Many of our Hot listeners already know Headcrack from his years on the Rickey Smiley Morning Show, Dish Nation, or listened to the show already all over the country, said regional vice president/GM Tim Davies, and since we're producing and broadcasting The Morning Hustle from Atlanta, it's a perfect fit. As has been rumored, Tom Joyner announced today that Rickey Smiley will host the syndicated morning show after retiring at the end of the year. Smiley, who currently hosts a syndicated breakfast show targeted more like hip-hop stations, will relocate to many joyner affiliates. Smiley will be joined by current co-host Gary Wit Da Tea and actress/reality star Eva Marcille on the new show. Smiley made his radio debut in 2004 as dallas 97.9 KBFB host. Radio One began syndicating the show in 2008. Reach Media is also constantly distributing the Russ Parr Morning Show to urban AC affiliates, and is expected to present a new show of Hip-Hop stations anchored by current Smiley co-host Headcrack. The new Rickey Smiley Show debuts on January 2, 2020.Today on The Tom Joyner Morning Show, Tom introduced listener favorite Rickey Smiley as the successor to the morning anchor position created by Tom over the course of 25 years. Smiley also announced that Eva Marcille and Gary Wit Da Tea will be among the on-air actors joining her to be broadcast out of the Dallas studios beginning January 2020. More details about the show will be shared in the coming months. Joyner reflects on his accomplishments and future, I'm glad the landscape of urban AC morning radio continues to expand with Rickey, and I'm proud of the doors of the Tom Joyner Morning Show open. Twenty-five years ago, there was no template for the syndicated Urban radio show, and we worked hard to prove that we could successfully produce and market a national platform that entertains, informs and empowers African American listeners. We broke a little space, raising the bar for what the audience expected on Black Radio all while partying with purpose. Yes, we've done a lot of things, but there's still a lot to do. I'm sure Rickey's activism, his love of radio, community, HBCUs, you'll pick up where we left off. Making the announcement public, Rickey Smiley shared the excitement, It's an honor to continue the legacy of my boss and sorority brother Tom Joyner. Not only have he been friends with my family and I over the years, but he's also considered a family member. Tom's mentoring has brought me valuable wisdom, which I'm taking with me through this new morning show. David Kantor, ceo of Reach Media and Radio One, acknowledged the collaboration: Tom has changed the entire urban radio market. Over the past 25 years, he has entertained and raised generations of students. Although there is and has always been only one Tom Joyner, we are excited that Rickey will be moving to Urban AC in January. Like Tom, Rickey's talent, community consciousness and commitment to the audience will serve the listeners as well.
