Playing In Front Maria Bethâniado album 25 years Release 1990 genre Sertanejo Duration 3:21 Gravadora (s) Philips Composed Almir Sater and Renato Teixeira Producer Jaime Alem and Mayrton Bahia Playing In Front is a song by Brazilian singer and songwriters Almir Sater and Renato Teixeira, first recorded by Maria Bethânia in 1990 on her 25-year album. The song won Song of the Year in the Special and Best Song category in the MPB category of the 1991 Sharp Awards. Playing in Front is considered a classic of country music in Brazil. Story In a 2012 presentation in the show Viola Minha Viola, TV Cultura, Almir Sater, asked by Inezita Barroso in what he was inspired to do for the song, replied that he went to dinner at the home of Renato Teixeira, took a guitar from Renato's son who was leaning over and started strum. In the meantime, a melody goes into his head and Renato starts writing lyrics. Almir also told him that he received a phone call from Maria Bethânia, who until then did not know personally, asking if he had a song for her to record. In response, he stated that he had just made a song but Renato Teixeira would record it. At his request, he sang Ringing Forward over the phone and Bethany told him that the song was mys. She contacted Renato and he authorized her recording. [1] Maria Bethânia's Award and Recognition in Voice, the song won Song of the Year in the Special and Best Song category in the MPB category of the 1991 Sharp Awards. [2] The song is considered a classical country music in Brazil and has been re-recorded by several Brazilian music names. [5] In addition to Maria Bethânia and composers Almir Sater and Renato Teixeira,[6][7][8] several singers have performed Playing Ahead on their albums, including Agnaldo Rayol (starring Wanessa),[9] César Menotti & Fabiano,[10] Daniel,[11] Fábio de Melo,[12] João Neto & Frederico (part. Fernando & Sorocaba),[13] José Augusto,[14] Oswaldo Montenegro,[15] Paula Fernandes (part. Leonardo),[16] Rionegro,[17] Sérgio Reis[18] and Anavitória. Song soundtracks are part of the soundtrack of four telenovelas and a film. Played by Maria Bethânia, she is part of the pantanal opera (Manchete, 1990) and Prova de Amor (Record, 2005–06),[19][20] Leonardo and Paula Fernandes sing the song from Araguaia's song (Globo, 2010–11),[21] while Almir Sater is the singer in Além do Tempo (Globo, 2015–16). [22] In the re-version of the film O Menino da Porteira (2009), the song was in Daniel's voice. [5] Reference ↑ TV Cultura Digital (October 4, 2012). Playing forward, by Almir Sater. Youtube.
