Posted September 4, 2018 Submitted by a parent Both daughters came here and staff and education is perfect Post August 7, 2018 Sent by a Wonderful Student, I had the best year at Creekland Post February 10, 2018 Sent by a teacher It can be summarized in three words: toxic work culture. Posted January 23, 2018 Due to parents sending student ratio like 30:1 not 16:1 very crowded teachers! Bullying is also very bad. Posted May 6, 2017 Submitted by these high schools are made up of your typical Parent and Student Creekside HS. This means they are very uneducated and backwoods. Parents insiding fights and racism is pretty bad. I will avoid all Cherokee County schools due to poor education, but especially in Creekside HS district. If parents spend as much time on their children's schooling as they do with jacking up their pickup truck, they could have been better. Posted on February 3, 2017 Sent by a teacher One of the best middle schools in a high-achievement school district! Caring students and teachers appreciate parental support! I've taught here since it opened, and loved every minute. Posted December 19, 2016 Submitted by a student I had teachers who just wanted you to pass so they could keep your job. I've also had teachers tell me to pass or fail I'm still paid the same. I don't feel this is a respectable view, especially for a teacher. I honestly wish that I could go back to private school to really better my education. If you want your students to at least get good grade 8 teachers to prepare for HORENDOUS High School on the street, then make sure they get good grades and put on smart teams in 6 and 7. The only group with teachers who want to better your education is 8C. The principal is pretty nice and the mentoring is extremely helpful when it comes to timely and learning needs. However, I do not recommend sending your child to this school because of the lack of good and diverse teachers. Posted February 10, 2015 Submitted by a parent Most teachers did a great job while my child attended. School mentors really care about children's well-being. One of the great falls for us was the principal, Ms. Wiseman. When my child needed her most and had to summon the courage to even talk to her, she confirmed my child's fears by being completely fired, sarcastic, talking to her and making her feel humiliated by her efforts to solve a situation. No child deserves it, especially an outspoken A student who has no disciplinary action on his record. The principals left from my knowledge and limited interaction have all been personable and respected. * School data provided by the National Center for Education Statistics, Pitney Bowes and GreatSchools.
