Now ladies tailor dresses are the favorite piece to go to work or see us proxies, and it is that who can deny how beautiful a girl may look in the right dress and an example for this is Angelina Jolie on the red carpet of the 2014 BAFTA, which looked extremely sexy is her black dress tight to her slender body alongside a pair of black heels. Tailored costumes have become the favorite piece to go to work. Click on Tweet But seeing it's a set that suits all of us, we need to keep in mind a tip to look radiant every time we wear a dress. Trousers or skirtSEn these days the girls' outfits come in both skirt and pants, both are great for going to the or a cocktail meeting, consider the combinations, and if you are a voluptuous, size XL girl remember that black is your best ally and if you choose skirt it is not higher than knee height. Cuts and lengths of pantsThe pants of a lady's dress is the best friend to give the illusion you want, so if you're a little low or chubby opt for pants at the waist, wide boot and cover the heel of your shoes, this way it will give you the impression of having infinite legs. However, if you are a skinny girl opt for slightly tighter pieces. JacketsES the crucial piece of women's dress, so you have to be sure it will really make you look curvy and slender, so the perfect jacket is the one with the cut on the shaped sides of a waistband on your body. Note the thickness of the fabric in time where it will be used because it will avoid dying from heat or cold in your meeting. Tip: You can also make combinations with your spring outfits. Shirt It is the focal point, since it is he who gives color to his suit. A silk cloth will fit you perfectly, make you look with authority and brave. If you're a classic opt for white, but if you want to have fun combining your shirt with your outfit, so it's the same color range as your outfit, but two or three shades lower than the rest. StylingThe style you will wear with the dress is decisive, the most important is the occasion when you will wear it, if it is the work tries not to be recharged and if the dress is thick it is better to wear the hair collected, but if it is thin you can drop your hair. High shoes will always give you authority and make you look more elegant, so if the occasion allows you to always bet on heels. As for accessories opt for ends or just one, small tendrils attached to the ear next to a large necklace or vice versa, but if you are simpler you can use only tendrils and ready. And speaking of heels, how about this wardrobe? Dream.
