Willamette give guide

Give! A guide photo taken by Willamette WeekBy Emma GrayFriends trees is pleased to announce that we have been selected for Willamette Week Give! Guide again, who goes live TODAY! Selection is a competitive process, and our inclusion testifies to the passion and energy of each of our sponsors. A HUGE thank you also comes out for all Willamette Week to highlight the vital importance of philanthropy and generously supporting so many nonprofit organizations in such an active way. This year Friends of trees is one of 100 nonprofit organizations highlighted by Give! A guide that not only promotes the mission of each non-profit organization, but also offers fantastic incentives to everyone who donates. You give, you get! Without the generous incentives that Willamette Week again offers, we are happy to announce some incentives only for you, our friends of the tree family. Let's really hit the ground running! The first person who donates $500 to friends trees through Give! The guide will receive an overnight stay at the famous Jupiter Hotel and a bottle of premium Sineann Pinot Noir wine. The first three people who donated $250 to friends trees during Give! Head will receive two (2) tickets for the regular 2012 season of the Timbers home game and tree friends t-shirts! And as a thank you to every person who donates by midnight on December 18, your name will be entered to win our TREE-MENDOUS gift basket, full of edges with all the good things that grow on trees! (value of more than $100) Please consider donating friends to trees during Willamette Week Give! Guide and help us fund the amazing work we are doing with you to bring communities together to plant trees and make our world a greener, cleaner, healthier place to live and grow!-Gray is a Gift Tree & Membership Service specialist friends of trees. Guide non-profit organisations are elected annually by a select committee composed of the community. All G! G non-profit organizations must have 501 (c)3 status and do work that affects the Portland area. We strive to involve various organisations in the categories of animal, civil and human rights, community, creative expression, education, environment, health and human services. Approximately one third of the selected non-profit is brand new give! G 2+ years. Give! Guide non-profit organisations are elected annually by a select committee composed of the community. All G! G non-profit organizations must have 501 (c)3 status and do work that affects the Portland area. We strive to involve various organisations in the categories of animal, civil and human rights, community, creative expression, education, environment, health and human services. About a third of the selected nonprofit organizations are brand new give! The manager (defined as absent from the last three years), a third is a second-year non-profit organization (the second year guaranteed for new non-profit organizations), and the final third is made up of a veteran non-profit organization that participated in G! G 2+ years. Our goal is to raise $50,000 for our patients. We are happy to count on generous support from new and returning partners to help us get there: Our friends at Casa Bruno Wines will match the first $5,000 in donations to Virginia Garcia. Bob's Red Mill will give you and the patient a free product when you give $100+ and they match all gifts ranging from 12/25 and up to $5,000. • Por Qué No? Taqueria will give you a free taco when you give $25+ and match gifts of $50 and $100, up to $1500, on GivingTuesday. At the same time, we will continue to provide high-quality healthcare to those who need it most. Willamette week give! The guide is Portland's easiest path to the end of the year to give. G! G demonstrates small, medium and large organisations whose missions are divided into eight categories: Animals, Civil and Human Rights, Community, Creative Expression, Education, Environment, Health and Human Services. Last year WW readers gave $4.8 million to 150 local organizations and the Oregon Cultural Trust. This year, Portland's nonprofit organizations are experiencing disruptions and changes at an unprecedented rate. At the same time, demand for their applications and services has increased. Any help you can give this year's efforts will be very appreciated. For many years, Willamette Week Give! The manager chose the Oregon Food Bank as one of the organizations in the category Human Services. Over the past few years, Oregon Food Bank has landed in the top 10 non-profit for the amount collected because your support ends in hunger in our community! Why give too give! Guide? Incentives! Give any of these levels and you'll get $4,000+ worth of free and discounted products from your favorite Portland brands. Your Chinook Book access code will be delivered to your e-mail account immediately after the gift. In other news: The Laws vacancies. Itzel Chavez Gomez is changing the way Oregon's leadership looks. Only today can your gift bring you closer to the Oregon pinot noir event. This urgent need for a cure. Nowhere more so than this city. Give them to these deserving nonprofits. You represent more donors and business partners than we've ever had. Hda.
