I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Continue

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Continue

Fema training 100 b answers

Switch to Content 1 Who is overall responsible for managing incidents at the scene? Director of Emergency Operations Center Incident Operations Command Operations Head 2 Incident Command System (ICS) can be used to manage any type of incident, including planned events. 3 Incident command selection is made by: Authority or organization with primary responsibility for incidents Emergency operations management Officers planning public information officers 4 Manageable control scopes are mentioned: An orderly line of competent authorities exists within the ranks of the incident management organization. Acts of directing, ordering or controlling by law, regulation or authority are expressly authorized. The process of moving the responsibility of commanding the incident from one incident commander to another. The number of individuals or resources that a supervisor can effectively manage in an incident. Which 5 Members of the General Staff prepare the Incident Action Plan, manage information and maintain situational awareness for the case? Head of Operations Planning Head of Logistics Head of Finance / Administration Head of 6 Departments which departments organize, assigned and supervise tactical response resources? Is Financial Logistics/Administration Planning 7 Acquisitions, Storage and Resource Inventory part of NIMS management characteristics? Accountability incident facilities and comprehensive resource management locations United Command 8 Incident Command Systems (ICS) is: A relatively new approach created based on the lessons learned from the 9/11 terrorist attacks. A standard approach to incident management is applied for use in all hazards. A military system is used in domestic incidents to ensure command and control of federal resources. Most applicable to managing complex issues that last for hours or days. 9 Which General Staff member negotiates and supervises contracts, maintains documents to reimburse and supervises time attendance for incident personnel? Head of Logistics Head of Planning Head of Finance/Administration Head of 10 What NIMS Management Characteristics are necessary to gain situational awareness and facilitate information sharing? Comprehensive Responsibility resource management Command chain and unified communications command integrated 11 The whole community approach refers to various organizations in the Federal Government. 12 Which members of the Command and Staff communicate with other agencies to meet the information requirements related to the incident? Officer Liaison Safety Officer Public Information Command Arranges the resources and services necessary to support incident targets. Track resources and maintain problem documents. Provide information to A point of contact for other feedback organizations. 14 A incident action plan is recorded and communicates the overall activity and support for an incident. 15 One of the benefits of ICS is that it provides an orderly, systematic _____ Deployment Safety Recovery Plan 16 In a Unified Command, members representing multiple legal areas and agencies work together to establish: Situational Awareness Incident Objectives Shared Agency Resource Allocation 17 To ensure efficiency, Clarity, communication, National Incident Management System Characteristics recommend use: What are the general terms of the technical language agency Acronym 18 Members of the General Staff who direct all responses and tactical actions to achieve the incident goal? The chief strategy officer of the operations department heads the 19 Incident Command Systems (ICS) operations department that applies only to major, complex incidents. 20 What NIMS management characteristics refer to personnel requested through appropriate authorities and established resource management systems? Dispatch/Deployment of incident facilities and location management under the goal of managing approximately 21 professional qualifications, certifications, and personnel certification as part of NIMS management characteristics? Accountability Comprehensive Resource Incident Management Facilities and Location Information and Intelligence Management 22 Establishment of ICS module organization is the responsibility of: Local Government Command Incident Operations Division Part 23 Who appoints incident commander and the process of transferring command? The head of the Incident Command during the period of operation before the Authority or the organization responsible for the case of the Chief of Staff of the 24 ics functional zones which arranges the resources and services necessary to support the achievement of the incident target? What NIMS Financial Logistics / Management 25 Operational Planning Characteristics can include collecting, analyzing and evaluating weather service data from technical experts? Integrating communication and information management incident facilities and location management according to goal 26 ICS functional areas set tactics and direct all operational resources to achieve incident targets? Financial/Administrative Logistics Operational Planning 27 Is the general staff responsible for ensuring that the assigned incident officer is fed and has communications, medical assistance and transportation as needed to meet the operational objectives? Head of Public Information Security Logistics Department Head of Planning 28 Incident Commander or Unified Commander establishes incident targets including: Identify tactics, missions and activities to achieve the goal. Select personnel to serve on the Incident Management Team. Assigned functional responsibilities and specified types of resources. Set up a manageable control interval. 29 When partners representing multiple regions or agencies work together to set incident targets, what type of Order is being used? Regional Command 30 U.N. Command At the scene of the incident, who handled the press's questions? Media Relations Specialist Public Information Liaison Officer Officer 31 When the order is transferred, should this process include a(n): Detailed Summary Award Ceremony Intelligence Report Lesson 32 Of the following are typical incident facilities? Point-of-distribution sites Camps Incident Command Post All over 33 ICS functions are responsible for documentation for mutual support agreements? Incident planning command financial/administrative operations 34 In the characteristics of the national incident management system, the common terminology concept includes all of the following EXCEPT: Functional organizational specifications describing incident base resources 35 ICS functional areas that monitor costs related to incidents and provide accounting, procurement, time recording and cost analysis? Commander of Financial/Administrative Logistics Operations 36 Which positions are always employees in ICS applications? Public Information Incident Commander 37 Safety Division Commander If the Incident Commander mobilizes the public information provider, safety and communications services, Employees are generally referred to as: Chief of Staff 38 Check-in, Incident Action Planning, Personal Responsibility, and Resource Monitoring are necessary to ensure: Flexibility Of Preventive Sustainability Accountability 39 To avoid incident command overload, resources should not be self-coordinated Based on the number of individuals or resources that an supervisor can effectively manage in an incident. Steering, ordering or controlling by law, regulation or expressly authorized jurisdiction. The ability to control the exchange of information in and between organizations related to an incident. Assumed by the individual to be the most advanced person on the scene regardless of experience or training level. 41 Which ICS function areas monitor resources, collect and analyze information, and maintain documents? Plan Your Financial/Administrative Logistics Operations Click to evaluate the answers. 1. Which Member of the General Staff prepares the Incident Action Plan, manages information and maintains situational awareness for the case?A. Head of planning department. Head of OperationsC. Logistics Head of Finance/Administration 2. If the Incident Commander mobilizes the public, safety, and communications service provider, the employee is generally referred to as: A. StaffB Director. StaffC issues. Executive staff. Commander 3. Which members of The Command and Staff communicate with other agencies in response to incident-related information requests?A. Liaison OfficerB. Safety officerC. public information officer. Commander 4. The Incident Command System (ICS) can be used to manage any type of incident, including planned events. A. TRUEB. WRONG 5. Which General Staff member directs all responses and tactical actions to achieve incident targets?A. Head of Planning. Head of OperationsC. Head of tactical. Executive Director 6. Among the following are typical incident facilities?A. SitesB distribution points. CampC. Postd command problem. All over 7. Members of the General Staff who negotiate and supervise contracts, maintain documents to reimburse and supervise time attendance for incident personnel?A. Head of Logistics. Head of OperationsC. Head of Planning. Head of Finance/Administration 8. Liaison Officer: A. Arranging the resources and services necessary to support incident goals.B. Monitoring resources and maintaining incident documentation.C. Providing information to the public. D. Is a point of contact for other feedback organizations. 9. Establishing ics module organization is the responsibility of: A. SectionB operation. Local governmentC. CommandD incident. Logistics Part 10. When the order is transferred, the process must include a(n):A. B. BriefingC Award Ceremony. Detailed lessons learned report reporting. Intelligence report 11. The whole community approach refers to different organizations in the Federal Government.A. YES. WRONG 12. Who dictate the Incident Commander and The Order Transfer Process?A. Regional Leader B. Incident Commander for the previous operational phaseC. The authority or organization responsible for the incident. 13th Command. Which ICS function is responsible for documentation for mutual support agreements?A. PlanningB. CommandC issues. I don't think it's going to be Finance/Administration 14. The Incident Command System (ICS) can be used to manage any type of incident, including planned events. A. TRUEB. WRONG 15. To avoid overloading problem commands, resources should not be self-deployed (self-deployed). A. TRUEB. WRONG 16. What NIMS management characteristics may include the collection, analysis and evaluation of weather service data from technical experts?A. Information and intelligence management. Integrated CommunicationsC. Incident facilities and LocationsD. Target management 17. Who has overall responsibility for the management at the scene Director of Emergency Management Center B. ExecutiveC Agency. CommandD incident. Head of Business 18. Management Span of Control refers to: A. An orderly line of authority exists within the ranks of the organization managing the incident .B. Acts of directing, ordering or controlling by law, regulations or clearly authorized authority.C. The process of transferring responsibility for commanding incidents from one Incident Commander to another. The number of individuals or resources that a supervisor can effectively manage in an incident. 19. Qualifications, certification and personnel certification are part of that NIMS?A. AccountabilityB management characteristics. Comprehensive resource managementC. Incident facilities and LocationsD. Information and intelligence management 20. What NIMS management characteristics are necessary to gain situational awareness and facilitate information sharing?A. AccountabilityB. Comprehensive resource managementC. CommandD's chain of command and unity. Integrated Communications 21. Which ICS function area monitors resources, collects and analyzes information, and maintains documentation?A. PlanningB. OperationC. Logistics. Finance/Administration 22. To ensure effective, clear, communication, National incident management system characteristics recommend use: A. Common termB. Specific agency C codes. Technical languageD. Acronym 23. In a Unified Command, members representing multiple legal districts and agencies work together to establish: A. Situational AwarenessB. Allocate resourcesD. Agency share 24. At the scene of the incident, who handled the media questions?A. Media Relations Specialist B. Public Information OfficerC. Liaison officer. Communications officer 25. Which ICS function area arranges the resources and services needed to support the achievement of incident goals?A. PlanningB. OperationC. Logistics. Finance/Administration 26. Somewhat organized, assigned and supervised tactical response resources?A. PlanningB. OperationC. Logistics. Finance/Administration 27. Which ICS function area monitors incident-related costs and provides accounting, procurement, time recording and cost analysis?A. CommandB. OperationC. Logistics. Finance/Administration 28. Check-in, system used in domestic incidents to ensure command and control of federal resources. Most applicable to management the problem lasts for hours or days. 30. A incident action plan is captured and communicates the overall operation and support for an incident.A. TRUEB. FALSE 32. What positions are always employees in ICS?A. Public Information OfficerB applications. CommandC incident. Head of operations. Safety officer 33. The selection of incident commanders is carried out by: A. Authority or organization responsible for the incident. Emergency Operations ManagementC. public information officer. Planning Officer 34. What NIMS management characteristics refer to personnel requested through appropriate authorities and the establishment of resource management systems?A. Dispatch/DeploymentB. Incident facilities and locationsC. Managed by ObjectivesD. Manage Span of Control 35. One of the benefits of ICS is that it provides an orderly, systematic _____ SafetyC. Recovered. Plan 36. Acquisition, storage and inventory of resources is part of which NIMS manages characteristics?A. AccountabilityB. Incident facilities and locationsC. Comprehensive resource managementD. Unified Command 37. When partners representing multiple legal areas or agencies work together to set incident targets, what type of Order is being used?A supervisor can effectively manage in an incident.B. Steering, ordering or controlling by law clearly, regulated or authorized jurisdiction.C. The ability to control the exchange of information in and between organizations involved in an incident.D. Assumed by the individual to be the highest level person at the scene regardless of experience or level of training. 39. Which Member of the General Staff is responsible for ensuring that the assigned incident officer is fed and has communications, medical assistance and transportation as necessary to meet operational objectives?A. Head of Logistics. Safety officerC. public information officer. Head of Plan 40. In the characteristics of the national incident management system, the concept of common terminology includes all but the following: A. Organizational functionB. SpecificationsC. Resource DescriptionsD. Facility incident 41. Which ICS function area establishes tactics and directs all operational resources to achieve incident goals?A. PlanningB. OperationC. Logistics. Finance/Administration 42. Incident Commanders or Unified Commanders establish incident objectives including: A. Identify strategies, tactics, tasks, and operations to achieve the goal.B. Selecting personnel to serve on the Incident Management Team.C. Entrusting functional responsibilities and identifying resource types.D. Establish a control intervals. Find answers to the next exam here: FEMA IS-100. FDA: Introduction to Incident Command System (ICS 100) for Food and Drug Administration Answers