No face anime movie

Picture: Walt Disney Pictures, Pixar Animation Studios There are so many great animated movies out there. Whether you're clinging to the greats of your childhood, or falling in love with the new animated films that come out every year, you know these movies can be as complex and interesting as the award-winning live-action movies available on the market (heck, some of the animated movies are more oscar-worthy and oscar-worthy than the live action movies that actually win these awards). While you might know quite a bit about the animated movies that came out, there's more to them than plots, characters, and songs. As a matter of fact, these movies become part of you. You learn from the characters; you imagine how the characters; you hate the bad guys. These movies are not just entertainment for you, they become your life. If I were an animated film, what would it be? Would he be everyone's best friend? A part of the circle of life? An adventurer who doesn't know when to tell his curiosity to calm down? Take time to answer these questions and we'll tell you which animated movie you're based on your personality. CURIOSITY Can you name these family-friendly movies from the 1990s?
