Home Configuration Report Messaging Member Team Facility Scheduling Tool Support Hopewell Valley Football Association (HVSA) is pleased to report that enrollment has available for the fall 2020 season. Registration and payment must be made using the online registration system on our website. Registration Process COVID-19 Update: Click on the Register button at the bottom of this page to start June 8, 2020. The Youth Sports League will be approved for a return to play on 22 June. We will implement all necessary changes to keep players, referees, coaches and spectators safe and healthy. Once the CDC and state guidelines are deployed, we will notify players who have registered their changes through this webpage and email blast. Families who do not want to participate in the changes we make can receive a full refund. For planning purposes, the following fields/locations are preliminary: However, the date/time is generally accurate. As a result of COVID-19, the Board has chosen to freeze registration fees at 2019 levels and fore off previously planned increases in registration fees. Consistent with the new Youth Football Directive, headball is no longer allowed in HVSA Rec football matches and practices. Program There are five different age ratings for the fall season. The divisions of 1, 2, 3 and 4 are divided by gender and age. The pre-K department (run alongside the soccer shot) has been co-edited. Children between the ages of 3 and 18 (as of August 1, 2020) are eligible to participate. Registration closes at 11:59 p.m. on August 16, 2020. Age determines which programs a player can enroll in. Age is determined by the age of August 1, 2020 (for pre-k programs, players must be at least 3 years old as of 8/1/20). Programs are categorized by age. Families suffering financial difficulties from the Joshua Rigel Scholarship Fund can request assistance from the Joshua Rigel Scholarship Fund. To request assistance, click on the link below: Player Assessment (Division 2 & 3 only) D2 Girls & Boys, D3 Girls and Boys will hold ratings in early to mid-August. Each department coordinator will contact you with location/time details in late July. The HVSA Board has adopted a draft procedural policy to ensure that all teams are reseeded on an annual basis. Equipment note singerd is mandatory in all departments. Shirts, shorts and socks are provided for Division II Through IV. Team shirts and balls are provided to each Division I player. Division II Through IV requires soccer cleats. The C.5:18-1 law passed by the New Jersey Senate and General Assembly states that children who wear corrective glasses while participating in soccer must wear protective glasses that meet the frame standards of the American Association of Test Materials (ATSM) F803 and the lens standards of the U.S. National Institute of Standards (ANSI) Z87.1. For more information, visit this site. In players with the only exception of religious or medical bracelets, forms of jewelry are not allowed. This includes all forms of piercings. Volunteer HVSA always needs officers, coaches, assistant coaches, sponsors and referees. If you would like to participate in any of these abilities, please indicate this when you register online. All coaches and assistants must be criminally identified by the Hopewell County Police Department before the start of the season. Page 2 Read More.Hudson Catholic - 95 Marist - 43 Hudson County Tournament quarterfinalist Luther Muhammad scored a season-high 32 points while grabbing eight boards, Villanova's bound point guard Javon Kinnelly had 11 assists and Hudson Catholic scored 95-43 against Marist in the Hudson Tournament quarterfinals. First Seed Hawks advanceThey face Lincoln in the semifinals on Tuesday night. Watch the highlights of Hudson Catholic vs. Marist below! 91 Steiner 70 - Mercer County Tournament Quarterfinals Saturday's match between fourth-seeded Notre Dame and fifth-seeded Steiner was the most known match at some point in the Mercer County tournament. The two were some of the best of the Colonial Valley Conference for the 2017-2018 season. Fighting Ireland took a 22-16 lead at the end of the first and Notre Dame began piling into points from beyond the arc thanks to Kayla Barnett, who had 17 to take a 48-33 lead at halftime. The ND will continue their excellent performance in the second half to finally walk away with a 91-70 victory to send them into the semi-final round to face number one Trenton Catholic on 2/20. Watch highlights now: Sponsors! Thanks to Princeton Orthopedic Associates for sponsoring Steiner and Notre Dame coverage at JSZ! Trenton took the lead early on and led 33-12 at half-time. Reggie James had 12 points, six rebounds and five assists in a 66-40 win over the Bulldogs in the second half. The Tornado's next task is to face number one seed Trenton Catholic in the 2/20 MCT semifinals at Cure Auto Insurance Arena. See the highlights: Sponsors! Thanks to Princeton Orthopedic Associates for sponsoring coverage of Hopewell Valley and Trenton at JSZ! But that seems to be the trend for these Lions. They made a comeback against the Vikings last week and did it again during the HWS semi. Paul Woolhouse stood up big for the Lions with 22 points and complete dominance under the basket. Check out the full highlights now: Pope John 58 Central 53 - Hunterdon/Warren/Sussex Boys semi-final Pope John previously knocked out HWS tournament first seed Philipsburg and faced another challenge during the semi-finals when they met the Hunterdon Central Red Devils. But Aaron Clark of the Lions shone, scoring 29 points and Eddie Davis 22. The two guards gave them enough momentum to get rid of the upset late in the fourth quarter. Full highlights available: Highpoint 40 Sparta 35 - Hunterdon/Warren/Sussex Girls semi-final 1st seed, Highpoint, gets a scare in the second quarter of this one thanks to an offensive push by Sparta's Erin Walsh.To that short-lived lead, the first seed had a 40-35 victory over Sparta. Trisha Peterson donated 14 people for the Wildcats. Check out her highlights and more now: Delaware Valley 28 Warren Hills 27 - Hunterdon/Warren/Sussex Girls Semifinals In an incredible turn of events, Delvar Ready Terrier finds a way to shock Warren Hills Blue Streaks in the final 11 seconds of this HWS semifinal. Not only was Amanda Kicks leading the team, but she also scored the final second shot that sealed the Terriers' contract. Redbank Catholic 68 Colts Neck 33 - Shore Conference Tournament Girls quarterfinal Amanda Hart had a career-high 20 points leading four Caseys in double digits as she was dominant against the #3 Shore 4th seed. Caseys had a total of 10 triples, so Hart had four 3-pointers. Rose Cabury scored 13, Katie Rice scored 11 and Hayley Moore made it 20-4 as Caseys improved to a place in the SPT semi-finals.
