The bible as history keller pdf

Want more? Advanced insertion of details, examples and help! Der Author Werner Keller befasst sich schon lange mit Ernährung - ob gesund oder schmackhaft - der Hobby-Koch hat hierbei viel lernen und erfahren durfen. Auch seine Erfahrungen mit Hawaiianischer Heilarbeit und deren traditionellen Art zu leben und sich zu ernahren haben dazu beigetragen, sich mit einer modernen und vor Allem gesunden Form von Ernährung zu befassen - und letztendlich dieses Buch zu schreiben. Ich spreche alle an, die mit moderner Ernährung schoner, junger und gesunder werden wollen - es ist moglich, ich zeige Ihnen wie! Werner Keller (born August 13, 1909 in Gut Nutha, † February 29, 1980) was a German civil servant, journalist, author of fiction and a campaigner against the Nazi Resistance. He studied engineering and medicine, and then jurisprudence, in Berlin, Rostock, Zurich and Jena. In 1933, he became a doctor of jurisprudence. While working as a senior employee at albert Speer's Ministry of Armaments, he saved the lives of many Jews. In 1945, Keller organized an anti-Nazi resistance group in Berlin that briefly ran a pirate radio station and planned a rather stupid attempt at Hitler's life. He was caught and sentenced to death by hanging by the Nazi Volksgerichtshof (People's Court). In February 1945, high-ranking friends managed, perhaps bribery, to postpone his execution at the last minute and transport him to Fort Zinna, the Wehrmacht prison in Torgau. There, Keller was freed by U.S. troops at the end of April 1945. After World War II Keller worked as a journalist and science writer in Hamburg. He worked for Nordwestdeutscher Rundfunk (The North West German Broadcasting Corporation) and for such papers and magazines as Die Welt, Die Zeit, Stern and Neue Illustrierte. Sometimes he used the pseudonym Norman Alken. In 1955, he published the Bible as history, his most famous and successful book, which correlated the text of the Bible with the results of archaeological excavations in the Middle East and provided, according to Keller, confirmation of the veracity of the Bible, which was not dependent on religious faith. In Germany he had more than a million and was translated into more than 20 languages and in 1957 he was ad for the Italian Literary Prize Premio Bancarella. Among other things, it was successfully translated into Hebrew at a time when cultural relations with Germany were far from commonplace in Israel. Davar works daily in Tel Aviv in 1958 distributing free copies of Keller's book to his subscriber. Among his other works, the socio-historical book East Minus West Equals Zero, in which the author argues that all the political, scientific and cultural achievements of the Russians from the Middle Ages to the onset of the Space Race have their origins in the West, from were imported and copied, gained the attention of the Western public. Keller's later books looked at the history and culture of the Etruscans.
