Travel and Vacation Security during covid-19 As we all prepare for a holiday season that promises to be unlike any other, we urge you to stay safe and take care of your families, friends and yourself. With COVID-19 cases adhering across the country, including here in Maine and New Hampshire, it will be especially important to follow safety practices at any gathering — masking, social distancing, handwashing, etc. — and to comply with any travel restrictions that might apply to your plans. Do not travel if you have symptoms of COVID-19 or if you have been around anyone who has had symptoms or a known diagnosis. Keep in mind that travel or guest reception from certain states can trigger quarantine or testing requirements. The covid response page Maine.gov page and the covid response page from New Hampshire.gov contain the most up-to-date information on these travel issues and more. The CDC COVID Data Tracker also contains state-by-state data on COVID-19. For the safest holidays, we invite you to plan to limit the gatherings to those with whom you normally live. Whether you gather in person or online, we hope you can enjoy the company of those who bring meaning and joy to these annual celebrations! We're here to help you stay informed and healthy. We understand that the situation at COVID-19 can be a cause for concern. You can rest assured that we are working closely with health care agencies and government agencies to follow the most current recommendations for the detection and treatment of COVID-19 cases. Staying informed and following recommendations can help reduce anxiety. As the situation evolves, we are committed to providing you with the up-to-date information and advice you need to help you and our community stay healthy. Healthy.
