These ingredients were intended to mimic Botox to a lesser degree by stunt microcontraction in skin that causes wrinkles. A few months later, L'Or?al (parent of Lanc Company?i) marked the version called Wrinkle De-Crease (D?contra'Rides in France). It's always been done with the same formulation, but now called Collagen Moisture Filler. As an older product, it's very expensive. It's stuff big, humidity, never heavy. A note: I use it as a night cream, as it has no sunshine. Most critics review critics purchased this cream about a month ago and were using it at night and day. I feel this cream is somewhat towards the side. Feel good. I'm a laurel person, and it was a bit disappointed after using this product in particular. Since it's just a month, not sure yet if it does it claim. Reviewed by 182 customer5Mamaw the barrel figure from Mississippi like the way it feels in my skin and will have to see in time if improving the wrinklesMouristurizes as well as Iraronic acidic, which is expensive. For me this moisture cream as well as ironic acid, and it offers that effect plumping until the filling effect can take place (you must keep the routine). I don't mind sending off but my mother tried it, and the balls were only complaining. Don't let the price be expensive to your foolish point; it is necessary to pay a lot to get a great product. I combined this with exfoliation of dry skin addresses on my face. I woke up with skin as soft as it was a decade ago. I am accused of lying when I tell people my age, because they think I'm thirty, at the most. I also stayed out of the sun. Great product.5My business from Savannah, GANeed it for my dry skin. Put it on after my morning shower. The last day. Faces feel great all day! And a little goes a long way and huge prices too! love it! Keep coming back5Fran3LV from Franklin, TNThis is a cream I've used on and off for years. I like trying to cream different figures, kind of an addict to be honest, but this is one that I always go back to. I love the texture, the smell, the way it feels on my face, and of course the way it makes my face look. I suffer from dark spots, oil zones etc. That's even out my skin tone & amp; humidity so well. Really more up those issues too. Still can tell the difference it makes in the morning. Love this thing. It's definitely my favorite face product! Refreshing and quick results! SMagnasty from Clarksville, TNImedyatman felt refreshed! Love the smell too. Not worth li2Sacflame from TexasSticky feeling. I used it 2 weeks now. The only way to get real results is to cosmetic the operation. I'm 66yrs young and should have hoped Miracle doesn't come to a jar, but it was worth a shot. Really more up the skin!4LJ from NCMy skin care normal care consists of clinics and some Estee Lauder but I had this on hand when I was running low over the others. I noticed when I use this product that my skin feels very plumber to this day and it seems to be one of the few products that really hydrated and softened little to the crepitity that is starting to show off my neck. It works better than anything I tried for that! Even the ones that are especially done for crepitation! I know we have to be age and writers come but this product is sure to work well to soften and plumping up your skin. Incredible results for the price! I make a point to use this a few days a week in addition to my other products. It works! Only account is the fragrance. I wish they would make it sense. Smell move1One from NYCI just got my cream so I can't speak to results but I can talk to the fact that it akes smell be and even after she per before morning to for my skin, so using it in the morning before morning was impossible. And the fragrans? forget it. I doesn't disappear and even after sleeping with this product on, I wake the smell of odors to heavy smell. I tried using it because I hate wasting anything... but the avasting anything... but the send to the morning before morning was impossible. And the fragrans? forget it. It doesn't disappear and even after sleeping with this product on, I wake the smell of odors to heavy smell. I tried using it because I hate wasting anything... but the wasting anything... but the wasting anything... but the have other moisture shades that take smell better and I'll stick to people. Love Love5Jes from PhoenixThis product goes on that list, little goes a long way and not oil delusions have some concerns regarding2kathy11 from New York, USAHi I'd like to know if I can use this product while I'm nursing? Love it!5Ali from Tennesseel love this humidity so much. I recently bought a whole new container routine and this is probably one of my favorite products from it. My skin feels hydrated and soft, I've been using it for about 2 weeks now. I love how it goes a long way and it goes on so slim. It also feels cooling off in a way when I put it on which is a beautiful feeling. The texture is great and overall I definitely recommend this. I would buy a anko and anko have.5Wrinkles going! from Alberta, Canadai put it on line mouth, cheek coverings and my neck. I'm sure she helped! This product is great5Cleo from Toledo othThis is the third jar I use. I love the texture, the way it goes on with the feeling. He's got the smell better. My new favorite cream!5Annalady from this New OrleansLove product, I've seen results in less than a week! Great
