chain and causes her to crash violently into the wall before finding herself also on the ledge of the 85th floor and where Alice immediately - but he quickly mentions that they will be able to solve this case later and now that they are on a better surface, they manage to resist and eliminate the minions who attacked her. After the threat, Kirito and Alice immediately sit on the ledge to take a break from the climb before they were able to continue and exit to the balcony on the 96th floor so they can re-enter the interior of the cathedral and where Kirito pulls out some of the snacks the cardinal gave him so they could eat them and restore energy, but when Kirito tries to warn them with sacred art , which Alice may have said would have burned their Alice on them and uses the right sacred art and slightly overheating them and then eating them between them, while at the same time Alice begins to suspect how the Dark Territory minions might be in the cathedral and begins to believe that the cleric is a major, Quinella has something to do with it, but also Kirito decides to let her everything she knows about her , starting from the beginning and Alice agrees to hear it , but also warns him that if he lies to him, he will kill him without hesitation. Meanwhile inside the cathedral, Eugeo reaches the 95th floor, where there are a number of thermal baths where it is located overlooking the front The leader and captain of the Knights of Integrity named Berkouli, who at the time was taking a bath and where he is impressed with how Kirito and Eugeo were able to go as far and defeat several of his fellow Knights of Integrity and even ask if Fanatio was still alive, to which Eugeo assures her she will be ok as fortunately she did not die in the match she was with Kirito When he hears this, Berkowley seems glad to be glad that everything will be fine with his comrade. Captain Berkowley then leaves the bathroom and asks Eugeo for a few minutes, so that he can dress up and prepare for the fight and assures him that as compensation for not killing Fanatio he will try not to kill him, but warns Eugeo that his turn he will not be so lucky to defeat him now that his companion is absent, so Eugeo pulls his sword out of the Blue Rose and prepares to face Captain Berkouli. 1867 Hero of Legends (Densetsu no Yūryū (伝説英雄)Ken TakahashiYukito Kidzawa[24 February 9, 2019 Battle between Eugeo and Captain Berkouly, finally begins where eugeo turns out to be quite adept at using his black sword and manages to predict each of Eugeo's attacks, and that they have been styled as successive punches only by wearing it and shows that many dark knights have used this style of battle almost like this Berkouly decides to use their special skill from their sword , Eugeo begins to think about the strategy of counterattacking and overcoming Berkowley's abilities, so he decides to use a technique known as Sonic Leap to try to attack Berkowley during the space created by the execution of the movement, because to use the special ability of his Sword of the Blue Rose he will need some time , however Berkowley manages to again anticipate eugeo attacks and attacks - leaving a sharp cut to Eugeo, from which Berkowley warns him that he could have killed him had he not stalled the attack. Eugeo, being cornered by methods and at the same time by Berkowley's technicians, further explains how his sword's special ability worked and allows Eugeo to heal his wounds, reminding him that he has no intention of attacking him so hard and that he did not expect an attack charge, so Berkowley predicted to Eugeo for trying to kill him earlier Thinking about his next attack, Berkowley noticed that Eugeo was starting to reciting words activating the total gun control of his Blue Rose Sword, but instead of stopping it, he decided to let it end and continue the conversation he more deeply explains the particular skill of his sword, which possesses the ability to shorten time and allow time to embrace his opponents'abilities and make short cuts in space-time, but then continue their struggles, where Berkowley manages to re-predict the attacks Eugeo intended to attack him at long range - but he immediately brag that each of the opponents he faced in the past , weighed almost like Eugene and managed to defeat them. However, realizing that Eugeo had finished reciting command of full arms control, Berkouly recalls that he has no intention of continuing to play with him and pulls out the sword again, Evgeus quickly activates the special skill of his sword, where a few ice blades surrounded Berkouly, who the latter manages to cut easily - however it allows Eugeo to attack him closely enough, but when Berkouly discovers the trick, he tries to block Eugeo's attack - but it turns out that Eugeo dropped his sword and took the cardman instead, who breaks with punch and manages to push Berkouli into the water bath, where Eugeo takes his hidden sword and activates the second phase of his sword, with which he manages to freeze the entire environment in seconds, later Berkouly has already recovered from a surprise attack, impressed by Eugeo's great determination and tells him that he has earned his respect, since no one has managed to surprise him the way he did, then Eugeo explains to Berkouly about the man who taught him the skills Despite the attack, it left Berkouli surprised, Admittedly not to let himself be beaten so easily, so Berkowley uses his muscles to try to break the ice sheet in which he is trapped, but Eugeo, seeing Berkowley begin to break free, immediately unleashed another secret capability of the Blue Rose Sword, known as The Power to Create Life, which is beginning to create several blue roses that have begun to grow outside the ice sheet , which began to absorb the life of both. With the fight almost over and both slowly weakening across the ice sheet, Berkowley recalls to Eugeo that, betting that he was older, would probably have less life than him, but Eugeo also mentions to Berkowley part of his past that he was born a man and reminds him who he really is, but although Berkouli tried to remember part of his past the only thing he manages to remember as he saw long ago the Sword of the Blue Rose and remorse for no reason to the Dragon Keeper of the Northern Cave, but Evgeus recalls that his memories were sealed by the cleric Major, Quinella. But despite the fact that Berkowley couldn't fully believe Eugeo, Eugeo admits that he had already begun to doubt the story he was told by Axiomy Church, however, and when the blue roses continued to absorb the energies of both and long before their deaths, Senator Chudelkin suddenly emerged and broke the power of the roses, he later accused Berkowley of not killing the rebellious fencing when he had the chance, but although Berkowley tried to argue with Chudelkin, the latter mentions that Quinella might want to reproach him and quickly turned Berkouly into a stone for his failure as Eugeo falls unconscious, it sees Chudelkin retreat from the room. 18.567.5 Re-build (AJ/NANA)[25 February 16, 2019 This special section summarizes all of several sections cast from the Aspiring Arc to the Ascending Arc. 1968 The Seal of the Right Hand (Migi me no Fin (右目封印)Shunsuke IshikawaYukito Kidzawa[26 February 23, 2019 Ask Kirito and Alice still sit outside the 85th floor of the Axiom church, where Kirito tells Alicia more about her past, though the latter does not fully remember him. He also explains that the cleric major, Quinella, is actually a plot and why the creatures of the Dark Territory begin to enter, during the conversation Alice also mentions, that knights of integrity, especially Captain Berkouly, began to doubt his work as such and above all what was really happening, and because Quinella doubted each of them also mentions that she began to recall some of her memories among them. , where Kirito recalls that she was still waiting for Alice's return to the people of Rutida. Alice later asks Kirito to stop being Alice, Knight of Integrity wants to know her hometown, so Kirito remembers that she promises her. At the end of the conversation, Alice decides to defect as a Knight of Integrity to protect the Human Empire, but just when Alice mentions it, she suddenly begins to feel severe pain in her right eye, where the system alert seal, Code 871, appears, being the same stamp that used to appear in Eugeo, Kirito, seeing what was happening, while at the same time discovering the reason why Eugeo's eye exploded the last time she encountered Rayos and Humbert at the academy, she quickly asks calm down because if she had kept thinking about it, the eye would have exploded, then Alice asks Kirito if the person who put this seal in her right eye was Quinella, but Quinella replies that this is not the case and believes the creators of Underworld were responsible for it and it only intensifies when someone tries to go against Axion Church , then Alice with all the power that she herself is no one's puppet and that to ensure the peace of the Human Empire she will fight Quinella and the creators of Underworld, then Alice asks Kirito to hold her tight, as she is determined to break the seal by any means and as happened to Eugeo last time Alice's Right Eye explodes, breaking the seal. Meanwhile, Eugeo wakes up on the 100th floor of the cathedral after his bout with Berkowley and is in Quinella's room, he approaches her with the intention of stabbing her in sleep with a dagger cardinal surrendered her, but a mysterious voice tells Eugeo to go and run away, but unfortunately Quinella wakes up and discovers Eugeo , she tells him she is sorry for the situation eugeo found himself in and recalls that he's always alone. Taking advantage of Eugeo's weakness, Quinella takes off his clothes and is completely naked in front of Eugeo and sedates him, saying that if he gives it his all, she will reward him with all her love, so lougeo ended up easily getting into Quinella's spell. When Quinella begins to seal all his memories, he asks Eugeo to read the words: Remove core protection to begin the synthesis ritual. 2069 Synthesis (㊦㊦ Satoshi SagaTakuma SuzukiYukito Kidzawa[27 March 2, 2019 After many difficulties Kirito and Alice manage to reach the balcony on the 96th floor and have time to return to the interior of the Axiom Church, where Kirito was forced to carry the unconscious Alice after she broke the seal of her right eye where she managed to climb to other floors with her between her shoulders - although Alice thanks him for healing from an eye wound and placing a patch on it - as well as for risking his life and holding him to reach that floor, however he immediately beats him, filling his uniform with sweat. Analyzing where Eugeo might be, Kirito decides to find the sword of Eugeo, which is on the 95th floor. Kirito and Alice arrive at the site and find the remains left fighting between Eugeo and Captain Berkouly, while Kirito receives the Blue Pink Sword of frozen Eugeo on the ground. Alice for her part finds her fellow Knight of Integrity and master, Captain Berkouli, petrified in stone Through that Senator Chudelkin petred him for being unable in his mission to stop rebel tencers, however, Captain Berkouly manages to move a little and tell Kirito above all else that his friend Eugeo has earned his respect in battle for his strong determination, and also tells Alicia that he is proud of her for having managed to break the seal of his right ear - which he never managed to break in his 200 years of service and urges Kirito to take care of Alice - and also tells them to hurry up, as Eugeo was brought before Quinella by Senator Chudelkin and they should save him before it's too late. Kirito and Alice subsequently reach the 98th floor, where they meet heads that appear when someone doesn't follow any of the Taboo indexes tucked into the capsules, where Alice mentions that they were in fact governors of each of the Underworld regions and then arrive at the room of Senator Chudelkin, who at the time spied on Quinella's synthesis ritual from Eugeo - then he is surprised by Kirito and AlI where the latter requires you to know where Eugeo is located, and also requires that he petrified Captain Berkouli, but Chudelkin begins to annoy Alice, revealing to him all that she left before becoming a Knight of Integrity, where she refused to do the ritual of Quinella's synthesis and how all her memories were taken away from her by force - but Alice ends up angry and his him with a sword in her stomach, however, Chudelkin creates a smoke curtain and manages to avoid them. Kirito and Alice are chasing him until they reach the 99th floor, where they finally lose sight of him, however both quickly face a knight of integrity who turns out to be nothing short of Evgeo himself, revealing that it is too late to save him from the ritual of synthesis, and now Kirito is forced to confront his best friend in the fight against the sword. Part 3: Alization Of Union No. in the original Japanese series of titles directed by Writer Reis. Initial broadcast date[6] 2170 Knight No. 32San J ni-banme no kishi (32番目騎士)Shunsuke NakashigeYukito Kizawa[28 March 9, 2019Kirito and Eugeo collided in a fierce sword battle in which both meet the authorities and skill, during a duel Kirito tries to get his friend to react and not forget where he came from and why he came from. - but Evgeus, influenced by Quinella's synthesis ritual, doesn't listen to him and continues to struggle, seeing Kirito almost cornered by Eugeo's abilities, Alice tells Kirito to help him in battle. However, Kirito asks Alice not to intervene in because this is something he must solve unattended, as they continue to fight Kirito continues to urge his friend not to forget the people who believed in him and not forget the promise he made, return to his village with his girlfriend Alice, at which point Eugeo begins to doubt his actions and lowers the sword and begins to remember the name Alice, who turns out to be the real name Alice. Just as Kirito let down his guard, Eugene strangely attacks him with the special ability of the sword and traps both Kirito and Alice in a dense ice sheet. With the fight, he retreats from the room, leaving Kirito and Alice on the ice. Back in Quinella's room, Eugeo removes a knight's integrity armor and tells Senator Chudelkin that he managed to detain the cardinal, Chudelkin asks if he took them down, but Eugeo tells him no, since Quinella ordered him to stop the rebels, so Chudelkin decides to go and take care of them personally and leaves the room. Quinella decides to go and take care of them personally and leaves the room. Quinella subsequently removes the control module she had previously put into the synthesis ritual, although Quinella recalls that the module he used in it was just an experimental prototype he had just created - but just as he was asking him to read the team he used again in the synthesis ritual to insert it again, Eugene surprisingly ureas against Quinella and tries to hit her dagger cardinal, but that quickly creates a barrier. During the struggle, there is a small burst of wind that pushes Eugeo back, falling in his attempt to hit her, on the other hand and as a result of the explosion, Quinella's clothes also end, leaving her completely naked. Quinella is surprised that Eugeo managed to regain consciousness so quickly and easily cheated on her, however she also mentions to Eugeo that her skin has some immunity to metal objects, this is the reason that the dagger didn't work out. Quinella offers Eugeo the opportunity to forgive him for trying treason, but provided he uses his sword and destroys the cardinal's dagger, however Eugeo refuses to do so and instead mentions he has no right to talk about love, as he practically enjoys people's pain and suffering to his own benefit. Faced with refusing to destroy the dagger, Quinella replies to Eugeo that it would be a pity to have to eliminate him, since he planned to save his life and that he might be able to use the ritual of force synthesis in it, just as he did with Alice in past, showing that Alice also refused to resuscitate the synthesis ritual, so Quinella asked automatic senators to deal with Alice for days to weaken her protection while Alice slept, Quinella inserted a force control module. With this revelation, Eugeo disengens and tries to attack her with her sword, but Quinella creates another barrier to defend herself, however Eugene manages to break the barrier, but quickly Quinella uses the sacred art of the wind and repels it, also deduces that the Sword of Eugeo is not made of metal. Suddenly, Senator Chudelkin appears asking for help after as Eugeo learned that Eugeo had suffocated them as Kirito and Alice managed to break free from the ice sheet and climb into Quinella's room, Eugeo apologizes to Kirito and Alice for attacking them before, but Kirito tells him he doesn't need to, as he's brought out Eugeo's plan from the start - then Quinella is surprised by that that they go so far and also discovers that Alice managed to break the seal of her right ear , a seal that even Quinella hasn't managed to break in more than 200 years and believes that the only reason Alicia managed to break it was because of Kirito's influence rather than a sudden emotional outburst and decides to make analytics throughout to learn more , he later asks Chudelkin to take care of the three rebels However, Chudelkin says Quinell is happy to sacrifice his life to take them down, but in return asks him to grant him one wish, spend a night of dreams with Quinella, so Quinella replies to Chudelkin to consider his request, never mind that the loss of Chudelkin uses the sacred art of fire and creates a giant Golem of Fire, Kirito, Eugeo and Alice. 2271 Titan of the Sword (Ken no Kyōjin (剣王)Hiroyuki KimuraMunemas Nakamoto[29 On March 16, 2019 Reaching the events of the previous chapter, Chudelkin creates a giant Golem fire, quickly begins to fight Kirito, Eugeo and Alice, who cannot repel attacks that Golem fire throws at them, during the confrontation Kirito and Eugeo manage to create a counterattack strategy in which Alice mentions Kirito and Eugeo that the only way to attack Chudelkin directly, so Alice tells him she only distracts Golem from the fire for about 10 seconds, so that both Kirito and Eugeo will have only one chance to attack Chudelkin, although she also warns them not to get too close, as she could stop them, Alice uses the special ability of her sword to create Golem from the fire, while Eugeo launches an attack with sacred art Quinella is to distract her and distract Chudelkin's attention, a period that Kirito uses to harvest the special ability of his black sword, from which he still doesn't think about the name and manages to fatally hit Chudelkin, leaving him out of battle and at the same time his Golem fire is fading. With a clear path of Chudelkin and Golem Fire, Kirito, Eugeo and Alice now confront Quinella directly, who in turn reveals to Alicia and Eugeo the truth about Kirito and that he doesn't really belong to the Underworld, but is actually a real person, although Kirito admits that what Quinella says is true - he tells him that the Creators of the Underworld have watched them, and that if they want to " so that it can make everything Underworld erased when you press a button, but Quinella admits that she doesn't care in the slightest as her sole purpose is to manage Underworld and eliminate anyone who gets behind the zamistical of her plans and that while she is not a real person, she won't follow any orders - not even from the Creators of the Underworld, further shows that for her knights of integrity than puppets to buy something time so she can perfect her best weapon and tells the three that they will have the privilege of being the first to see their maximum creation. Quinella quickly uses the experimental module he had in his hand and creates a giant sword monster known as Golem swords, quickly Alice tries to attack Golem with swords, but he resists attacking Alice and quickly stabs her seriously in the chest, Kirito also tries to attack him, but he only gets Golem to stab him gravity and brutally crashes into a wall - but just as Golem swords were preparing to give him the final blow, the spider cardinal unexpectedly intervenes. Despite her efforts, To protect them, Charlotte doesn't match Golem's swords and ends up being killed, but in the midst of her agony asking Eugeo to use a dagger so she can kill the cardinal, Eugeo uses a dagger to summon the door from which the cardinal appears and repels the powerful lightning of Quinella's Golem Swords and treats Kirito and Alice So now all 4 prepare to face Quinella. 2372 Administrator Hirokata Tokuday 2-suke Maruyama Michira ItabashiYukito Kidzawa[30 March 23, 2019 Kirito, Eugeo, Cardinal and Alice have reunited in preparation to face Quinella now that they are outperforming her, however Quinella has already planned that it will happen and was waiting for the perfect moment for her, finally he would come out of hiding, so Quinella in the sly play uses sacred art to seal the entire 100th floor of his room and destroys the exit door so none of them can escape from this place, in the middle of Quinella's words calling the cardinal by his real name, Laeiris, and recalls that 200 years ago he let her escape when he could eliminate it - but that this time he wouldn't do the same mistake - but the cardinal replies that he will not dare call her by his real name, as her only goal is to take her down, besides she reminds Quinella that she now no longer has any knight of integrity or others fighting for her, and that they now surpass her 4 versus 1 , however Quinella replies that she is very wrong since suddenly Golem swords rises again - having received an attack that the cardinal had previously launched on her and mentions that she actually has 300 fight for her. Not knowing what she's talking about, Kirito deduces that 300 actually people Quinella sacrificed to create Golem swords, after that revelation, the cardinal and others are surprised by the kind of evil that it can become, but Quinella mentions to them that it's only enough for her to exist creates she can control, and she doesn't care in the slightest sacrifice of the human beings of her world and that she has enough to be fully loyal to her , she also reveals that her Golem swords are hardly the first prototype she created, and that to mass produce other perfect versions she will need to sacrifice more than half of the 80,000 people of the underground Human Empire and thus conquer the invasion of the Dark Territory and subsequently attack the real world. Alice immediately asks Quinella about where all the owners of the 30 swords that make up Golem and, above all, the dreams and hopes of each of them, Quinella responds, saying that the answer is in front of her and that Eugeo already knows when they look up they bring out that the crystals on the ceiling are actually all memories of the knights of integrity and the people she sacrificed and that Golem moves only by where's Quinella tells the cardinal that, although Golem swords people are transformed into weapons, the cardinal will not be able to destroy it without risking killing the people trapped by this monster, the cardinal admits that Quinella is right and that he has spent the past 200 years preparing a spell to take her down - but all her efforts have been in vain, so the cardinal decides to accept her defeat and offers a deal Quinell in which she will give her life in return for spare , Eugeo and Alice's life. Quinella takes The cardinal and as soon as he has done away with it, let Kirito, Eugeo and Alice leave the scene, Quinella quickly pulls out his sword and begins firing dark rays of electricity at the cardinal, though instead of killing her quickly, the cardinal starts firing more rays non-stop and begins torturing her over and over again. Kirito tries to intervene, but the cardinal asks him not to interfere, so both Kirito and Eugeo and Alice can do nothing, but to observe helplessness as Quinella's torture finally decides to give the cardinal a final hit and take it off and all, cutting off her left leg in the process. As Quinella finishes her torture, Kirito and Alice approach the dying cardinal, and she tells them they can still save the entire Underworld from the evil hands of Quinella, while Eugeo hears again the same voice I had previously heard and discovers that he comes from one of the memories that are on the roof and called him - finally deciding to ask the dying cardinal to turn him into a sword , just as Quinella did to create it golem as he knows that even if Quinella keeps his word let them go, she will sacrifice each of the people of the Underworld and won't let it happen, so Eugeo uses spells :Remove core protection to begin with, Cardinal takes eugeo request and passes some of his information to him for a start , but before starting, he warns Kirito and Alice that metal weapon does not affect Quinella, since when I try to use a metal dagger cardinal he did not work with it. Then Eugeo merges with her sword and one of the crystal memories that turns out to be Alice's original memories; she was the one who called both him and Kirito throughout this time and led them on their journey. Quinella, seeing that they were planning on trying to take down Eugeo, before the merger is complete, but Alice intervenes and repels her attack, however Quinella uses the sacred art of fire and easily defeats Alice, but finally the merger is complete and Eugeo turns into a giant sword rather than according to that Quinella orders her Golem swords to kill them all - however Eugeo's determination turns out to be more powerful than Golem Quinella and manages to repel as the fierce battle between Golem Swords and Eugeo transforms into a sword unfolds, on the other hand and unfortunately the cardinal eventually dies in Kirito's arms, but before he dies, he asks him to protect the entire Underworld and his people - the cardinal disappears into the air. Finally, Eugeo manages to destroy Quinella's swords once and for all and for all and now decides to attack him directly, but the complete clash of power, the sword on which Eugeo became , begins to break down, but even with all this he manages to destroy Quinella's sword and at the same time cut off his right hand when the fusion fades Kirito looks as horrifying as Eugeo's body in this match in half, but his sword creates a small layer of ice above him and subsequently breaks down.
