar that will have the drone floating around it. Bungie via Polygon Drone Two sits across the large well, and is floating around a darker pillar farther from the edge near the cave entrance to the arena. Bungie via Polygon Finish the forge with maximum temperament activated and claim the third key. Forging the fourth key Now that the Bergusia forge is open, Ada-1 is offering the key mold for the fourth and final key. You will have to build this thing through a long and occasionally hateful line of research. But the reward is worth it. Back to the Leviatan Your first step will be in the belly of the Leviatan to kill the observers. Even if you are not a raider or play solo, you will still be able to complete this step with relative ease. Equip an exotic that speeds you up if you can — Dunemarchers or transversive steps are great here, but multi-tool size also works, as it will make this next part much easier. Bungie via Polygon Spawn in the Leviatan and ignore the Flow standing on the bridge. Descend to a secret level before where they stand and you'll find a small room with six levers. Going from left to right, you need to pull the levers quickly in this order: 1 - 5 - 3 - 2 - 4 - 6. This is easy to do in a group and handy on its own. If you've done well, you'll see a message that says path is open. Go up the ramps until you reach the most open area. Walk forward and there will be a swimming pool (don't fall into this if you can help him; it's called death water for a reason) with a pipe coming out of it. Follow the path and jump through the pipes until you reach a large fan. Pull the lever into the room to your left and mount the waves up the shaft. Bungie via Polygon You will be presented with an option: Go forward or turn left. Take the left turn and make your way down the aisle until you reach the Motor Gate. You can use any space to cultivate this, but in our Motor experience it is the fastest to clean and pass. Open the door and kill as many observers as you can before you go immune. Once your shields come out, you will have to clean the Flow and then clean the rest of the observers. Bungie via Polygon Now that you have four lenses for the four observers you killed, go back out the door you walked in, let it lock behind you and start this process again. Once you've picked up 24 watchers lenses, you'll be given a new task. Public events and strikes Now you'll need to pick up Glimmering Amethyst for Ada-1. These things fall naturally throughout the game, and can be collected from strike chests, public events or random chests in the world. We ran through a handful of public events at the EDZ – a very easy cycle starts there every few minutes. However, the speed running through the Shadow Lake strike through the conductor is much faster. Complete 20 public events or 10 strikes to complete this step of the search. Temper Bergusia Now you'll have to run a Bergusia forge and kill shield drones. These two are pretty easy to find, even if you're running on your own. They occur between the first and second rounds as usual. If you are watching from the entrance, the first drone is on a pillar to the left of the forge, disconnected from everything. Bungie via Polygon The second drone is to the right of the forge from the entrance, floating next to a red pipe and a black armor box. Bungie via Polygon Now that the forge has maximum temperament, finish Bergusia and collect your key from the box as usual. Complete a rare reward Insert the four keys into your mysterious box and return to Ada-1 in the Tower. He'll ask you to get an obsidian crystal. Remember our warning earlier about the rare reward? Let's hope you have one in you. Turn on the rare reward of Ada-1 to receive the obsidian crystal. If you still lack a rare reward, make all the normal Ada-1 rewards every day until you get one. Do Shattered Throne Here is the first step that will require a coordinated team for most people. You're going to have to enter the Shattered Throne and defeat Dul Incaru, the ultimate boss. If you need help with this, we have a guide to the Shattered Throne for you. Note that this dungeon is only available every three weeks, when the Dreaming City curse is at its most intense. If it's Shattered Throne Week, Shattered, you probably want to grind in this search as hard as you can so they wouldn't close for nearly another month. Do the search for the pyramid After making shattered throne, you will have to make a difficult version of the pyramid. Even at 650, this mission is not for the faintest of heart, so we suggest getting a crew together rather than trying solo. If your fire brigade clears, you will return to orbit. Watch out in there. It's worth mentioning that you also need to launch this through a search on Io, not through the strike node itself. If you've just completed the normal pyramid strike naturally, you won't get anything in search. Go to the search node in Io and be prepared for your team to block. Note that Solar Singe and Heavyweight are also in, so Sleeper Simulating is your friend here. Shoot down Siviks once and for all Now comes the final step in the search: killing siviks. Take a trip to the EDZ and launch the mission from the search marker to the patrol. All you're going to have to do here is kill Siviks. This is relatively easy if you have worm whisper or something similar. Just hang out at the top of the door, next to the landing entrance, and shoot in the head until you're dead. Once the mission is over, return to Ada-1 and pick up your new luxury sniper rifle. Rifle.
