At the start of the contest, Calera threw on a 32-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Tyler Nelson to Braylyn Chelsea struggled to get going on offense, going three and out in their first series and failing to create much running space for Adam Reaves at the start of the game. Reaves had just 15 yards on the first seven carries. Chelsea got on board for their second of the series, a 26-yard field goal by Alex Trout after a miscue by Calera on fourth down. The Eagles punter fell back to the punt, but his knee fell to the ground before he dropped the ball, giving Chelsea the ball at the Eagles' 32-yard line. After the teams traded three and out, the Hornets took over at their 39-yard line, halfway through the second quarter, down to four. That deficit was quickly erased by Reaves, who led 61 yards to put Chelsea 10-7 up. Chelsea added another score before halftime after Reaves found Gabe Ruffin on a 6-yard touchdown pass, putting the Hornets up 17-7 at the break. While Calera was able to get some big plays on offense, especially tight end Noah Williams, who had 72 yards on four receptions, and running back Kris Cotton, who rushed for 45 yards on 11 carries, mistakes kept the Eagles from putting in more points. The Eagles fumbled the ball four times, twice in consecutive snaps in the second quarter. But it was the third bounce that put the Hornets in the driver's seat early in the third quarter. In Calera's first drive, Cotton fumbled the ball at third down and Donovan Bivins was there to pick it up, taking it 47 yards for a touchdown that gave Chelsea a 24-7 lead. Nelson found receiver Kobe Prentice on a well executed 36-yard touchdown strike on Calera's next drive, bringing it within 10, but the Eagles didn't score again. Ruffin made an alleged play in the game early in the fourth quarter when he took a short pass to Chelsea quarterback Hayden Garrison, found his way to Calera's sideline and took off for a 69-yard score, providing the last score of the game. I am very pleased with our seniors, being able to send them away to win, and I am as proud of my efforts as always, said Chelsea head coach Dustin Goodwin. After falling behind early on, Goodwin said he told his team to calm down, and his players responded with some big plays on both sides of the ball. It's just an effort for our kids, Goodwin said. If there's a chance, we'll tell them to get the best out of it, and today we were able to do it a couple of times. Wrapping up the season Friday night, Goodwin acknowledged that he wasn't sure they would get through this season when it started, given the COVID-19 pandemic, and while his team is not in the playoffs, he said he was grateful to be on the field this year. I still don't think there's anything quite like the football game and the lessons it teaches young men who participate in it and the bonds it builds, Goodwin said. Just to be to play the game is something we are very grateful and grateful for. Click here to view and buy photos from the game.
