May 30, 2020, at a courtmeeting ceremony, due to the global pandemic. Max and I ♪ on May 30th!!! ☺ it was truly one of the most magical days of my life. Throughout the day I felt so full of joy and peace in my life. ♡, they're sathing pictures on Instagram. Our wedding ceremony ended because we were much different than the picture. Due to the global pandemic, we could only invite a small number of our guests to the ceremony and we had to postpone our welcome. But that didn't stop us from having such a special and beautiful day. Catherine continued. When you need to return too many things from your original picture, it reminds you of what is really important. More and more I were very grateful for all the special moments I shared that day. ♡ I believe that we have raised awareness of the gratefulness and happiness that changes how much things change – a reminder that is most important. Our wedding was massive, we went back to my parents' house, had our first dance in their backyard, cut a mini cake and had a celebrating dinner. It was small, in-court and perfect. It was a special day and I really could not ask for much. So thankful we've still got to get married, and I'm so happy to call my husband more and more now!!! ☺ i love it ♡ much more, he added.
