Celebrities share their favorite memories of Barbie Steve Granitz/WireImage.com Barbie turns 50 this year, and to celebrate, celebrities share their favorite moments with the doll. We want to hear from you too: What is your most affectionate barbie memory? 1 of 12 Leeza Gibbons I lived in a house of three levels. And I remember coming down on Christmas morning and my mom was playing with the whole barbie set that Santa had left me. My little sister, who is eight years younger than me, always wanted to play with me. Well, what can I be? What Barbie can I be? (she would ask). And finally I had enough, so I said, 'Okay, you can be my assistant.' 2 of 12 Billy Bush Barbie, you and I used to play together. It was one of those clandestine relationships that I didn't want anyone to know about. 3 of 12 Illeana Douglas Mine is funny. Well, it's kind of sad. When I was growing up in the '70s, my parents were hippies, and they didn't want me to have dolls and stuff like that. So I used to go to my friends' house and pay with their Barbies, but then they would always have to go away and I wouldn't have one alone. 4 of 12 Michelle Kwan Barbie has become an artistic skating doll. And I cut her hair, too. My sister, Karen, and I just did these skating moves with him. She did spirals, what we do on ice. Especially in a big position, and then she would make these dual axes. 5 of 12 Victoria Justice I had a full-size Barbie. And one day I thought it would be really cool to cut all her hair and give her a make-up, and my mom got really mad at me and we had to sell it at a garage sale because she was basically ruined. Happy 50th birthday, Barbie. 6 of 12 Lisa Edelstein Waited two years for a Miss America Barbie Doll, and she never came. Finally I wrote a very angry letter, and held that furious letter for two years - which really says something about me - and they sent me one. 7 of 12 Debi Mazar My first Barbie dolls all had haircuts. And Magic Marker makeup and rusty limbs because they all used to have wire on them. So I have a memory of all my Barbie dolls basically being broken and punk. 8 of 12 Neal McDonough I was ken's voice in the rapunzel video. So I have a very dear place, dear in my heart to Ken. And obviously my daughter, Catherine. Barbie, happy 50th birthday, thank you for all the great memories. 9 of 12 Kevin Sorbo My sister took some of my G.I. Joe dolls and dressed them in on clothes, and I was not very happy about it. So I took one of her Barbie dolls and put her on a firecracker bed. And I tied and blew Barbie into billions of pieces. So here I am telling a descendant of that 1971 Barbie: I'm sorry, I' two sisters. And they had about 40 Barbie dolls and huge Barbie dolls and all the rest. And my action men were turned into Ken Barbie, you and I are the same age and I have to say that you are aging much better. Happy 50th. Next Barbie is doing 50 years! You may be able to find more information about this and similar content on piano.io This is a doll I made my own pattern I did it for my mom who loved it. She's beautiful! Is this a pattern you can share? It reminds me sarah of the maze, just stunning:) Very Nice Job! classify it as a 10Vo you did a beautiful job. I love her Pulling the Strings and She will Dance moving hand and legs up and down...:) Kids always enjoy... Dolls making sound or one that has some moves... Let's do one with things around us... Straw, Thread, Paper Clip, Plastic Spoon, Pencil, Card/Thermocol/Polystyrene, Cello Tape, Glue and Thermocol Cutter. - Three popsive sticks- Two googly glued eyes or tape know this doesn't make sense, but I tried with my brother and it worked. Now try to make fabric clothes for you doll so that the person you want to give will be happy battered star! My brother came all this way with his doll, he even introduced these dolls to his little friends. They all have one! (My brother likes it with one eye) Participated in Crafting 101 Spruce Crafts uses cookies to provide a great user experience. By using Spruce Crafts, you accept the use of cookies. Cookies.
