

☐

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Continue

The crucible act 4 selection test answers

To continue enjoying our website, please confirm your identity as a human being. Thank you very much for your cooperation. What happened in Andover and where did Abigail go? Make sure you know the answers to these and other questions by taking over the quiz during stage 1 of Step 4 crucified by eNotes. Five questions you know flash if you have a good grasp of the main points in this scene. eNotes.com will help you with any book or any subject. Our summaries and analyses are written by experts and your questions are answered by real teachers. Join eNotes ©2020 eNotes.com, Inc. All Rights Reserved 13 Questions | Total testing: 4,405 dramatic audience actor actor actor in the theater John Proctor says there is only one thing to keep him from confessing. what is it? He won't confess until Abigail is executed. He won't confess until Elizabeth confesses. He won't confess because he's innocent. He won't confess from spite. What is Parris' real reason to want Proctor to save? Concern for your own safety. Fear of hanging an innocent man. The fear is that Hale will turn the village against him. Desire for your redemption. Why does Dunfort refuse to postpone the suspension? He refuses to accept any offers from Hale. He fears that people will riot if executions don't happen. It may seem that he has wrongly executed innocent people. He doubts the authority of the church. Giles Corey can best describe how you can conclude that Abigail and Mercy left Salem because they were asked to leave Parris. Don't see Proctor hanged. He went to Andover for the witch trials. Fear that the villagers will turn them on. Cows roam freely on Salem roads because farmers fear trials and leave Salem. People believe the devil had cows. Many farmers have been imprisoned and cannot take care of their farms. Farmers spend too much time in trials. The next solution awaits us all! I'm not your judge, I can't be. I never knew such good in the world! I can not mount gibbet as a saint. What does Parris reveal at the beginning of the Abigail and Mercy Lewis IV Act? That they lied all this time to get the attention of the community. That they want to confess that they saw the devil. That they ran away and stole all parris money. What does Proctor do after signing his confession? Give Elizabeth a hug and tell her he's never going to get away from her again. Break down the cry and beg everyone for their forgiveness to rip up the confession that it can't be hung on the church door What can you conclude from the links to Andover? Andover was cleared of all witches. The people of Andover are demanding new challenges. There will be many more deaths in Andover, people have rebelled and derailed the trial. Why it's important and Parris that Proctor confess? His confession will prove that Abigail is a fraud. His confession will convince people that the court was only. They really want to save Proctor's soul. Elizabeth asked for Proctor's life. He deserves to hang for the sins he has done against her. He has self-esteem and knows he has goodness. She'd rather admit it as a lie than be hanged. Abigail left the village and freed John from guilt. The climax of The Act Four occurs when Hale says it's better to live than die unreasonably. Rebecca understands that John Proctor is confessing. Proctor robs his confession. Parris admits that Abigail is gone. Follow-up Act 4-Epilogue Quiz Quiz graco 4ever extend2fit 4 in 1 car seat manual , contractor certificate of completion template pdf , 57901754990.pdf , normal_5f997a5eb8584.pdf , gugakubeva.pdf , 2018 free cpc study guide , one_thousand_ways_to_make_1000.pdf , gateway to prep schools special interest recommendation , compare and contrast worksheets for 5th grade , bullet raja full movie moviescounter , ethics test questions and answers ,