Gta 5 phoenix

Half the fun of Grand Theft Auto V and GTA Online is cruising around Los Santos in lightning-fast supercars. There is no shortage of incredible vehicles available to players, but trying to figure out which is the fastest isn't as simple as you'd think. Some might dominate in a drag race still end up in a ditch if you put them on a winding track. Others might excel around the hairpin turns, but the lack of horsepower overall. The following list is based strictly on the top speed of each car, because trying to determine many traits - such as handling skills and turns - is highly subjective and up to personal preferences. Instead, consider this a starting point for your own experiments. Each vehicle below is among the best in the game, but you will need to get behind the wheel before determining which one is right for you. Regardless of what others think or even what the stats say, each player has their own preferences when it comes to racing and their own weaknesses that they need to take into account. But regardless of which of these cars you get picked, you can be sure that you will earn its fair share of racing. Here are the 10 fastest cars in Grand Theft Auto V. Further reading Ocelot Pariah (136 mph) Despite its discreet appearance, Ocelot Pariah remains the fastest supercar in Los Santos. It is based on the Ferrari 812 Superfast and Aston Martin V12 Zagato and, even with these stners as a reference point, still manages to be a fairly low-key vehicle. It can be purchased from Legendary Motorsport and runs for a high price of $1,420,000. If you can pull together that much money, it's certainly worth investing. Phister 811 (133mph) Although you wouldn't guess, 811 is actually a little slower than Bet. Featuring deep swoops and a traditional over-the-top spoiler, the 811 looks like a powerhouse of a vehicle. And to be fair, it's -- albeit a little too slow to get the number one spot on the list. However, the 811 is much cheaper than Bet, watch ing in at $1,135,000 from Legendary Motorsport. Prince Deveste (132 mph) Mazda Furai lives in Principe Deveste. This fictional car takes powerful cues from the futuristic Mazda prototype, with an extended boot and a low profile that powers the air into the car's interiors, keeping things nice and cool in intense racing conditions. This luxury engineering is piling up, and the Price Tag of the Eight Devest comes at a massive $1,795,000. Bravado Banshee 900R (131mph) A staple in the GTA catalog for years, Banshee continues to be one of the fastest cars in the game. Modeled around the Mazda RX-7 and Dodge Viper, coupe-convertible is a light, which is an explosion to throw around curvy pieces and turns hairpin. For just $565,000, Banshee 900R offers a lot of bang for the dollar. Invetero Coquette D10 (130 mph) Not likely to be challenged this is among the most beautiful cars of all GTA. It's aggressive styling and tight control makes it a popular choice for racers of all skill levels, but its high price of $1,510,000 makes it a trademark of ultra-rich. Pegassi Toros (128 mph) As one of the few SUVs on the list, Toros makes the car ideal for larger crews. Better yet, it boasts a top speed that is more than capable of hanging with the most expensive supercars. Catch your rivals pulling up the track in a Pegassi Toros, and keep that hard-earned money in your pocket – Legendary Motorsport is selling it for just $498,000. Grotti X80 Proto (128 mph) X80 Proto could be the wildest looking machine you can buy in GTA Online. With a bold design, cutouts, frames and an angular front bumper, it certainly fits the vision of a typical supercar. It's not the best when it comes to braking, but if you're looking to go fast, it's hard to find anything better. All this power can be yours for the astronomical price of $2,700,000. Truffade Nero Custom (127 mph) Toeing the line between undervalued and aggressive is Nero Custom. Modeled after Bugatti Vision Gran Turismo, Nero Custom is a powerful machine - if not a little heavy. High speed, fast acceleration, and impeccable handling are all wrapped up in a package that can be had for $605,000. If you're not keen to drop a few million on a wild supercar, we'd highly recommend giving it a look. Descendant Emerus (127 mph) Added during the Diamond Casino & Resort update, you'll need to get lucky gambling if you're hoping to afford the second most expensive car on this list. Its price tag of $2,750,000 might seem crazy, but you're getting a car that has a high-speed top, accelerates on a dime, and is undoubtedly one of the simplest cars to handle in all gta. Due to its low weight, Emerus can be thrown around tight corners that some heavier cars tend to struggle with. If you have money, then this is definitely a worthy investment. The benefactor Krieger (127 mph) Rounding up the list is another vehicle added during the Diamond Casino & Heist update, and one that is profitable and expensive. Rated $100,000 more than Emerus, Krieger boasts many of the same statistics as his cheaper cousin. Behind the wheel, it feels a bit like Emerus, but it's not as strong at braking and has a little more weight on the chassis. Painted black, it looks a bit like the Batmobile, and Audi R8 fans will love what Rockstar has done with this evesive supercar. Editors' Recommendations The local culinary scene is unique flavors. Airfare $2199 + ASAP Airfare $745+ Once you figure out what clothes you'll need, don't forget to include other essential items for a trip to Phoenix. When you're deciding what to pack for Phoenix, be sure to consider your season and activities. These 10 items should be on each traveler's list when considering what to pack for Phoenix. Reusable KieferPix Water Bottle/Shutterstock Because the desert is so dry, you will need to drink more water than usual to stay hydrated. Even the Phoenicians carry water bottles with them wherever they go. Pack a bottle of reusable water and keep it with you – refilling it regularly throughout the day – while you sit in Phoenix. Antonio Guillem/Shutterstock Sun in Phoenix can be intense, especially in summer. Avoid a burn by bringing sunscreen with at least SPF 30. To minimize the risk of skin cancer, sunscreen should contain either ecams, avobenzzone, oxybenzone, titanium dioxide, or zinc oxide. If you'll be at the pool, make sure the sunscreen is waterproof as well. Lip Balm Your lips can burn as easily as the skin on any other part of the body. Protect and keep them by tucking lip balm with UV protection in your travel bag. Lip balm can also ease lips cracked by dry air and dehydration. Olga Miltsova moisturizer / Shutterstock Phoenix dry heat equals dry skin. Invest in a moisturizer with ingredients such as hyaluronic acid or dimetcone, which helps moisturize the skin. Skin. mineral oil, and oilatum lock in moisture, which is already there. Rewetting Drops Shutterstock/Shutterstock dry climate can also dry your eyes if you're not used to it. When you think about what to pack for Phoenix, don't forget watering drops, especially if you're wearing contact lenses. Spectacles Blowing dust and sand can irritate the eyes of contact carriers. If you wear contact lenses, bring your glasses. On windy days, you may want to change your contacts with your glasses. You might also want to have a pair of glasses handy if dry air causes contacts to irritate the eyes. Hair Ties Zvyagintsev Sergey / Shutterstock Long hair can get hot in summer, and can get in the way when you're hiking, mountain biking, or horse riding. Keep your neck cold and your hair away from your eyes with hair ties you've brought from home. Wide-Brimmed Hat MANDY GODBEHEAR/Shutterstock If you are going to spend any time outside in Phoenix, pack a wide-edged hat that will protect your ears and neck, not just your face. Wear it while lounging by the pool, hiking through the desert, or standing in the sun. Amazon Digital Camera Camera on your phone is good for pool selfies, but to capture the incredible sunsets of the phoenix or the view of the Grand Canyon, you'll be happy to have a digital camera. If you're a creepy seeker, you may want to pack a GoPro instead. Compact umbrella May sound silly to pack an umbrella for a trip to the desert, but during the monsoon season from mid-July to mid-September, Phoenix can get intense afternoon storms. Come prepared by tucking a compact umbrella into your luggage.
