Lab ray background neopets

What is a secret lab? The Secret Lab is a place owned by Mad Lab Ray Scientist. He developed Lab Ray, which can change your pet in many ways, good or bad. If you take your pet there, that is the risk you are taking. Things can happen to your pet that you don't want to happen. Or a lot of good things will happen to your pet, anything is possible. If you have access to the Secret Lab (read more about how to access the secret lab below), you can visit the Secret Lab here: Lab Ray can be used on one pet of your choice, once a day. What's the secret lab doing? Different things can happen to your pet, luckily you get to decide which pet you want to send there before something happens. The following things can happen if you use Lab Ray on your pet: - Your pet color may change (to Purple, Green, Fairy, Maraquan etc.) - Your pet sex may change (to male or female) - Your pet's species may change (to Kiko, Kougra, Ruki, Zafara, etc.) - Your pet can gain or lose levels (2 levels at once) - Your pet can gain or lose the power of points (2 or 3 points at a time) - your pet can earn or lose defensive points (2 or 3 points at a time) - Your pet can get or lose movement points (2 or 3 points at a time) - Your pet can earn HIT points (2, 3, 4 or 5 points at a time) - Your pet level can return to level 1 (if your pet is level 20 (not sure whether it is the exact level that stops , please let us know if you have more information about this) or below) - Nothing happens as you can see good or bad things can happen. Your pet could turn into a beautiful color, or it could get a lot of statistics. But it could also turn into an ugly monster or lose stats. It's all random. What a lab beam can't change your pet is Ice Bori. Ice Bori is a special neopets promo only pet (or using your annual Premium Perk). Other than that Lab Ray can make any color except Magma, Usuki, Quiguki, Royal, Pirate, Plushie and Baby. This was confirmed in Neopets Magazine #4. Special lab only color changes: There are also different colors your pet can only change into through Lab Ray. There are no brushes or other ways to get these colors (except fountain faerie quests, those marked in yellow). Below you will see a chart with all colors only for labray (white bg: laboratory only, yellow bg: lab and flq) and an example of one of the pets in this color. To see all pets in this color, visit SunnyNeo's Rainbow Pool. Alien Burlap Chocolate Clay Coconut Pudding Garlic Ice Jelly Mallow Mosaic Msp Robot Snot Sponge How do you access a secret lab? The secret lab is not available for everyone to use. Before you get there, you need to fill out a map of the secret lab. Secret lab map is made of 9 different 'Secret' Secret Bits of the map. You can see them below. For example, you can buy pieces of the map separately from the store guide. Or you can buy a complete laboratory map at the trading post. This may seem easier, but it's not always cheaper than buying pieces separately, so you'll have to pay close attention to not paying too much. Unfortunately it's pretty hard to buy pieces separately because neopets don't number pieces, so it may take some work to find the piece you're looking for. Before you buy, be sure to check out our Lab Map Prices page, which tracks the current prices of each part of the lab map. Once you have all the secret lab map pieces in your inventory. You can gain access by trading in map pieces for permanent access to a secret lab. If you decide to do this, your secret lab maps will disappear forever, and you won't be able to recover it. If you've decided you want to trade your pieces for permanent access to the lab, go here: a quick URL of the place. If you want to go there manually. You can also find this place in the games room, puzzle games, treasure maps, laboratories. Is it worth getting access to a secret lab? To answer this question, the first thing you need to think about is; What do I want a lab beam for? Do I want it for better stats, or do I want my pet to be painted in a special color? The second thing you need to think for yourself is whether you will like all these changes happening with your pet. Would I like my cute Princess Acara to turn into a Grarrl man? Can I live with that? If you don't really care about all these changes going on to your pet, and you just want your pet to become really strong. Go ahead! Because for a long time, your pet will be stronger, and it certainly beats the purchase of Codestones. If you want your pet to be painted in a certain color and you would hate it if your pet kept changing, chances are you'll stop using Lab Ray after spending a lot of money to complete a secret lab map. In this case, it might be better to save on brush space. Charity, Another Purpose Lab Ray: Not everyone who has a lab ray uses for themselves. There is also a large group of people who use it to help pound pets. The pound is full of poor pets - created by cruel people - with terrible names. No one would ever adopt these pets, they are required to spend the rest of their lives in a shelter. That is, until people who use their lab for charity come around. They adopt one of those pets with an ugly name from the pound, and keep zapping it until the pet turns into a beautiful color. In this way, people want to adopt a pet, and in no time will they find a new home. On the other hand, poor people who can not afford to allow painted animal, have a chance to get one of the pounds. In short, the lab can be used for beautiful charitable purposes too. Avatar: You can also get an avatar from secret lab (it may take a while to get it though). Battledome Challenger: The opportunity to visit a secret lab also gives you the opportunity to get a Battledome Challenger for a single player battle. Fighting Lab Ray Scientist can cause your pet to change gender depending. It depends on what moves, there is a step that will say: Lab Ray Scientist has just changed you from male to female!!! (or vice versa) So if you're really unhappy about the sex change you got from the lab, you can always try and get him to change it back by struggling with it. Let us know by clicking the button below so we can explore. Note: We usually add false inflation alerts for all items that have jumped 300% or more compared to our current stated price. We usually only do this for items that cost > 100,000 IBOs, or items that can be purchased that remain unbuyable. For example, an item that goes from 500 IBOs to 2,000 IBOs does not receive an alert. But an item that has a consistent history is around 75,000 IBOs, which sees a sudden jump to say 250,000 NP, could be worthy of a warning. These guidelines do not apply to items inflated naturally as a result of a time transition (for example, a settled item price increase over time) or an event occurs (for example, Charity Corner pushes up the price of wearables). The spirit of our inflation warning guidelines is to prevent buyers from being ripped off by prices they shouldn't be paying. So if you think you are qualified, don't know how to investigate.
