Dec 25, 2018 11:57 AM Reply helpful topics - Additional options December 25, 2018 1:40 PM in response to allan299 Your problem is that virtually no one can read the page document even on the Mac due to apple's nightmare, so when you create something you will need to export to PDF or Word and then drag it into your mail message. I gave up on Apple. It's depressing to walk into the Apple Store right now, it's like a land of technonods in the northern hemisphere, your ability to warm yourself up with massively overpriced paper weights. But here in the southern summer, I have to close everything until the fall before it cooks itself to death. My first step is my Android phone. Who knows, it's very easy to find, save and rename all the files on your phone! No crazy email sending back and forth between Mac and phone! The next step, I'm upgrading my PC and finding the right software. Still looking for a page replacement but then Apple trashed it on the Mac, so the same problem. Hunting around the 'net' you should be able to search for Word templates and open templates in Pages or create your own in Pages using the many existing collages. I don't know your taste, so don't know what you're looking for yourself. Dec 25, 2018 14:04 PM In response to allan299 in Pages v7.3 Visit The View menu: Customize toolbar... and on that panel, drag and drop the Send Copy tool, Apple Mail will be in that menu and will give you a PDF option to send as an attachment, since there is no stationery function in Mojave Mail, you will do so with that concept, but create your stationery effect in Pages through background art (arrange the menu: Section Masters: Move objects to the section master) with a reduced opacity to keep your text focused on the foreground. Save as a user template, so all you have to do is add your text. Use the first paragraph to send mail to your PDF stationery. This is a word-processing document solution, but you can also use the page layout document format. You can also include Word templates from Internet. As Peter points out, send pages to others, most of which can't be turned into bad manners. 2018 2:04 PM Reply to helpful topics - Additional options December 25, 2018 3:20 PM In response to VikingOSX in response to VikingOSX, thanks for 'tell as is' you are saying that tracking what you have placed here, that also, will it be able to be an APage document (which cannot be opened) - or is the procedure you described, in order to pass through the pagesmail document already opened for the recipient view? December 25, 2018 3:20 pm Reply You must export a Pages document as a PDF file, which can be opened, but appears as an attachment to the PC user and preview the first page for Mac users only, or you can convert PDF to jpeg, which is not good for reading text, but appears as a visible graphic in most mail clients (not all) on most December 25, 3:34 PM 3:34 PM Helpful Reply - Additional Options December 25, 2018 3:43 PM in response to PeterBreis0807 well summarized Thanks December 25, 2018 3:43 PM Reply helpful topics - The additional Christmas option is all about giving and one of the best things you can give your loved ones is a heartfelt character who expresses your feelings in and out, and that's not as easy as we all don't say and do a good writer. Christmas letter example how to write a Christmas letter? Christmas is the best time to send a sincere letter to Friends, family, relatives and everyone close to you. In this letter, you ask recipients to merry Christmas while keeping them updated about the important things that have happened in your life. Short or long, simple or complex, the end result is up to you. When creating this template, here are some steps that will guide you: After downloading your free Christmas letter template, start by writing a positive greeting. This is a great way to break the ice and give your letter a good feeling. When composing a message, think about your recipients, and then you can share with family members, but not with people at work. Consider this when thinking about your message. Write text using your own voice Don't try. Update disambigu Your letters to the people that matter most to you to write naturally. In this way, the recipient knows who the letter came from as well. Share the happy things in your life. Do not use a cocky or arrogant tone when doing so. In addition, keep this section short and simple. You don't want to bore your recipients with the details of these happy events, share a sentence or two about them just to keep the recipient in the loop about what's going on in your life. Include a few photos if you want. These can help your recipients better visualize what you share in the mail. For example, if you welcome a new pet into your home, include a picture of your family next to your new roommate. Choose clear photos full of personality and fun. Your recipient will need treatment. End your letter with a message of hope. Remember that Christmas is about hope, love and happiness. During this time, it is best to reflect the hope, dreams and love we have for those close to you. This is the best reason to end your letter with a positive. Christmas letter template! After writing your message like any other Christmas letter sample, it's time to finish everything before shipping. Putting time and effort in polishing your mail helps you give the best memento to your letter to make sure it's easy to read. While you want to use all colors of the season, using red text on a green background is not the best idea. Make sure your recipients can read your messages clearly so they can appreciate you for it. If you don't have the best handwriting, you're You should print the contents of the letter on your computer. Before printing or exporting, all proofreading Also, check the space between each line and each paragraph to make sure it can be read from start to finish. Even if you type mail on your computer, you can print the letter on your computer This makes the letter more private. If it's a family Christmas letter, ask other members of your family to sign the letter to add an element of charm to it. After checking everything, type your letter. Put it in a festive envelope adorned with stickers, stamps and Christmas icons printed out all by making it as festive as possible, so your recipients know what they're getting, even if they haven't opened it yet.
