To make this guide really stand out, I suggest you add a brief introduction to the guide as more information becomes available because I feel that many players will find this go-to resource guide to find the equipment of the heiness. Thanks for the hard work you've put into creating this guide! EDIT to ADD: The add-ons that have been introduced to this guide are spectacular! Tables and maps are not only helpful, but are presented in a logical way, which makes everything very easy to find. 5/5 Stars from me :) Top-notch guide, really well done and formatted very nicely. All data is concise and easy to read. My only suggestion would be to add the seller's names and locations so people know where to get the items. Mainly because they don't all score from the same venue, and can be purches with gold/justice points/faire tickets/etc... Very nice and clean guide out there, but I'd like to add a little warning to the 1-85 versions of the weapon: On the L80, they still have their Anger stats and only scale to Cat's stats at 81, so basically, the weapon on the L80 will be much less effective than the first green weapon reward quest in Cata content. I think the same goes for other items, but the XP gain is worth more than a few stats on the way to the L81. Original post: I finally sent a new version of the guide, along with most of the sections that I originally wanted to include. A few sites are still under construction, hopefully they'll be over soon (not Blizzard As always, thank you for your support and I hope this guide was useful. ^_Suggestions are always 10/16/14: Updated guide with removal of justice points. There is a new Darkmoon Faire info that has not yet been specified because it has not yet been on live servers. You still need to look into guild memorabilia and their methods of unlocking. Edit 11/02/14:Guild information corrected. Added new Darkmoon Faire costs to the main lists (They added gold to version 1-85). The currency still needs work. Edition 11/05/14:I guess the cost of gold was unpopular enough blizzard removed it! Prices updated. Edit 2/25/15:Updated guide to reflect changes 6.1Edit 6/29/15:Updated guide with new souvenirs added in 6.2: Pristine Lightforge Breastplate, Pristine Lightforge Legplates, Captain Sander's Returning Master.Edit 20/09/15:Added Brewfest information for upgrade tokens. Edition 10/19/15:Added hall end information for upgrade tokens. Edition 2/4/17: A complete reorganization guide! Clean up and tighten the guide to focus clearly on souvenirs and bookmark souvenirs in with other souvenirs, they are all grouped together in the collection tab anywaysSeparated Vendor's list by type for easier navigation Included more information on updating souvenirsA holiday appendix infoDevice BoA tools from archaeology and BoA Timeless Isle Gear sections Edit 6/13/17:Added Weathered Heirloom Scabbard, and new toy flight trackEdit 8/30/17:Added Man'ari Training AmuletEdit 10/18/17: Fixed some outdated information and filled out missing tables. Also added a section about achievements (I can't believe I forgot, Iol). More updates will come! For all who keep asking, No, I'm not going to do a section and weight of statistics change too often. Keeping up-to-date data on 36 specifications is simply out of the scope of this guide. Beautiful guide, clean, tight and full of precise information for both beginners and old hands! I would just like to make the suggestion that if you have a chance, a detailed list of new glamorous policies and what spells are available with 5.4 would be very helpful as well. I'm actually looking for this, but your guide is heavily read for anyone looking for scheda information. Cheers! Just point out that Gear/Weapon heinesses (even Trinket) in Cataclysm zones (lv180-85) are usually slightly weaker than quest rewards. Also, the souvenirs will be very weak at the level of 80 - because they are still in WotLK mode (as opposed to Cata quest) and only scale up to cata levels of items at level 81. My health and tripled output damage once I have level 81, but going through level 80 in WotLK Memorabilia has a terrible... In general, to the extent that Cataclysm leveling goes, heirloom items are only slightly weaker than the green/blue quest rewards. loot for getting souvenirs soo element is one per week? Amazing list, thanks! Watch out for pandaria greens with iLv 390 that can be used by level 80 toon. True, the same iLv heroic cataclysm can be found on pandaria greens and be used in eighty toon. They are not that common, and will cost you a nice penny, but once you find them, you can plow through the contents of cataclysm one-shotting everything. Just make sure you cough up 2000 gold it usually costs on AH... There are more of them, like iLv 409 Pandaria greens available at level 81, and so on... You can tipping over the Greater Ox Horn inscription on the shoulders of the tank, and from 1-60, it's 11 Stam, 4 Dodge, from 61-70 to 15 Stam & amp; 5 Dodge, 71-80 to 30 Stam & amp; 10 Dodge, 81-85 to 75 Stam & amp; 25 Dodge, becoming a 300 Stam & and rout which ones best fit your play style. I went through spells on WoWhead comparing and contrasting and trying to determine the best blend of spells to use on scheda tools on different levels. I'm still in the process of this though, while looking for level 85 in the game to help me scale spells at all levels. Here it is: simplifies trying to figure out what spells are best for a given level. And the character may eventually be able to add a section for schedy enchants. Then after people get their souvenirs they can buy enchantment in advance for even more effective leveling. Early browsing tells me that Anger Spells are best up to level 71 and then after dinging 71 to use cata spells. It makes no sense to use Mists enchants as the tool heaps out stops at 85 and doesn't scale to Mists stats to 86. (Not counting so 90-100 scheda weapons.) Great guide, just one spelling mistake though.. When describing different types of items, you refer to the type next instead of the fourth. I'm sure he'll be looking for most of them.. Thanks for the guide. A lot of information, but one thing I was curious about. I was wondering where the models were for the items that Garrosh was dropping. I noticed that there is no any images. Where are the models for them? Them? if none, why aren't they still in WoWhead? I would like to add that BoA elements can now be sent to any form in the account, even to the cross area. Just send them to the following format: character-realmThis will save you a lot of money and JP's I'm thinking.. Great work on the guide. The question, however. Whether we are able to get souvenirs from Garrosh with an extra roll or do not work similarly to titanium runestones and have nothing to do with coins. (Like the legendary mission items you had the opportunity to receive, but you couldn't roll.) Confirmed that they are not awarded with additional rolls. I asked Rossi on Wowinsider the same question, and he said you can. They have fallen by 100% after 6.0 drops, but before Warlords of Draenor is released on November 13, 2014. Does heirloom equipment work by Ivl 85 or just to hit 85? Edit: I just found the information online. After ding 80 or 85 (depending on the run) xp bonus stops. Great list! :) I wish I didn't know it was years ago. The other day, a Level 11 magician called me to a duel. The character was wearing this ugly purple outfit. I hate purple. The magician kicked my ass probably geared up by The Memento, as mentioned here. I was so angry, I cursed at everyone that day with the worse kind of language ever. I almost got a heart attack. Thanks for passing the word. I wish I didn't know it was years ago. The other day, a Level 11 magician called me to a duel. The character was wearing this ugly purple outfit. I hate purple. I was at level 17 Mag, 6 levels of difference. I was so angry, I cursed at everyone that day with the worse kind of language ever. I almost got a heart attack. Thanks for passing the word. What is it like to wear the same outfit from 1 to 80 levels? It would be nice if they had diversity. Oh, I mentioned that I hate purple. hmmm, it says you can cross the mail sphere, but it seems that it is not able to do it. I tried to send an email from my worgen on Mannoroth to my night elf on Vek'Nilash, but it didn't work.... Is there any way to proceed? I want to know please someone ... Can you add a section for glamorous BoAs? I tried to find out what are the best spells for heirs. With. Holy smokes - thank you very much for your hard work, making it! you can perform 11 basic competitions in DMF, monthly lock resets allows you to choose a quest again with them every 44 instead of 8 if you survive grinding having to abandon them and lift them back to 75. Edit: Wow, downvotes, however this information is useful if someone is fighting for some extra tickets, I used this guide to see how much mat I need cultivated them and then completed each profession twice (first month and then the following month) to prove that this is actually true so far The difficulty is getting the collection skills to 75 (easier now with draenor lifting the restriction) if you saved the mats in front of the hand just to do specific crafts and you're good to go. I've only done this twice mentioned, I have enough character to get all the tickets I need, please take your time and carefully read before downvoting something that might be useful to someone else. I created a spreadsheet to track which souvenirs I own and which ones are updated can be useful to someone else. Here's: How long have there been souvenirs for our alts and Saints Paladins yet to rely on shaman armor? I don't see anything like Pristine Lightforge Spaulders as an excuse for plate armor from Int. These items should be free of charge. More like when you create a new character you get an email from Blizzard with all the items for your character and go level up notes. Thank you for sharing this list. Very insuchant. He helped me decide which souvenirs to buy and how much to save earlier. Great guide! My question is: does anyone know what, if any, happens to BoA tokens after 6.0 and/or WoD? since most BOA's are available at Darkmoon Faire, any chances of shields being added there also?and I know a few people who don't run rallies and dungeons who are wondering about it. Great guide! Suffice it to say, with regard to the position level requirements - referring to heirs of ilvl 1, They removed the limitation of sebaceous on the dungeons Cataclysm (Or considers souvenirs appropiate ilvl for their level for LFG purposes, the information is not clear on which), so the section about it causes problems with entering the dungeons after 85 can be improved. My last few alts, the only problem they had was not being able to enter the trial of champion in the Northrend :) Can anyone tell me how to send a BoA item from xxx to emerald dream kingdom (ENG) to YYY on pozzo dell'eternità (ITA) sphere? Is it possible or not? I hope to find the answer... nothing to level 85-90 as a shaman reinforcement? From 6.0, souvenirs now have a scale item level. Just mention that you can complete all 11 basic professions in dmf each month. The tasks are based on the profession (does not count the number of basic quest professions you have done), so dropping out of the profession and taking the next do job is possible to get 44 instead of 8 on the basic, and next month all these reset. Saving content for each month is the only difficulty you might have if someone wants to try it out. I did it once to prove it was correct and reset my tasks problem, do not continue repeating because I stood with the professions I wanted I just tested if it was possible. What about shields? I have a quick comment, you say: When your character passes this limit, they no longer benefit from the increase in experience, and the statistics no longer benefit from the increase. Actually, when you hit a cap that is 80 or 85 xp gain stops, not after hitting 81 or 86. Anyone knowe know shields? if PVP resili items are worth the heck more? I mean, immunity exists only on objects, and not as a stat you can oversmou a mouse on your character. Is this really something more for us? Re:When using the 1-85 version of the memorabilia, once you reach level 80 you still have your Fox King's Wrath stats and only scale to Cataclysm stats at 81. Cataclysm content has a sharp increase in mob difficulty, you may need to decide between stronger hardware for one level or increasing xp. In particular, a level 80 commemorative weapon will be much less effective than your first green weapon is minimal, and the commemorative weapon is more powerful in relation to it. I have no idea if this is true, but I hear that with the Souvenir Collection? Can anyone confirm this because I spent over an hour reading various sources and I can't find a mention of it anywhere. If true, gg to create a completely useless collection ... Especially at lower levels these spells are so powerful that no convenience can convince me to make a decision about using argent Tournament currency to purchase sourch is unavailable to purchase anything until the player has earned the Exalted Argent Champion Alliance/Horde (which takes a long time). I made the mistake of making these diaries for about a week and enough hero seals to buy a souvenir, but I didn't realize that I couldn't even buy it until I was an exalted champion. So now I have all this currency that is useless to me for getting hierlooms unless I'm willing to commit to the next few weeks of logs at this point. If you came here just like me to find out what is cheaper now or when 6.1 launches. I copied the following from another postThanks to Junjonaku for posting. For anyone who is interested in the price of souvenirs guild have been adapted to this new system. The head, back and legs are all 500g, are lvl 1-60 and can be upgraded from Ancient Heirloom Armor Housing to 1000g. This means that upgraded versions of the 1-90 rear schedy pieces are 300g cheaper if you buy them before the patch on Tuesday. These savings apply only to the rear parts. Pants actually be cheaper than 6.1 and break helms even. So it convinced me to buy a cape now, but wait for the pants. I can't send links yet... Fully Upgraded PricingArmor, 3500gOne-Handed Weapons; 6,850g Razer Claw Brawler is a 7000gDada weapon; 6,950gTrinkets, rings and necklaces; 3,700gShields & amp; Off-tanks; The 6,700gArmor sets, including shoulders, chest, helmet and leggings, cost 14,000g from nada to level 3. To purchase each souvenir in the game and upgrade to level 3 will cost you 241,400g without taking into account your properties for free upgrade tokens from the intro quest, any existing pieces can have: docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1yYE03NMpzFZ5lclSbqGCqj6BjDTHXhogTy5RaZldhrw A wonderful information. One of the things I was looking for was an equivalent level of equipment to a character level above level 90. I went through my 90 - 94 characters as well as level 100 with the following results: 90 - 463 as before patch so lower than Timeless Isle 496 epics, but pd boost is a valuable offset. 91 - 52092 - 52993 - 53894 - 547100 - 600You can not confirm 95 - 99 counterparts, because I do not have characters at these levels at this time, but it looks like it is 9 levels of position at the character level that make 556, 565, 574, 583, 592. Now that's pretty sir list! Thank you for all the details. If I can add - I have to love the new schedy system! Does anyone know the actual number of heirs you can collect now, not in this Siege of Originmar? Scalable memorabilia is now scaled to iLvI 605 from the latest patch at character level 100. It says pyp item statistics don't work on regular mobs etc, but I don't understand. The trifles of PVP still give you the stamina, sharpened Scarlet Kris for example, still not roughly the same damage as Heartseeker's balanced training dummy at my level. Can anyone explain how they don't work? Hierlooms are boesd Memorabilia ruins WoWs leveling the experience So, Please correct me if I'm wrong I'll take critisim. But siege of org looms are they currently unavailable or were they put back into the game? and if not, why would they take them out it was prestiegious to get those wonderful updated versions of high warlord weapons! its not fair to them but im fighting for a little caue man I have my 2 handed to get those wonderful updated versions of high warlord weapons! its not fair to them but im fighting for a little caue man I have my 2 handed to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to get them about the people who joined or cam back from a break and dident get a chance to ge an axe but I want the rest of them to play the game for transmog and others. My point is that if I moved my warrior to the horde and I could littler look like a tall warlord cept without arms cause blizz gave the warriors exactly the same equipment as the high warlords on the horde so that the axe n warr could from the yard salavage and might look like a tall warlord. P So feel free to improve / me if my numbers are wrong but from 6.2.2 cost of gold acquiring all pve souvenirs and fully theirs is as follows: 16,000g - 8 sets of armor4,050g - 1h weps3,750g - 2h weps1,500g - 0ffhand/shield s2,000g - 8 to buy trinks/necks/rings Come in total 32,900gTHEN all upgrades (including updates for track no you can buy directly)Weapons - 68,200g (11 * 6200g) all the rest - 153,000g (51 * 3000g) What to come to a separate sum 221,200Grand total - 254,100g'Of course you can take a solid 9200g off for each toon you get into upgrade tasks, and that would probably be reasonable, to use crusaders tokens when you can ;) You have a pristine breastplate with a new healing plate set as in darkmoon faire - it's not available there. I recommend updating the guide with 5 additional little things that patch 6.2.3 brought. They are obtained as a random (personal loot) fall from mythic dungeon bosses. 6.2.3 BoA Trinkets: Gronntooth War HornJudgment from NaaruOrb voidsightInfallible Tracking CharmPurified Shard of the Third MoonThese trinkets are similar to garrosh memorabilia from the Orgrimmar Siege, fall on the basis of you specialization loot (the first fall, after that it is random for specc), can not be viewed in the collection tab souvenirs until you get them, but scale to lvl 110.Z proces favoring demons as enemies, they should be a big help when leveling in the Legion). The drop rate seems to be about 5-10% from any boss at Mythic Dungeons. Farm's! ;)P.S. Well done in the guide, it's really helpful! I can't get some of the ones that state that they're available from guild sellers. They used to need a Level 20 Guild achievement. I didn't buy a little while I was in the 25th guild. The guild disbanded, and I created another guild. Now there are no guild levels and souvenirs are not on the sellers, except those that I have a few but lacks skin and mail ones. Is there any way to get them now? Since this information is somehow completely absent from this guide and comments (really, how?) the guild's reputation for heips' pants are. In fact, in the last 10-15 minutes I've been looking around wowhead trying to understand how this information isn't readily available everywhere. How serious.... what's the actual @$#%? Very amazing guide man, very in-kind and I would like that dident remove the souvenirs from SoO and Wod one of the dung I mean I understand why ya need to have some form of prestiege but for players not being able to do it or something else its nice not fair. unfortunately that this is the game we play. The right bar says that this guide is updated for 7.1.5 ... but there is no information about charmers ... Good to know that I have a bow like a mained hunter while All upgraded too, waiting now to get to know to upgrade them all to 110. Admiral Taylor's Loyalty Ring is yet to be found? I bought all the souvenirs. That Chauffeur is very cool Cool, but I learned smth on this site is ok? https:// bit. ly/2yfeRAS Thanks so much for putting this guide together. I don't have a toon level of 1 because before the memorabilia they were a thing. Now I'm glad they exist and I'm glad I came across your guide. With! Better late than never, a wonderful amazing guide. However, I noticed one thing and did not see it in other comments. You cannot equip two rings from the Draenor Ghostly Ship mission. To have two rings, you need to use one of them and a Dread Pirate ring from the Stranglethorn Fishing Extravaganza. Great guide! I'm just so happy that Blizzard added this to the game to reward us with altoholics Is it worth upgrading the souvenir? Great guide Thank you. Now I know where all these Choppers chauffeurs come from. I'm a little conflicted about getting one and using it, it just seemed a bit out of place, not to mention how annoying the sound of them can be to me when you're in mostly peaceful forests, but to everyone's own there. if you have alts, then yes, it really speeds up leveling, if you have alts, then yes. it really speeds up leveling What is the task that rewards the update token? I can't tell you if I finished it on my heroes or not. Since Patch 8.2 (2019.06.25), Riha is no longer a Sha'tar faction - it's not connected, like all other guild sellers. Official patches do not mention her by name, but instead state nonchalantly: Guild sellers' prices are consistent again. (This is almost at the end of the update page under UI.) For years, Riha was the only seller with whom you could get a discount on any guild perks and memorabilia, provided you have at least a friendly reputation with Sha'tar (though Horde players could get an automatic 20% with the Goblin Best Deals Anywhere racial bonus). While she still sells all the items, her new outcast status means the same prices that you can get from any other guild seller. You can delete some of your correspondence because it was changed to create it in the schedy panel a long time ago.. I'm exactly confused as I should always be comments first now I get it a lot of work Although it is possible to send souvenirs from one character to another, it is no longer necessary because we have a tab souvenirs in the collection collection Depending on what extension you can probably hover over the souvenir you want to buy. Provides the location of the provider. It seems to me that when you have all your equipment/weapon slots filled with scheda tools from what ever sources then you need 140,240g to upgrade this equipment to level 120. That is a ridiculous amount of gold that not everyone has the time or even the propensity to farm. As it will cost Blizzard nothing to reduce that to more reasonably achievable numbers say up to about 10% I really think they should do it. This would help to encourage people to create and play more characters, retaining both their interest and of course .subscriptionsEas as pieces of heaps are linked to the account, you only need to buy a rudder, for example, that would take on the appropriate attributes for the class and specifications of the character. Having to have a separate class and role specific leather mail fabrics and plates, if frankly funny. Perhaps sharing all the items and upgrades in the game with quests, rather than repeatedly dragging through different dungeon ranks and raiding in the hope of random drops, would be another very possible upgrade. Not all of us have the time before bfa so that you can still reach the undercity. (as an example set it to draenor)2) Take the portal to the undercity of orgrimmar (next zeplin to grom'gol)3) Head to rogues quarter4) Talk to estelle estelle
