The word of the poem begins with the letters of the word, which makes this funny, unique poetry for children. The illustration below is an example of an acrostic poem. Think of a word theme and write it vertically in uppercase letters. For young writers, start with 3-4 words. Example: OWL Brainstorm words and phrases for each letter that describe your theme. Consider nouns, verbs, adjectives, and adverbs depending on your child's ability. Encourage the use of a children's dictionary to find words that may be related to the topic. Your children can learn some vocabulary skills in the process. Example: during the night tree inherently belowalso it is also concerning that not all these words refer to owls. Sometimes you need to creatively combine words when there is no obvious word to describe the topic. Select words and phrases next to the letters they start with. Here is another example of an acrostic poem about an owl. Using different words from the brainstorm, I changed some verb counters and added new words to make longer phrases that flowed together better. This is where word play gets fun. Acrostics is a fun poetic form that anyone can write. They have only a few simple rules, and this lesson will teach you how to create your own acrostic poems. For starters, acrostic is a poem in which the first letters of each line spell a word or phrase. A word or phrase can be a name, something, or whatever you want. When children write acrostics, they often use their first name, or sometimes a friend's first name. Typically, the first letter of each line is capitalized. This makes it easy to display the word written vertically down the page. Acrostics is easy to write, because you do not need to rhyme, and you do not need to rhyme. acrostic, follow these five easy steps: Decide what to write about. Write your word vertically. Mind-boggling words or phrases on the lines that start with the same letters. Fill in the remaining lines to create a poem. Now let me show you how to follow these steps. The first step is to decide what you want to write an acrostic poem about. I recommend you start by writing an acrostic based on your name or your favorite thing, whatever happens. It doesn't matter if your favorite thing is football, video games, chocolate, music, pizza, movies or something else. Acrostic ice cream For example, I especially like ice cream, so I decided to write an acrostic for ice cream. Start by writing the word ICE CREAM on this path: I C E C R E A M Next, you want to say something about ice cream in each row. A good way to do this is to brainstorm a lot of ideas. I wrote a list of all the flavors ice creams I could think of, including chocolate chips, strawberry, rocky road and more. Then I put them on a list, anywhere, like this: Ice cream I cookies & amp; quot; Cream & amp have not filled in all the lines. That's because I couldn't think of a taste that started with Me, and I thought of just one taste that started with E. I also thought I'd do something different with the last line to make it end for the poem instead of just one taste. Finally, I filled out the missing lines, like this: Ice cream I love every taste. Cookies & amp; quot; Cream & amp; quot; Crea Acrostics homework In addition to writing about things you like, like ice cream, you can write acrostics about things you don't like. For example, if you do not like homework, you can try to write a poem about it. Start by writing the word HOMEMADE down the page: HOMEWOR KNext, brainstorm as many words and phrases as you can think of. Here are some I came up with: Reading for hours. Writing. It's not my favorite. Every day. I'd rather watch TV. - It drives me crazy. Vast. It's hard to do. Note that some of these words and phrases start with the letters in the word homework. I put those where I saw that would go: Homework hard to do Overwhelming, M Every day Writing O Reading for hours. K finally found a way to fill in the remaining words and even give it to the end. Here's the finished acrostic: Work diligent to do, and sometimes overwhelmingly, My teacher gives us homework every day! Write for hours or read for hours. The kids need a break! A Mining Acrostic here is another acrobatic poem that I recently created with the help of children from all over the country during an online visit to the author: Minecraft Minecraft. - No, no doubt about it. Study, build, combat creeping, zombies and skeletons. I've been running around for hours. Fun time for everyone! The things to remember here are a few things to remember when you start writing your own acrostics: Acrostiques can be about anything! Names are a common topic. Try writing one using your best friend's name and giving it to him or her as a gift. You can use single words, phrases, or even full sentences in your acrostic poem. Finally, remember, acrostic poems are one of the easiest and most fun ways to create your own poems. Try to see what you can come up with. Worksheet
