Home Entertainment (2020-present) ReleaseOriginal networkABC FamilyOriginal release October 22, 2006 (2006-10-22) (ABC Family) Sarah's 2006 initiation made for a television movie that was directed by Stuart Gillard for The ABC Family. It first aired as part of ABC Family's 13 Nights of Halloween on October 22, 2006 and is a loose remake of the 1978 film of the same name. [2] Both videos differ in several respects. The personalities of Sarah and Patty (who was renamed Lindsay) have been changed, the two are now biological sisters instead of adopted siblings, and the film offers magic as the dominant element of the storyline, while the original focuses more on Sarah about telekinesis. Ms. Hunter's character was re-written to be younger and hold a Doctorate, and is seen as a more positive character in the film, unlike the character played by Shelley Winters. The end of the film also changes, because Sarah ends up with an interest in love and does not die after the end of the film. Plot Twin sisters Sarah (Mika Boorem) and Lindsay (Summer Glau) are excited to attend Temple Hill University, where they will likely join Alpha Nu as their mother Trina Goodwin (Morgan Fairchild) was a former member. Sarah immediately finds herself in Finn, a student counselor who invites them both to Pi Epsilon Delta's rush week party. At the party, the sisters are introduced to Alpha Nu president, Corrine (Joanna Garcia), but Sarah ends up leaving the party with tears in her eyes after accidentally spilling a drink on Corrine. Lindsay follows Sarah and accidentally breaks her ankle. They are introduced to the House of Pi Epsilon Delta, where Dr. Eugenia Hunter (Jennifer Tilly) introduces herself as a friend of their mother. The sisters are surprised that Lindsay's ankle has been flew out. The next day Corrine ingratiate herself to Lindsay during a meeting at Alpha Nu, during which time Corrine takes the opportunity to take her eyelashes off Lindsay and pocket. Sarah approaches Dr. Hunter, who tells Sarah that they both possess magical powers. This annoys Sarah, especially after Dr. Hunter later tells her that The Pi Epsilon Delta and Alpha Nus are mortal enemies locked in a battle between good and evil, and that Sarah is the only one who can disrupt Sarah is further warned that as one, Alpha Nu wants to sacrifice her eternal flame with the Truth Knife in exchange for immortality. Sarah tries to approach her sister with the one who angrily tells her that Sarah has always been in the spotlight, unlike Lindsay herself and Lindsay ends up leaving in tears. After Vice President Corrine Esme (Tessa Thompson) informs her of the fight, Corrine uses this to convince Lindsay to join the sorority in exchange for beauty and a chance to eclipse her sister - an offer that Lindsay gladly accepts. Things become more tense after Lindsay is forced to stay in the Pi Epsilon Delta after a fire and after making up for finn, Sarah discovers that Trina Goodwin is not her real mother and that Trina actually killed their birth mother after a failed ritual. Alpha Nus believed she was the only one who turned out to be fake after the Truth Knife refused to cut her because she would only cut off The One's body. Sarah also learns that Alpha Nus are ready to kill her if they can't have her, prompting her to try to rescue her sister from the clutches. Initially, it seems to be effective, because Lindsay seems to want to leave the group, but soon it turns out that it is a trap to capture Sarah and force her to devote herself willingly. However, everyone is shocked when the fight reveals that the real thing is actually Lindsay, not Sarah, as the Knife of Truth ends up nicking her throat. They also believe that the Knife can cut through everything if it has The Knife's blood on it. Corrine immediately ties Lindsay in preparation for her initiation and kills Trina Goodwin because she is no longer using corrine. Sarah runs away with Finn and they both have sex to stop him from sacrificing during a ceremony where Alpha Nus will throw virgins into their Eternal Flame to keep him burned. Sarah and Lindsay are both initiated in their homes (Sarah in Delta's Pi Epsilon, Lindsay in Alpha Nu) and Lindsay is horrified when she discovers that Alpha Nus are going to sacrifice her. While Delta casts a shielding spell to trap most of Alpha Nu at home, Sarah manages to save her sister, almost dying in the process, and after the fight pushes Corrine to the Eternal Flame. After returning home to Pi Epsilon Delta, Dr. Hunter uses Lindsay's inner power to heal her and returns the Truth Knife to her resting place, while Sarah leads Delta at night to find and destroy the remaining Alpha Nu. The video ends with an esme voiceover saying: That trouble with fire. You never know when it's going to get worse again. Cast Morgan Fairchild as Trina Goodwin Mika as Sarah Summer Glau as Lindsay Amber Wallace as Vita Ben Ziff as Finn Joanna Garcia as Corrine Jennifer Tilly as Eugenia Hunter Tessa Thompson as Esme Reception Cinema Crazyed moved the remake as an overly bland film because they felt it was so lost in their own attempts to emulate a certain show about yacking women that they couldn't find their own niche. DVD Talk also panned the film as a shiny, largely boring tread and recommended that fans of the original film not see Sarah's initiation. Commonsensimedia gave the film three stars and commented on its amount of violence. [6] Testimonials ^ Pacheco, Jared. Horror Whores: Sarah's Initiation (2006). JoBlo.com. Hi, where can I find this video with a teacher PL? Best regards!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! ! even I liked it. unusual share turnover and it was on the plus side. Sarah's empowerment - what an evocative title... Unfortunately, in the days of Harry Potter and Buffy, the creators of horror films about teenagers are mainly fascinated by special effects, and therefore put on hokus-temptations for the poor. Meanwhile, you don't have to resort to mushy New Age storylines to... more Even good! With the tip a little bent &;too much= fantastic=>, but overall the video is doing well. I'm just amazed by the genre, I've set myself up for something terrible, and there's no terrible thing here, it's more a fantastic movie, for young people, than a horror movie. From me gets ... more knows someone the title of the song that flies when sarah sits with this boy in the library and begins to inch it? calowac? &lt;/za>g;
