The production is entering its 56th year at Ivy Green, Helen Keller's home in Tuscumbia. The gates are open for home and land tours. Every show is signed for hearing loss. For ticket information call 256-383-4066. Built in 1820, Ivy Green, the birthplace of Helen Keller, is a simple white clapboard house design in typical Southern architecture. The main house is a Virginia cottage construction, with four large rooms on the first floor separated by a spacious hall. Each room has an individual fireplace. Upstairs there are three rooms connected by the hall. The old whistle path takes visitors to the outdoor kitchen of the main house. Located around the estate are Lion's Club's International Memorial Fountain, Clearing and herb gardens, Carriage House and Gift Shop. Helen Keller's birthplace cottage is located to the east of the main house and consists of a large room with bay windows and a beautiful playroom. Initially, a small annex was an office for storing plantation books. The house and museum room are decorated with many of the Keller family's original furnishings. Each is highlighted by Miss Keller's personal memories, books, and gifts from travel and lectures of a lifetime in 25 countries for the improvement of the world's blind and deaf. Of particular note is the complete library of Braille books and the original Braille typewriter. Helen Adams Keller was born a healthy child on June 27, 1880, to captain Arthur H. and Kate Adams Keller of Tuscumbia. At the tender age of 19 months, she was struck down by a severe illness that left her blind and deaf. At the age of six, a half-wild, deaf and blind girl was taken by her parents to see Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. During her visit, Helen met her teacher Anne Mansfield Sullivan on March 3, 1887. After Helen miraculously broke through at the pump of a simple well, she proved so talented that she soon learned the alphabet's fingertips and soon to write. At the end of August, in six short months, he knew 625 words. By the time she was 16, Helen could speak well enough to go to prep school and to college. In 1904 he graduated cum laude from Radcliffe College. Helen Keller, the little girl, became one of history's remarkable women. He dedicated his life to improving the condition of the visually impaired and deaf around the world, teaching in more than 25 countries on five major continents. Her teacher, Anne Sullivan, is remembered as a Miracle Worker for her lifelong dedication, patience and love to a half-wild southern child trapped in the darkness of 1954, through the efforts of the Helen Keller Tuscumbia Property Council and the State of Alabama, Ivy Green, helen keller's birthplace, was made a permanent temple and placed on the National Register of Historic Places. Ivy Green is located two miles from Hwys. 72 and 43 in Colbert County, Tuscumbia, Alabama. Live performances of William Gibson's world-famous play, The Miracle Worker, are offered on weekends in early June to mid-July each year on the grounds of Helen Keller's birthplace (entrance fee). Good news!! We will reopen on Saturday, May 23, during our normal working hours. Please note, masks will be required to be worn by our visitors and employees. We are very happy to be able to reopen and look forward to seeing you! Tuscumbia, Alabama Welcome to Ivy Green... This website has been developed to help you find your way to and around lyv Green.
