It was featured on Diners, Drive-ins, and Dives so we had to try it! It was good to go we had to go back the next day and try more!... On the first day we tried two meat combos. We had beef and quarter chicken with candied yam, mac and cheese, and corn bread! It was delicious! The next day we went back to dinner and this time we got three meat combos — ribs, pulled pork, and hot links with mac and cheese, green beans, and bread. We also had to try Peach cobbler! Waiting for orders, one of the men came out and waited a sample of ribs to everyone. It was the best rib I've ever had — no exaggeration. When we got inside our food we got to meet the owner - he was so friendly and funny - the whole staff was really exceptional. We told them that tomorrow we will be going back to Ohio so we had to stop one last time before we left and they gave us a sample of rib tips with an extra peach cobbler and bread! We had so much for two people and it was only $21! If you travel to Las Vegas, skip the high-priced meal on the strip and visit John Mull's Meet & Road Kill Grill – you won't regret it! And this! much
