Evening and weekend meetings on the program once a week: class meetings once a week a week exams, data in normal class time. Saturday evening and weekend program Saturday classes: Classes on Saturday will be given exams by regular class on Saturday, May 2, 2020. NOTES: Until Monday, May 4, 2020, no definitive examination is provided. All assessments must be held at the Registrar's Office by 17:00.M Monday, May 11, 2020. The exam period for all college lending classes is two hours. It is the duty of the student to resolve conflicts in the scheduled final exams by working with instructors participating before the final exam. When determining the date of the final exam, classes that correspond first refers to the usual academic week (Monday to Friday). If a final exam is carried out, it will be administered during the exam, as planned above by the university registrar. Final exams may be given at a different time than the regularly scheduled time in the following cases: Faculty: In case of conflicts or unlawful difficulties for an individual instructor, the final exam may be rescheduled on the recommendation of the head of the department and in the amount of the dean of the college and the registrar of the university. Students: Any student with more than two final exams assigned to any one date is eligible to have an exam for the class with the highest catalog number. In case this largest number is divided into more than one course, the one whose departmental prefix will initially be rescheduled alphabetically. The ability to transfer must be carried out in writing to the scheduled examination. If the conflict of the exam schedule is created by the faculty of exam redevelopment, the student has the right to take the rescheduling of the exam at other times during the exam period by mutual consent with the instructor. In case of unlawful difficulties for an individual student, the final exam may be rescheduled by an instructor. With the exception of colleges of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, the above schedule of final exams applies to all colleges of the University. Determine the time of the final exam for a course that corresponds at a different time than a regular MWF or TR meeting pattern (for example, MWF 8:30 a.m. - 9:20 a.m. or TR 10:20 a.m. - 11:35 a.m.), the start time of the course will be treated as an appointment at the beginning of this hour (for example, 8:00 a.m., m or 10:00 have the same number, the one whose departmental prefix will initially be rescheduled. This must be requested by the relevant instructor in writing at least two weeks prior to the scheduled examination. Fall 2020 Note for autumn 2020: Due to the uniqueness of this semester planning and appointment room, please keep in mind the following: If the class is scheduled either in NIP 320 or NIP 920, our office will assume that the final should be scheduled there as well. If you need to make changes, please let our office know by October 2, 2020. If the class is scheduled to meet on campus, our office will assume that the final one is planned on campus as well. If you need to make changes, please let our office know by October 2, 2020. The number of seats is limited! There are only four rooms on campus that can accommodate a capacity of more than 80. Please keep this in mind when planning major finals and request space. Autumn 2020 Final exams begin: Tuesday, December 19, 2020 Select Monday evening classes will be scheduled for final exam on Monday, December 14, 2020 Final exams begin: Tuesday, May 5, 2020 The last day of final exams: Saturday, May 9, 2020 *Select Monday evening classes will be scheduled for the final exam on Monday, May 4, 2020. In some cases (e.g. group exams consisting of multiple sections of classes), the matrix is not respected and the official exam schedule will be different from the proposed matrix table below. Students are advised to check final exam dates and time with their instructors before arranging travel plans at the end of the semester. Classes that do not adhere to these standard matrix times are considered nonblocks, with exam dates and time for these classes defined by the school/college offering the course. Some highly used non-Blocks will occasionally be included in the exam matrix, where it is beneficial for student planning. For more information, including those surrounding the proctoring exam, please review the Final Exam Policy. Please note: in all cases, the time of the final exam on the student's level is correct.
